

Italian Fleet To Mass Near British-Defended Canal

The South's Standard
Newspaper

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

The Daily Constitution Leads in Home Delivered, City, Trading Territory and Total Circulation

A. P. Service
United Press
N. A. N. A.

VOL. LXVIII., No. 76.

ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA

ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27, 1935.

Entered at Atlanta Postoffice
As Second-Class Mail Matter.

Daily and Sunday: Weekly 20c; Monthly 50c.
Single Copies: Daily, 5c; Sunday, 10c.

CONGRESS QUITS AS LONG KILLS DEFICIENCY MEASURE; 10-CENT COMPROMISE COTTON LOAN IS ANNOUNCED

WAR DECLARATION AGAINST ETHIOPIA IS HELD IMMINENT

Dictator Summons Cabinet, Confers With High Commissioner in Africa. Paris Feels Developments May Halt Britain.

ITALIAN LEGATION EVACUATES "ZONE"

England Said Ready to Convey 'Ships,' Supplies to Africa If Mussolini Attempts To Bar Canal.

ROME, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Informed sources disclosed tonight the Italian battle fleet is on the point of initiating extensive movements in the Mediterranean, which is already the scene of widespread British troop and ship massing. Control of the Mediterranean means control of the only practical route to Ethiopia.

This disclosure followed two others—that Premier Mussolini had held his first telephone conversation with High Commissioner De Bono, of Ethiopia, and that he had summoned his cabinet ministers to meet near the military headquarters of Bolzano.

The developments galvanized official sources into expectancy of an imminent warlike declaration by Il Duce.

The measures kept the nation tense. News of Mussolini's conversation with De Bono Saturday night—the night immediately following the departure of 6,000 blackshirts—including Il Duce's two sons—for East Africa crystallized the popular conviction of Il Duce's all-seeing interest in the campaign because he hovered near a telephone to talk to De Bono while his own sons were sailing.

The details of the conversation were not known, but informed sources believed Il Duce, having 500,000 trained men in the field in Italy and more than 100,000 trained troops already in Africa, may have decided the moment is ripe to strike.

The press gave itself over almost entirely to description of the military maneuvers at Bolzano, recalling several divisions destined for East Africa service were in the "forefront" of hostilities.

The steamship Naxos sailed for Africa from Naples, bearing 1,145 blackshirts and 80 officers. The steamship Italia, bought recently by the Italian government to carry airplanes to its colonies, was equipped with loading machines of the latest type for an early departure.

Popular Officer Passes

CHIEF W. O. PARKER.

W. O. PARKER DIES AFTER OPERATION

Chief of DeKalb Police Fails To Rally to Blood Transfusion at Hospital.

W. O. Parker, chief of the DeKalb county police, died at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Georgia Baptist hospital after he had failed to rally from an operation for the removal of the left kidney. The chief died a short time after he had been given an emergency blood transfusion in which Ed Foster, a brother officer, was the donor.

Chief Parker was widely known in Atlanta and Decatur and had had extensive business connections here. He was 47 years of age, a Mason and a Shriner. He was named chief of DeKalb police on March 21, 1934, succeeding Chief John C. Rasbury, who resigned following a disagreement with county officials over adoption of NRA code regulations for the police.

Chief Parker was born at Jonesboro, in Clayton county, on October 3, 1887. He came to Atlanta when a small child and began his business career after attending the public school of the city. His first association was with the W. & A. railroad as soliciting freight agent. He later joined the Atlanta fire department, serving for three years. His brother, O. J. Parker, is present chief of the department.

Widely Connected.

Chief Parker was next associated with the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and then became affiliated with the Chattanooga Medicine Company. His next connection was as assistant sales manager of the International Proprietary Company, and from that position he became secretary-treasurer and office manager of Karnak, Inc., a medicine firm operated by the late G. F. Willis.

Chief Parker left Karnak to become president of Parker, Cain & Routh, wholesale notions house. Later he rejoined the enterprises of Mr. Willis and was associated with Willis until the latter's death. He then joined the DeKalb county police force and there his record was such that he was named chief by C. A. Matthews, chairman of the DeKalb board of commissioners.

RED AMBASSADOR COUNTERCHARGES U. S. PROPAGANDA

Trojanovsky Says Talk Against America There Is Insignificant Compared to Anti-Soviet Move Here.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Anything said in Moscow against the United States was "very insignificant compared to continuous propaganda in the United States against the Soviet Union," Ambassador Alexander Trojanovsky said today in an indirect reply to the American note of protest.

The Soviet ambassador commented on a note delivered to his government yesterday by American Ambassador William C. Bullitt, which warned in effect unless Soviet propaganda here was discontinued a breaking off of diplomatic relations might be considered.

Trojanovsky said his government would make a "satisfactory" reply. "I have no intention of saying anything about the note of protest lodged by Ambassador Bullitt with our foreign office," his statement said.

"A satisfactory reply will be made in Moscow by my government. I wish to refer only to a campaign which has been conducted by some persons in this country against our government and against our form of government."

"I recall the Biblical injunction: 'And why beholdest thou the mote which is in thy brother's eye but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?'"

"Anything said in Moscow by American citizens about the United States would make a 'satisfactory' reply."

Continued in Page 9, Column 3.

Release of Georgia Highway Funds Expected Without Further Trouble

Vinson Announces Concessions Agreed Upon After Series Of Conferences With U. S. Road Chief; Roper Says Whole Matter Nearing Adjustment.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS. WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—After a series of conferences with Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the United States Bureau of Public Roads, Representative Carl Vinson, dean of the Georgia congressional delegation, announced today that further concessions have been agreed upon in connection with the state highway controversy which in his opinion will result in the release of the $19,000,000 Georgia road fund.

Mr. MacDonald, the Georgia congressman said, will prepare a letter this week to Chairman W. E. Wilburn, of the State Highway Board, yielding ground on objections raised by Governor Talmadge and state authorities to two of the proposals made earlier by Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace for settlement of the controversy.

Roper Writes Howell. Evidence of the administration's determination to adjust the Georgia highway squabble came from still another source today when it was revealed that Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper has written a letter to Clark Howell, editor and president of The Constitution, saying "it appears the entire matter is nearing satisfactory adjustment."

Continued in Page 9, Column 4.

U. S., JAPAN SEEK PACT ON COTTON

Philippines Restrictions Discussed by Hull, Saito To Ease Friction.

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The United States and Japan are negotiating a "gentlemen's agreement" seeking to restrict Japanese cotton textile exports to the Philippines.

An easing of economic and political friction growing from the island textile situation is a direct objective of the discussions.

These facts were learned authoritatively today.

Secretary Hull and Hiroshi Saito, the Japanese ambassador, initiated the negotiations in talks covering the general phases of the question. Other American and Japanese officials are now actively engaged in drafting a mutually satisfactory agreement.

Reemphasized Report. Revelation that active negotiations already are under way came in the wake of a recommendation by the cabinet textile committee to President Roosevelt that similar steps be instituted for an accord limiting the export of cheap Japanese textiles to the United States.

American cotton textile manufacturers have protested vigorously against the capture of American and Philippine markets by Japanese textiles.

Continued in Page 8, Column 1.

ROOSEVELT FIXES 'DEADLINE' DATES TO SPEED RELIEF

Move Interpreted as Meaning Omission of Heavy Construction Programs Not Already Filed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A series of deadlines, the first scarcely more than two weeks off, was fixed by President Roosevelt today in a move to complete the allotment of the entire $4,000,000,000 work relief fund by September 24.

This latest attempt to speed up the lagging program was interpreted as eliminating almost all heavy construction projects on which applications have not been submitted, and barring numerous PWA and housing projects earlier slated for approval.

Increased emphasis on Harry L. Hopkins' Works Progress Administration projects, with wider discretion to local administrators, was fore-shadowed.

List of Dates. The President's letter, notifying cabinet officers and other work relief agents of this latest policy change, gave these final dates:

September 12, all applications by both local and federal agencies, submitted in final form.

September 17, final meeting of work relief allotment committee.

September 24, all allotments actually made available through approval by the President as well as the treasury and Comptroller-General J. R. McCarl.

October 22, sponsoring agents "prepared" either to begin work on projects to be carried out by direct labor.

Continued in Page 9, Column 1.

Filibuster by Huey Leaves Major Part Of Bills Inoperative

Under New Lint Policy, Growers Will Receive the Difference Between Sale Price and 12 Cents Based on Date Sold.

13-16 STAPLE IS CUT FROM NEW LOAN

Advances to Be Restricted to Actual Quotas Under Contract Instead of Signer's Entire Crop.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A substitute compromise plan to provide a loan of 10 cents a pound and a subsidy to increase the final producer return on the 1935 cotton crop to not over 12 cents was announced late today by the AAA.

Loan forms will be available to farmers the week beginning Monday, September 2.

The new plan, differing in several important respects from the first loan-subsidy arrangement announced last week, was approved at a conference of farm and treasury officials at the White House this afternoon, in an effort to pacify southern senators who had blocked adjournment of congress.

Under the compromise plan, loans of 10 cents will be advanced on cotton of 7-8 inch low middling grade or better. The subsidy payments will be based on daily average prices at the 10 spot markets.

Differences in Plans. Here are the salient differences between the 9-cent plan and the 10-cent compromise announced today:

Loans will be made only on 7-8 inch low middling cotton or better, instead of on 13-16 inch low middling or better as in the 9-cent plan. This reduces by about 200,000 bales the number eligible for loans.

The subsidy payments will be made on the basis of the average price at the 10 spot markets on the day the cotton is sold, rather than upon the four-month average.

Loans and payments will be restricted to actual production not in excess of the Bankhead allotment. Formerly, each of the 1,004,000 contract signers was eligible to obtain a loan on all his cotton, but subsidy payments would be made only upon the Bankhead allotments.

The subsidy payments will apply to all sales of 1935 cotton, including those already made.

Continued in Page 8, Column 2.

Continued in Page 8, Column 2.

The News at a Glance

Clip this each day and make your scrapbook a thumbnail history, August 27, 1935.

- LOCAL. Release of Georgia highway funds expected from Washington. Page 1
- Chief W. O. Parker, of DeKalb county police, dies suddenly. Page 1
- State Highway Board awards $1,440,000 in road contracts. Page 1
- Former Atlanta girl attacked in Alameda McPherson's pulp. Page 3
- Solicitor Boykin to object to Engineer Eaves on grand jury. Page 1
- PWA flying squad urges state to hasten applications for funds. Page 3
- Jack J. Spaulding recounts story of expedition here in '33. Page 8
- Women organize to carry bond election drive to voters. Page 1
- Southern circulation managers to meet in Savannah. Page 2
- Lincoln McConnell, of Macon, assigned to capital post. Page 2
- New security method outlined in tax cases. Page 2
- Decatur tax rate is cut five mills. Page 2
- DOMESTIC. Congress adjourns after filibuster prevents deficiency bill passage. Page 1
- AAA announces 10-cent cotton loan after congressional protest. Page 1
- Roosevelt sets series of deadlines on relief allotments. Page 1
- FOREIGN. Compromise utility measure signed by President Roosevelt. Page 9
- Soviet ambassador assails United States protest on cotton exports. Page 9
- United States and Japan seek accord on cotton exports. Page 9
- SPORTS. Cardinals open "school" for sandlot players at Rome September 16. Page 11
- State tennis meet opens second round at Rittmore. Page 11
- Ralph McGill's Break of Day. Page 10
- FEATURES. Editorial page. Page 4
- Paul Mallon. Page 4
- Mollie Merritt. Page 4
- Westbrook Foster. Page 4
- Theater programs. Page 4
- Radio programs. Page 4
- Daily crossword puzzle. Page 4
- Comics. Page 4
- "Feather in Her Hat." Page 14
- Caroline Chaffield. Page 15
- Culbertson on bridge. Page 17
- Society. Page 13, 15
- Tarzan. Page 18

WOMEN ORGANIZE IN BOND CAMPAIGN

Ward and Precinct Groups To Be Formed by Leaders in City Drive

Under the leadership of Mrs. George Ripley, co-chairman of the drive of citizens for ratification of the $1,775,000 bond issue September 18, Atlanta women yesterday added impetus to the campaign and laid plans for an intensive effort to secure 900 per cent approval by the women in the balloting.

Twelve of the 13 ward chairmen, appointed by Mrs. Ripley, gathered yesterday at Mrs. Ripley's home and various ward organizations will be formed immediately as a result of the program formulated.

Mrs. Katherine Hillyear Conner, chairman of the eighth ward division, announced that her ward organization will be completed at a meeting to be held at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Biltmore hotel, and other ward chairmen will gather influential

Continued in Page 9, Column 2.

Cobb Finds Faith Levels Mountains

By IRVING S. COBB. (Copyright, 1935, by the North American Newspaper Syndicate.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—I wouldn't have missed the snake dance for a lot. Some of the snakes didn't feel that way. They started out by being stage-struck and wound up being bored. Well, back east those professional snakes around the night clubs would rather dance with ladies than other gentlemen. At least, most of them would. Probably runs in the blood.

Repeal of Texas Prohibition Law Makes Oklahoma Southwest Desert

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Texas' repeal of prohibition made Oklahoma a dry desert in the southwest tonight—surrounded by five wet states and one dry one.

Green Grants Charter For Auto Labor Union

DETROIT, Aug. 26.—(AP)—William Green, presenting an American Federation of Labor charter to the International Automobile Workers' Union today, urged the approximately 250 delegates to begin a drive to recruit a quarter million workers in the traditionally open shop motor industry.

$1,440,000 Road Job Contracted by Board

The State Highway Board yesterday formally awarded $1,440,000 worth of paving, grading and bridge contracts, as it awaited an expected letter from Washington continuing negotiations for settlement of the controversy which has long tied up Georgia's $19,000,000 share of the federal highway fund.

Continued in Page 8, Column 2.

The Weather

ATLANTA—Fair. COOL. GEORGIA—Cloudy. WARM.

WASHINGTON—Forecast: Georgia—Partly cloudy, showers in south portion Tuesday; Wednesday showers.

Local Weather Report. Highest temperature... 85. Lowest temperature... 60. Mean temperature... 72. Normal temperature... 76. Rainfall in past 12 hrs., in... .00. Def. since Jan. 1, ins... 0.72. Def. since Jan. 1, ins... 5.78. Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins... 28.41.

Weather forecast for all cotton states may be found in market pages.

Money to Loan. If you are in need of money for any legitimate purpose, turn to the WANT AD PAGES of The Constitution. You'll find reliable loan companies and brokers advertising daily, one of whom will supply your needs. Turn now.

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations. STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER. Temperature: Rain 12 hrs. ATLANTA, clear... 78 85 .00. Augusta, clear... 79 86 .00. Birmingham, clear... 78 85 .00. Boston, pt. cldy... 72 82 .00. Buffalo, clear... 74 78 .00. Charleston, clear... 74 78 .00. Charlotte, clear... 76 .00. Chattanooga, clear... 78 88 .00. Chicago, clear... 80 82 .00. Denver, clear... 78 78 .00. Detroit, cloudy... 84 85 .00. Evansville, clear... 74 76 .00. Helena, clear... 78 80 .00. Jacksonville, rain... 78 88 .00. Kansas City, clear... 82 88 .00. Macon, clear... 82 88 .00. Memphis, clear... 86 90 .00. Minneapolis, cloudy... 82 90 .00. Mobile, cloudy... 78 .00. Montgomery, cloudy... 84 85 .00. New Orleans, cloudy... 80 .00. New York, clear... 76 .00. Oklahoma City, cldy... 80 .00. Phoenix, clear... 95 .00. Pittsburgh, cloudy... 76 .00. Raleigh, clear... 78 .00. San Francisco, cldy... 70 .00. St. Louis, cloudy... 70 .00. Savannah, clear... 80 .00. Tampa, cloudy... 80 .00. Tishomingo, cloudy... 80 .00. Washington, clear... 80 .00.

LA GRANGE LEGION PROTESTS AWARD

Prize Won at Macon by Atlanta Band Is Disputed.

LAGRANGE, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—LaGrange Legionnaires will protest the award to Atlanta of a $500 prize for senior drum and bugle corps, A. B. designated spot; and failed to take its Brooks, drum major of the local corps, said today. Brooks said he was now drawing up the protest which would charge that the Atlanta corps disqualified itself from competition on three technicalities.

The drum major said the protest would charge the Atlanta post overstayed the time limit on the field; made two trips by the grandstand instead of leaving the field at the designated spot; and failed to take its colors from the field according to regulations. Brooks said he understood the Savannah Legion post was preparing to protest also.

CHARGES ARE DENIED BY DRUM CORPS LEADER.

Dave L. Wiley, captain of the Atlanta American Legion drum and bugle corps, said today he has no intention of yielding the corps' recently won state prize to LaGrange, where a protest against the judges' decision is being prepared.

"None of the things they charge us with are in violation of the rules of the national music committee of our organization," Wiley said. "And we don't go by anything but the national rules."

"Anyway, we've got the prize."

Postoffice Completed.

CAIRO, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—Cairo's postoffice building, which has been completed and accepted by the United States Treasury Department, will be occupied some time next month.

Postmaster J. S. Weathers said he had received authority to move into the new building but was awaiting arrival of furniture needed.

Best—always!

Kellogg's—the original Corn Flakes—are today the world's largest-selling ready-to-eat cereal. Matchless flavor. Unvarying quality. Always oven-fresh.

Kellogg's FOR QUALITY

NEW SECURITY METHOD OUTLINED IN TAX CASES

Litigants Over Processing Levies and Judge Hold Conference.

MACON, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—New methods of supplying security to the United States district court for processing taxes involved in litigation were outlined today at a conference between attorneys for various manufacturing concerns and Judge Bascom S. Deaver.

Taxpayers, who must pay the processing taxes or give the court security for them where injunctions have been issued, may under the new plan furnish:

Statutory bonds; certified checks or demand certificates of deposits from banks which are members of the federal reserve system;

Cash, in trust deposits in specified banks;

Federal reserve checks, if they can be obtained;

United States bonds and treasury notes which are acceptable in payment of federal taxes; other government securities on a basis of $115 par value for each $100;

Checks or certificates of deposits from banks having capital and surplus of $200,000 or more, the amount of checks from any one bank not to exceed the amount of capital and surplus.

New means of furnishing security were necessitated when the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta recently discontinued issuance of certified checks as security for processing taxes. Numerous Georgia concerns have obtained temporary injunctions in federal court restraining collection of the processing tax by W. E. Page, state collector of internal revenue.

School Wardrobe Trunks

Large Assortment $19.95 and Up

W. Z. Turner Luggage Co.

219 PEACHTREE ST.

Rogers' Spirit Spreads Warmth As Body Lies in Frigid Wastes

By ALBERT C. LEITCH.

Even as the body of America's beloved Will Rogers was lying cold in death in the frigid wastelands of the far north the warmth of his kindly spirit was reaching out to accomplish another good deed for an ambitious boy who had appealed to him for aid, it was revealed in Atlanta yesterday by Major W. B. Estes, a flight officer of the United States army, now professor of aeronautics at Castle Heights Military Academy at Lebanon, Tenn.

Ironically enough, the boy had appealed to Will for a helping hand in mastering the scientific end of aviation—the industry which Rogers loved—and it was this same lack of knowledge of the science of aeronautics, in the belief of the major, which brought death to the beloved humorist-philosopher and his famous friend, Wiley Post.

Boy's Name Secret.

The boy's name must forever remain a secret—Will wished it so. He was like that. He feared that persons might charge him with seeking publicity if it were known whom he helped.

The youth had learned to fly when he was only 15 years old. Major Estes related yesterday. He was a born aviator, but he realized that lack of the knowledge of the science end would hinder his career.

"I have had three years in a prep school," he wrote to Rogers. "I want to go to Boston Tech to learn the scientific end of flying. I need another year of prep school. Could you arrange so I could attend Claremore Academy?"

Rogers sent the letter to his friend, Major Estes and added note of his own. "I could pay his tuition and I am perfectly willing to do so," he wrote. "However, I am afraid that it might do something to the boy's morale to feel that he was receiving charity. Could you arrange to give him the year at Castle Heights? I feel that this boy will benefit from a knowledge of the scientific aspects of flying."

Scientific End of Flying.

And this lack of the scientific knowledge of flying, Major Estes said yesterday, is what he believes resulted in the death of Rogers and Post. "Wiley Post was a great airman," the major declared. "I would not

Sees Pledges Adopted

JOHN E. DRAKE.

he had just asked the young woman stenographer.

A boy came in crying "Extra."

The paper was placed in front of the major.

"That young woman turned pale as a ghost," he said. "I don't know myself how I ever got back to my quarters. Will's kindly deeds were living even beyond death."

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO HOLD 107TH MEET

COLUMBUS, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—The Columbus Baptist Association will hold its 107th annual convention September 12-13 at Waverly Hall Baptist church. Columbus Roberts, of Columbus, is moderator; Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, is vice moderator; Cary C. Willis, Columbus, is clerk, and Elmer Massey treasurer.

Dr. James Merritt, executive secretary of the Georgia Baptist convention; Rev. J. W. Womble, of Tallapoosa; Dr. Aguirre Chamlee, of Beale Tift College, and Dr. O. P. Gilbert, editor of the Christian Index, will be among the speakers.

DECATUR COUNTY RATE IS SLASHED FIVE MILLS

Economy Program Enables Commissioners To Set Levy at 12 Mills.

BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Aug. 26.—The commissioners of roads and revenues of Decatur county have set the tax levy for 1935 at 12 mills, or $12 upon every $1,000 worth of property, which is a reduction of five mills, which will effect a saving of $5 per $1,000 to property owners of the county.

The digest for this year shows a total assessment of $4,171,370, a reduction of $81,000 from the 1934 property values. The assessment made by the auditor general in Atlanta and furnished the county against the public utilities corporations is $1,557,520, reduction of $65,000 from last year.

John E. Drake, chairman of the board, during the campaign last fall pledged a number of economies if elected, practically all of which have been put into effect.

The commissioners feel that the system of economy installed at the first of the year by the board has enabled them to make the five-mill reduction in taxes.

The county had $182,000 outstanding warrants on January 1 and in addition to paying $15,000 interest, the warrants have been reduced to $65,000, while at the same time much new machinery has been purchased for road work. It is the plan of the board to pay the outstanding warrants by January 1.

Since the state supreme court has ruled that the highway certificates are valid, the board in the commission to pay the outstanding paving bonds of the county totaling $250,000 out of the $371,000 worth of certificates owned by the county. The county has finished grading the last ten miles to the Florida line on the Tallahassee road and contract to pave this highway has been let and work thereon is expected to begin shortly.

The Decatur county board is composed of John E. Drake, chairman, who is also mayor of Bainbridge; H. R. Gentry, of Bainbridge; J. H. Miller, J. J. Howell, C. E. Hurst, clerk; W. H. Miller, attorney, and C. C. Harrell, warden.

CIRCULATION LEADERS TO MEET IN SAVANNAH

Southern Newspaper Distributors To Open Session October 2.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—Men responsible for the day-in-and-day-out delivery of southern newspapers plan to assemble here October 2-4 for the annual convention of the Southern Circulation Managers.

J. L. Bankhead, of Miami, is president of the convention, at which approximately 100 delegates are expected. An executive session is arranged for October 2, with the formal speaking program to begin next day. The annual banquet is set for Thursday evening, October 3.

Shop talks are to be made by John T. Toler, Atlanta; R. B. Cullum, port; E. D. Hood, Savannah; W. C. Dreyfus, Nashville; W. M. Morgan, New Orleans; Horace Powell, Atlanta; J. T. Webb, Macon; G. A. Dorris, Davis, Birmingham; A. D. Potter and H. E. Johnson, Tampa; J. R. Chambliss, Dothan, Ala.; and J. O. Jones, of Tallapoosa; J. F. Goldschmidt, Memphis; J. M. Black, New Orleans; Charles Coleman, Atlanta, and others.

A questions and answers period is on the program also. Assigned to ask questions are:

J. C. Campbell, Vicksburg; A. L. Smith, Huntsville; Raymond Friedrichsen, Pensacola; O. L. Randall, Columbus, Ga.; J. B. Lee, Jacksonville; T. C. Billups, Columbus, Miss.; Oliver Richmond, St. Petersburg; Bob Sudderth, Chattanooga.

Assigned to answer questions are: F. M. Grinn, Jacksonville; W. S. Martin, Augusta; Goldschmidt, Memphis; Herbert S. Johnson, Chattanooga; Tom Bilos, Jackson, Miss.; Franklin Hamilton, Tampa; Paul E. Elmer, Lafayette, La.; C. F. Namias, New Orleans.

M'CONNELL GIVEN POST IN CAPITAL

Re-employment Service Head Assigned to Washington.

MACON, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—Lincoln McConnell, state director of the National Re-employment Service with headquarters here, is leaving Macon September 1 for a six months assignment in Washington, where he will be national director of the Farm Placement Service and general administrative assistant to Frank Persons, director of the United States Employment Service.

Mr. McConnell also will have jurisdiction over the youth placement service. During the past three weeks he has been in Washington working on the program designed to correlate the farm placement and youth placement movements.

It was learned here that Mr. McConnell was offered a permanent position in the capital, but that he declined and accepted his new assignment only with the understanding he can return not later than six months from now and that, meanwhile, he will continue in active charge of the Georgia Re-employment Service.

During the past year Mr. McConnell has been given several special assignments, including work in two or three western states where re-employment units were set up and started to functioning. His work in this state first, and later on the special assignments, has attracted considerable attention from Washington officials.

Mr. McConnell has been director of the State Re-employment Service since its inception. Prior to that he held many executive positions in the city of Macon, including the administration of Boy Scout activities, membership of the Macon Chamber of Commerce and for a time he was executive vice president of the City Bank & Trust Company here.

BUSINESS IS BRISK AT SAVANNAH PORT

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—Business has been brisk on Savannah's waterfront this month despite the fact that shipping men have come to look upon August as being a dull period. To date 90 ships have arrived and the figure is expected to soar well over the 100-ship mark before the first of September.

Stvedores on coastwise ships have been working overtime loading cargo, while the export business of the port is also up. There is noticeable increase in exports from Savannah to Scandinavian ports. Twelve tankers bringing cargoes of refined petroleum products from the gulf were included in the ships docking here during the month.

—fragrance
and flavor

There's only one place in the world where you can get certain kinds of aromatic tobaccos that we use in Chesterfield cigarettes—and that's Turkey and Greece.

Without adding these tobaccos to our own mild ripe Southern leaf, Chesterfield would not be Chesterfield...

mildness that smokers like pleasing taste and flavor that smokers like

Threading Turkish tobacco on strings to hang in the sun to ripen.

AUGUST GASOLINE TAX SETS NEW HIGH MARK

Increased Consumption Raises Revenue to More Than $1,500,000 Monthly.

With collections already totalling $1,435,324, Comptroller-General William B. Harrison yesterday announced the gasoline tax revenue for August had broken all previous records.

The comptroller said that with another week to run he expected the collections for the month to total more than $1,500,000.

The returns show a considerable gain over those of August 1934, when the collections totalled $1,256,024, as well as over July of this year, when they totalled $1,314,440. The total returns are far ahead of last year and a new high record for the year is anticipated. Thus far the collections for the year total $10,139,882, compared with $9,138,434, the increase being $901,448.

"Of course, the increase is due to a greater consumption of gasoline, but I am glad to say a great part of it is due to the fact we are getting more and more successful in our campaign to stamp out gasoline bootlegging," Comptroller General Harrison said.

"While I would like to say we have the bootlegging stamped out completely, the law needs more teeth in it before that can be accomplished. However, our record speaks for itself. We are making satisfactory progress."

At the same time, Mr. Harrison announced a corresponding increase had been noted in the revenue from kerosene, collections this year totalling $1,319,168.

"We ought to pass the $20,000 mark this month on kerosene tax collections," he added. "Tax collections generally are looking up."

The increase in gasoline tax means increased funds for the common schools of the state, as one-sixth of the total collected is allocated to them. Likewise the schools get the revenue from the kerosene tax.

One-sixth of the gasoline income goes to the counties for highways. The rest is allocated to the Highway Department, less the 3 per cent of all allocated funds which goes into the general treasury.

AVIATOR IS INJURED WHEN PLANE CRASHES

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 26.—(AP)—E. C. Sutton, pilot of the Richmond airport and formerly of Greensboro, N. C., was injured in the crash of a plane he was piloting here yesterday. He suffered a broken leg and was cut and bruised. He was bringing the plane down to the field when it crashed and overturned.

GET YOUR FREE GLASS!

Handsomeness FREE with each package of EZ-IT.

EZ-IT, the prescription of an outstanding Southern physician, is highly recommended for relief of Headache, Periodic Pains, Neuralgia, Muscular Aches, etc.

EZ-IT HEADACHE POWDERS

10c EVERYWHERE
"INVEST A DIME—FEEL FINE IN NO TIME"

How to Relieve Athlete's Foot

The parasite which attacks the feet between the toes, causing rawness, itching, inflammation and destroying tissue can be killed with nothing less than "Tetterine," a pleasant-tasting preparation that soothes instantly, giving quick relief from this acute, contagious condition. Healing and formation of clean, healthy skin promptly follows the use of Tetterine. Get a package from any drug store. Try it and get your money back if not satisfied.—(adv.)

Summer Comfort For Babies Who Suffer From Heat and Rash

Use This Delightfully Cooling, Soothing Powder Instead of Sticky, Greasy Ointment.

Mother, when your baby frets it is uncomfortable, suffering, and in hot summer weather it is usually due to diaper rash, chafing, prickly heat or just plain old heat rash. Now, be careful! Baby's skin is tender and in an already irritated condition, so use nothing except Mexican Heat Powder, a preparation of purity that cannot harm the texture of baby's delicate skin.

Simply dust Mexican Heat Powder over the affected area and you'll give baby instant relief. Mexican Heat Powder cools, soothes and heals. You can get it at any drug store. Keep baby in comfort this summer with Mexican Heat Powder, and also use it for your own skin: to dispel body odors and for tired, burning, swollen feet.—(adv.)

MADAM VARDER

Palmetto, Business Adviser. Will tell your past, your present, your future, call your name, tell the real cause of your misfortune, or lack of success. Satisfaction or no charge. Hours 2 a. m. to 5 p. m. Three questions answered free with this ad. 2971 Peachtree Road (Take Peachtree Road Car to Peachtree Ave.)

How to Treat Pimples

Gently smear the affected parts with Cuticura Ointment, but do not rub. Wash it off in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Cuticura Ointment 25c and 50c. Soap 25c.

PWA Flying Squad Pays Whirlwind Visit to Atlanta

On a hurried tour of inspection of Public Works Administration accomplishments in Georgia, six PWA officials arrived in Atlanta by plane yesterday and continued their tour of the south this morning, after warning that all applications for funds must be submitted to the local office by September 7. The picture shows, front row, left to right, Philip M. Benton, director finance division; Colonel Elmer W. Clark, assistant to the administrator, and J. Houston Johnston, Georgia's PWA director. Back row, left to right, are Arthur J. Bulger, assistant director, engineering division; Edward H. Foley Jr., director legal division; Aubrey E. Taylor, assistant director public relations, and Dan H. Wheeler, administrative attorney. Photo by George Cornett.

Sept. 7 Deadline for PWA Funds; Officials Fly Here To Urge Haste

PWA's flying squad of inspectors, circling the south in a fast navy monoplane to speed up applications for useful Public Works projects under the $4,800,000 works program, swept into Atlanta yesterday to find word awaiting them which puts additional emphasis on their pleas for haste in Georgia.

The deadline for applications has been moved up. Word came from Washington yesterday that no applications would be considered there after September 12 and to guarantee meeting this deadline, J. Houston Johnston, Georgia's acting PWA director, immediately flashed word to 370 prospective applicants in this state that their applications must be on his desk not later than September 7.

70 Applications Still Due. More than 70 applications are still to be received in this state which will move above $10,000,000 the figure of $4,432,000 which now represents the state's demands on the PWA.

This means that within the next 12 days, the Georgia PWA office must handle as many applications as it has handled since the office was opened. Colonel Elmer W. Clark, assistant to the PWA national administrator, is head of the party which arrived by plane in Atlanta yesterday and after a whirlwind tour of the city including an inspection of the Atlanta University and Techwood housing projects, a conference of local PWA officials, a luncheon at the Piedmont hotel and a dinner in their honor at the Capital City Club last night, pointed the nose of their plane this morning toward Columbia, S. C., to accelerate work in that area.

Personnel of Party. With Colonel Clark were: Edward H. Foley Jr., director of the PWA legal division; Philip M. Benton, director of the finance division; Arthur J. Bulger, assistant director of the engineering division; Aubrey E. Taylor, assistant director of public relations; Dan H. Wheeler, administrative attorney, and Joseph K. Vinson, secretary.

Under the PWA, the various states and their subdivisions are advanced 45 per cent of funds needed to finance needed projects, which will prove enduring and of benefit to the future development of the community. They are undertakings that the communities would have to finance themselves eventually, such as school buildings, road and street construction, the repairs, waterworks extensions, auditoriums, courthouses, city halls.

Loans at 4 Per Cent. The community must supply 55 per cent of the funds needed, and these can be raised by private banking or through loans from the federal government at 4 per cent.

Georgia communities, so far, have made application for 75 projects and more than 70 more are to be submitted before the deadline. Even with its present record for funds totaling $4,432,000 and the prospect of a final figure of $10,000,000.

NINE NEW TAX CASES ARE FILED IN MACON

MACON, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Nine new processing tax cases, in some of which the plaintiffs are suing at law for recovery of taxes already paid and in others of which injunctions against collection of taxes due and to come due are asked, have been filed in federal district court here and in Columbus.

Suits at law were filed by the Crystal Springs Bleachery, of Chickamauga, for $200,020.10, and by the Perkins-Henry Mills, of Columbus, for $87,710.12.

Petitions for injunction, in which the courts granted temporary restraining orders, were filed by the Clark Thread Company of Georgia, the Roswell Mills, Inc., of Cobb county, and the Habersham Mills, of Habersham; the Crown Cotton Mills, of Whitfield county; and the Boylston Crown Mills, of Whitfield county, and the Pelham Oil & Fertilizer & Oil Company, of Pelham, and the Farmers' Peanut Company, of Cairo.

MIAMI OPENS DRIVE ON ALIEN NEGROES

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 26.—(UP)—Beginning the announced drive to rid Miami of alien negroes, police and immigration border patrol agents yesterday questioned nearly 400 negroes.

They took 51 to jail for investigation, but released all except seven men and a woman.

The campaign against negroes illegally residing here has been started as an aid to the unemployment situation. Authorities believe many alien negroes are holding jobs that should be had by citizens and that there are many aliens on the relief rolls.

STATE AUTHORITIES PLAN POWER PLANT

Board of Control To Recommend Project at Milledgeville.

Installation of a state-owned power and light plant at Milledgeville to supply the penitentiary and other state institutions there will be recommended to Governor Talmadge, it was announced yesterday by Chairman E. E. Lindsey, of the Board of Control.

Lindsey said electrical engineers are studying specifications with the view to estimating the cost of the plant.

"When the board, which supervises the state's charitable institutions, voted a survey of the proposition recently with the approval of Talmadge, Lindsey estimated expenses would amount to possibly $750,000."

"That was a rough guess," he said today. "We can't tell yet."

If the state decides to construct the plant, an application will be made for federal funds, Lindsey added.

He returned to the capitol today after making a survey of conditions at Milledgeville in company with H. P. Meikleheim, of Lindale, and Comer Turley, an engineer.

"We believe that the steam from a modern heating system would be sufficient to manufacture power for lighting purposes," said Lindsey, "but we have not arrived at a definite analysis yet."

BUZZARD ROOST PLAN HALTED BY INJUNCTION

GREENVILLE, S. C., Aug. 26.—(AP)—United States District Judge H. H. Watkins today formally signed an injunction enjoining Greenwood county and the Public Works Administration from proceeding with the proposed $300,000 Buzzard Roost power project. Thirty days were allowed the defendants for perfection of an appeal.

Judge Watkins some weeks ago ruled the project unconstitutional and today's action was merely routine completion of the necessary papers in connection with his order. The petition for an injunction was brought by the Duke Power Company as a taxpayer of Greenwood county.

The report was strengthened by information that the suspect had exhibited an expired "courtesy gasoline card" bearing the name of William Marrell. A Department of Justice agent here said that this was an alias used by Mahan in the past.

A tip to state police from Joseph Logue, operator of a filling station at Fairground Hill, Westminster, started the local hunt. Logue said a man drove into his station about 9:30 a. m. in a Chrysler sedan.

Logue reported that the man, poorly dressed and badly in need of a shave, wanted gasoline but admitted he had no money. He offered the expired courtesy card and, when it was refused, drove off toward Baltimore, Logue said.

GROUP TO ORGANIZE Community Improvement Body Meets Thursday

Preparations are being made to take care of a large attendance from all sections of the state when the organization meeting of the Georgia Community Improvement Association is held Thursday at the Wincoff hotel here.

Enthusiastic response has come from civic leaders, community executives, officers of women's organizations and others in nearly every part of Georgia, according to Charles N. Walker, acting chairman of the newly formed association. Mr. Walker also is chairman of the state advisory committee of the better housing program.

The new Community Improvement Association is being formed in response to suggestions from many sections, that communities generally will welcome co-operation of a statewide association to foster a progressive spirit of community life.

The association plans to act as a coordinating agency with existing groups in every community, large and small. It will encourage establishment of community centers; secure erection of modern public buildings; develop attractive parks and grounds and, among other things, encourage individual home ownership. Efforts will be made to build every community into a place of beauty that will attract visitors.

Every Georgian interested in community development is invited to attend the meeting.

Among those who attended were: Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech; Ed A. Gilliam, mayor pro tem; Miss Gay B. Shepperson, WPA administrator; Clark Howell Sr., editor and president of The Constitution; Clark Howell Jr., vice president and general manager of The Constitution; H. T. Cole, state PWA engineering inspector; J. Houston Johnston, acting state director of the PWA; Herbert Porter, publisher of The Georgian; Wiley L. Moore, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of the National Emergency Council; Ivan Allen, prominent businessman and civic leader; James R. Gray, editor, and John Paschall, managing editor of The Journal.

MOTHER, 2 CHILDREN BOUND AND DROWNED

Bodies Secured With Wire to River Snag; Suicide Note Left on Bank.

MIAMI, Okla., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The bodies of Mrs. Lena Knowles, of Somer, and her two children, bound together by wire, were found at noon today in the Neosho river west of here.

Signed by on a gravel bar was a note indicating the woman, saying "good-bye to her husband."

The bodies of the two children, Ilene, 8, and George, 4, were tied securely to that of their mother with wire. One end of the wire had been attached to a snag near the edge of the water, apparently to keep the bodies from floating downstream.

The note, weighted down with a rock, was addressed to the husband and father, Abe Knowles, and read:

"Dear Abe: I am saying good-bye and good luck. God bless you. Your loving wife. It was signed 'Lena Knowles.'"

Officers who investigated said they were unable to find any reason why the woman should take her own life and the lives of her children.

YOUTH IS RECOVERING FROM 3D BROKEN NECK

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 26.—(AP)—William H. Dukes, 17, is recovering from a broken neck—a feat he has performed twice before within the past 13 months.

Young Dukes broke his neck the first time in July, 1934, when he struck a submerged log while diving. Before the injury had fully healed he was struck on the head and his neck broken again.

Swimming in the Arkansas river yesterday, he was pushed from a diving board by a companion and broke his neck the third time. The youth walked to his home after the accident, collapsing on his doorstep.

SOCIALIST HELD IN INDIANA JAIL

Man Arrested for Making Derogatory Remarks to Military Authorities.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Powers Hapgood, visiting the county jail, made remarks which Sheriff William Baker said were derogatory to military authorities who have enforced martial law in Terre Haute and Vigo county since a two-day general strike a month ago.

As a result, the member of the socialist party national executive committee was a military prisoner today, held incommunicado in the same jail. Hapgood was arrested after he was refused permission by the sheriff to interview Leo Vernon, of Madison, Wis., held in jail after Baker said he had assaulted both civil and military authorities in a speech at a mass meeting Saturday night.

The First in a Davison Series—Fashions of today reflecting the glamour of the Renaissance TINTORETTO NECK LACE DRESS in rich crepe. The heavy chain falls inside flattering folds at the throat, and there's a soft, feminine fullness on shoulders and around your ribs. Points at the wrist make your hands seem even longer and more fragile. In brown and Veronese green. Sizes 14, 16.

$25

A new season of glamour and glory is bursting upon us! A season born in Paris with the showing of Renaissance paintings, and sweeping to a crescendo in romantic, jeweled dresses like these. Dresses with soft, feminine fullness and deep flowing sleeves that conjure up memories of Dante's sweet Beatrice and the brilliant Catherine de Medici. Dresses in the glowing, skin-flattering tones of the old masters. You can walk proudly, and with the assured smile of Mona Lisa in these reflections of the age in which women knew best how to dress.

DRESSES, THIRD FLOOR

MADONNA WRAPPED DRESS with gem-studded gold filigree buckle and pin. Tinted red or Veronese green in drizzle crepe. 14 to 18.

16.95

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

Don't Dare the Sun Labor Day Week-End! Take Along Dorothy Gray's Sunburn Cream

Don't take a long chance on an uncomfortable sunburn at the end of the season! The sun is still strong enough to make life miserable if you burn badly. Both men and women use this preventative and enjoy many hours in the sun!

TOILETRIES, STREET FLOOR

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

Manicure with Manicare

35c 65c $1

A fragrant pink cream that keeps the cuticle neat, the nails smooth and bleaches beneath them. Removes stains and blemishes, but does not affect polish. An all-purpose manicure aid as magical as it sounds!

TOILETRIES STREET FLOOR

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

Down at the Heels

Is the Height of Fashion! See Davison's New Low-Heeled

I. Miller Bucko Oxfords

Harper's Bazaar and Vogue are in a froth and frenzy about low-heeled shoes! We don't blame them! These oxfords make your feet look like a little girl's, and give a sure-fire flair to any street outfit. Bucko looks like suede and wears like unadulterated pig iron. In brown and blue... 11.75

SHOE SALON, SECOND FLOOR

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

Manicure with Manicare

35c 65c $1

A fragrant pink cream that keeps the cuticle neat, the nails smooth and bleaches beneath them. Removes stains and blemishes, but does not affect polish. An all-purpose manicure aid as magical as it sounds!

TOILETRIES STREET FLOOR

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

Down at the Heels

Is the Height of Fashion! See Davison's New Low-Heeled

I. Miller Bucko Oxfords

Harper's Bazaar and Vogue are in a froth and frenzy about low-heeled shoes! We don't blame them! These oxfords make your feet look like a little girl's, and give a sure-fire flair to any street outfit. Bucko looks like suede and wears like unadulterated pig iron. In brown and blue... 11.75

SHOE SALON, SECOND FLOOR

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

DAVISON-PAXON

ATLANTA • affiliated with MACYS, New York

Manicure with Manicare

35c 65c $1

200 MILLIONS GOAL
IN HOSPITAL DRIVENegro Foundation Plans Campaign To Raise Sum for 90 Cities.

A campaign to raise $200,000,000 to establish hospitals for negroes in 90 cities in the United States is being brought before white and negro leaders of Atlanta by the Rev. Amos H. Carnegie, of New York, founder and executive secretary of the Negro National Hospital Fund.

Carnegie's present visit to Atlanta is his second of the present year. His negro hospitalization work brought him to this city last March, when he received a written commendation from Governor Talmadge. Hospitalization plans call for a negro hospital in every city in the country which has 10,000 or over negro population. There are 90 such cities in the United States and five in Georgia.

The $200,000,000 fund is to be collected over a period of 25 years, collections taking the form of private and voluntary contributions of an average of one cent a week from each of the 12,000,000 negroes throughout the United States. Contributions will

Telephone Executives in New Positions

CHARLES A. STAIR.

HAL S. DUMAS.

THREE BELL OFFICIALS RECEIVE PROMOTIONSStair, Dumas and Harris Are Advanced in Telephone Organization.

Charles A. Stair, of New Orleans, yesterday was elected vice president in charge of operations of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, succeeding J. E. Warren, who recently was elected president. Mr. Stair had been Louisiana manager.

Hal S. Dumas was appointed assistant to the president in charge of personal relations. He formerly was assistant vice president.

Evelyn Harris was appointed assistant to the president in charge of public relations. He has been general publicity manager and will continue to direct that activity.

All three are telephone men of long experience and are well known in public and telephone circles.

Stair, a veteran, Mr. Stair has been in the telephone service 42 years, having first been employed by the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co. as office boy and night operator in Middlesboro, Ky. Later he became lineman and installer and in 1899 was made manager at Danville, Ky. He was promoted rapidly and became manager successively at Owensboro, Ky., Chattanooga, Memphis and New Orleans. In 1912 he was appointed division commercial superintendent for the states of Louisiana and Mississippi and later served as general manager of that division. When the state of Louisiana was made a separate division in 1915 he was appointed state manager, which position he now occupies.

He has been an active leader in New Orleans civic affairs and with his wife and two attractive daughters has been prominent in the social life of Louisiana.

Joined Company in 1911.

Mr. Dumas entered the service of the telephone company as a student in the first general training course on July 1, 1911, immediately following his graduation from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Ala. Upon completion of the course, and several months of practical work, he was appointed suburban district traffic manager, in 1912, at Birmingham.

Mr. Dumas was transferred to Atlanta in 1916, successively occupying the positions of toll traffic manager, district traffic manager and division supervisor of traffic. He returned to Birmingham in 1923 to the responsible position of Alabama traffic superintendent. He was named to Atlanta as general traffic supervisor in 1929.

In October, 1934, he was promoted to assistant to the operating vice president.

Harris Veteran Employee.

Mr. Harris entered the service of the Southern Bell Telephone Company 30 years ago as a messenger and has since that time been in various positions of responsibility and publicity. He had formerly been city editor of The Constitution. He is a son of the late Joel Chandler Harris (Uncle Remus). He has been a familiar figure in advertising and newspaper circles and has been closely identified with the public relations of his company.

NEW FLORIDA MANAGER TO ASSUME HIS DUTIES

MIAMI, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Victor T. Powe, Miami district manager for Southern Bell Telephone Company, since 1930, tonight said he would assume his duties as Florida manager in Jacksonville on September 1.

Powe succeeds Vernon Baird, whose appointment as Louisiana manager was announced today in Atlanta. Powe came here from Orlando, where he was in charge of the central Florida division for four years, when Baird was named Florida manager. The new Florida manager said he would name his successor as Miami district manager soon.

SHOLTZ TO SELECT CITRUS BOARD SOONFlorida Governor Tells Plans in Radio Phone Interview.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Returning from a quiet vacation in France, Governor Dave Sholtz, of Florida, said in a ship-to-shore radio-telephone interview with the Associated Press today he expects to make appointments to the newly created citrus control commission during the first week in September.

"I won't know exactly what the appointments will be until after I return to my desk in Tallahassee," said the Governor, "but they will be made just as soon thereafter as I can get to it."

The Florida citrus crop will begin moving to market about September 10, so that only a few days remain for the commission, authorized by the 1935 legislature, to qualify after its appointment and set up its rules and regulations.

Governor Sholtz and his wife, who sailed from here three weeks ago aboard the liner Normandie, are at sea on the Ile de France after a vacation spent at Vichy, France. Their boat docks tomorrow.

The chief executive said that upon his arrival here, he would proceed immediately to Washington for a conference with government officials, particularly with regard to relief funds, and then go directly to the state capital.

The commission is to have authority to regulate citrus shipments, branding, processing and maturity tests. Its advocates in the Florida legislature said it was intended to function for the improvement of the entire citrus industry, particularly with a view to preventing green fruit, or second-grade fruit, getting into the principal markets of the north and east.

CROP IS ESTIMATED
50 PER CENT SHORT.

TAMPA, Fla., Aug. 26.—(AP)—L. C. Edwards, veteran citrus grower and authority, today predicted Florida's citrus crop this season would be only 50 per cent of last season's production. He estimated the coming season's crop would total not more than 20,000,000 boxes. Other authorities had estimated the crop would run from 20,000,000 to 25,000,000 boxes. Last season the crop totaled about 40,000,000.

19 LOUISIANANS HELD IN CRAB TRADE STRIFE

MORGAN CITY, La., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Nineteen men were arrested today by Sheriff Charles Peco, of St. Mary parish and jailed at Franklin on charges in connection with a war over labor difficulties in the crabbing industry of the Louisiana marshes. The charges were filed before Justice of the Peace Charles A. Biddens by Randolph Henry, John F. Davis and Edward Morgan, independent workers who charged that they had been intimidated by members of the "Seaford Workers' Association," which is seeking to force a higher price for crab catches.

Baptist Leaders Direct Week of Study Here

Leaders of the Atlanta Baptist Training Union week of study, which opened yesterday at the First Baptist church. Seated, left to right: E. E. Lee, Dallas, Texas, southern field secretary for training union, and J. E. Lambkin, Nashville, Tenn., secretary and editor of the training union department, Baptist Sunday School Board. Standing, left to right: William Hall Preston, Nashville, associate secretary for Southern Baptist student work; Lamar V. Hutchinson, Atlanta, publicity director for the association, and W. D. Barker, Atlanta, superintendent of Georgia Baptist hospital. Photo by George Cornett.

Former Atlanta Woman Evangelist
Attacked in Aimee's Temple Pulpit

Rheba Crawford, erstwhile Atlanta Salvation Army lassie, was the center of an exciting incident Sunday night when, according to Associated Press dispatches from Los Angeles, a young pulpiter named Walter MacDermid, 28, climbed to the pulpit of Angelus Temple, where Rheba Crawford, now Mrs. Rheba Spivaco, was preaching, and swung a couple of hard rights at the fair exhorter's head.

Mrs. Spivaco, according to the report, ducked the first swing and members of her choir downed her assailant just as he was starting the second blow. The assailant yesterday was arraigned in court and sentenced to a $25 fine or five days in jail on a charge of being drunk on private property. Meanwhile Los Angeles police are investigating charges made by Mrs. Spivaco that the attack was instigated by "some of the interests" she has offended during a campaign she has conducted against gambling and vice.

Mrs. Spivaco, who is now assistant to Aimee Semple McPherson at the famous Angelus Temple, in her young days was one of the best known figures in Atlanta. She was the daughter of Brigadier General Crawford, of the Salvation Army, in command of army activities for the southeast, and was one of his most active workers. She frequently led army street meetings in her trim blue uniform and was known to practically every businessman in Atlanta through her calls

SOUTHERNERS NAMED
FOR '35 CHARITY DRIVE

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Prominent southerners were named on the national citizen committee of the 1935 mobilization for human needs, announced today by Gerard Swope, president of the General Electric Company and spokesman for privately supported social work in the United States.

Mobilization will begin in Washington, D. C., September 23 and 24, when 500 welfare leaders of the country will confer on ways and means to improve social conditions in the United States. The southerners appointed were Oscar Wells, Birmingham, Ala.; A. B. Dinwiddie and Monte Lemann, New Orleans, La.; and T. A. Finch, Thomasville, N. C.

3,000 STUDENTS READY
FOR BAPTIST TRAININGWeek of Study Opens With Church Leaders Directing Large Classes.

A group of more than 3,000 students, young and old, registered yesterday for the opening sessions of the Atlanta Baptist Training Union's "week of study" at First Baptist church.

Out-of-town delegations are expected today, bringing the total attendance close to the 4,500 mark.

Two assemblies were necessary to handle last night's crowds. One, in the main auditorium, was addressed by Dr. Roland Q. Leavell, of Gainesville, who appealed to youth to take every advantage of opportunities to prepare spiritually, mentally and physically for the future.

"Ducks and Deducts."

E. E. Lee, field worker of the Southern Baptist convention, addressed the younger seniors and intermediates in the church chapel. His topic, "The Ducks and Deducts," covered some of the more serious problems confronting the younger generations today. Mr. Lee will address the assembly again at 8 o'clock tonight in the main auditorium while the chapel session will view motion pictures depicting the life of Christ. Edwin S. Preston, state secretary, will show the film and supply the incidental remarks. William Hall Preston, of Nashville, secretary of the Union, in yesterday morning's classes, made announcement of special attendance awards for junior or intermediate boys and girls. Prizes will go to those bringing the largest number of new members to today's classes. Students are required to bring a list of the new students to their Tuesday morning classes.

New Member Contest. Another award has been listed for the boy or girl bringing 10 or more new members to today's sessions. The new members cannot include any person attending any classes or meetings yesterday, according to Boyce L. Graham, president of the association.

Arnold J. Kennedy, chairman of the poster committee, will take registrations for the "week of study" poster contest until the end of tonight's services only. Members of the faculty who will judge the contest include Miss Winnie Rickett, Mrs. C. W. Outlaw, J. E. Lambdin, William Preston and Edwin Preston.

ANACONDA, Mont., Aug. 26.—(UP)—Mrs. Emma Welch, long time resident of Deer Lodge valley, claims the record for long-distance travel in an ambulance. She recently completed a 1,300-mile journey in an ambulance from the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., to her home at Anaconda, Montana.

Lenox Park
Architectural Supervision
Adequately Restricted
HEMlock 8471WESTERN
UNION

TO Y. ALBERT,
247 PEACHTREE STREET
ATLANTA, GA.

URGENTLY NEED CASH. SHIPPING YOU
EIGHT HUNDRED BEST-GRADE IMPORTED
ORIENTAL RUGS FOR IMMEDIATE AUCTION.
ACCEPT WHATEVER PRICE THEY WILL BRING.
ORIENTAL RUG IMPORTING CO.

Sensational AUCTION
of ORIENTAL RUGS
Attend This Auction 8 o'Clock Tonight

This collection embraces every kind and color in sizes from 2x3 up to 17x30. It is your chance to possess a genuine Oriental of highest grade at your own price. Come!

Y. ALBERT
Largest Exclusive Oriental Rug Collection in Southeast
Expert Cleaning and Repairing
247 Peachtree St. Phone MA. 2503

7th Annual
OLD STOVE ROUND-UP

THE ROUND-UP is bringing in hundreds of old stoves. Don't miss this opportunity to change your old stove for a modern gas range.

Here are the special Round-up features:

- Trade-in allowances up to $15.
- A brand-new De Luxe gas range with every modern feature, built to our own specifications especially for the Round-up, for only $49.50 (and your old stove.)
- Your unrestricted choice of every other range in stock.

Don't delay. Let us change your old stove now. Begin today to enjoy the use of a modern gas range—one that will cook your own way, perfectly and scientifically.

This unusual and distinctive De Luxe Magic Chef gas range is only one of the many models offered for your selection during the Round-up. Standard equipment includes installation and these exclusive Magic Chef features: Red Wheel Luminous Oven Heat Regulator, Magic Chef Automatic Top Lighter, Three-in-One Non-Stick Top Burners and Sanitary Dish Washer Tray. Oven valve is of safety type. Enamelled throughout. Door and Drawer handles and gas valve handles are of black bakelite. Special color combinations available on order. During the Round-up, only $69.50 WITH YOUR OLD STOVE.

The oldest gas range still in service rounded up during the Seventh Annual Old Stove Round-up will be taken as full payment for the new range on which it is traded in. If you have one of the many "old-timers" still in service, trade it in! It may be worth a brand-new modern gas range.

ATLANTA GAS LIGHT COMPANY.
By Whistle President

HIGH'S

Last Week to See for Yourself
... how much more value you get in HIGH'S August

FUR SALE

$59 and $99

The advance in fur prices has been so great—when these Fur Coats are sold—we cannot expect to duplicate their quality at such LOW prices! Luxurious, silky-soft pelts—carefully manipulated to bring you the best of the season's styles. Buy NOW while you can buy at savings. All coats beautifully silk lined.

SWAGGER COATS
TROITTEURS
STROLLERS
FULL-LENGTH COATS

- AMERICAN BROAD-TAIL
- MINK-LAPIN
- NUBIAN SEAL
- NATURAL MUSKRAT
- BLOCKED LAPIN
- MOIRE KIDSKIN
- ERMINE LAPIN
- PREMIER BONDED SEALINE
- SILVER MUSKRAT
- CARACUL PONY

• All Sizes:
11 to 17
12 to 20
38 to 46

Use Our Layaway Plan and have your coat paid for by the time cold weather arrives!
Storage FREE!

HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

SOLONS DELAY ACTION ON JUDGE E. R. HOLMES

Long and Bilbo Wait Until Next Session To Study His Nomination.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The nomination of Judge Edwin R. Holmes, of Mississippi, to the fifth circuit court of appeals will not be acted upon by the senate until the next session of congress.

Upon motion of Chairman Ashurst, of the judiciary committee, the nomination was returned to that committee for further study upon request of Senators Bilbo, democrat, Mississippi, and Long, democrat, Louisiana. It was learned from the committee today that it was explained the brief time the nomination has been before the senate has not been sufficient for proper study.

Ashurst asked that the nomination be recommitted because it was feared Saturday that it had been brought up for confirmation, arguments would at that time have delayed adjournment of congress.

The nomination will be one of the first to be considered by the judiciary committee at the convening of the next session of congress.

In the meantime, Holmes may be given a recess appointment by President Roosevelt, but the Justice Department said it had not been decided yet whether such an appointment would be made. Under a recess appointment, Holmes could take over the new office but would not draw pay until the senate acted on his nomination. When and if he was confirmed, he would draw pay from the date he took the oath under the recess appointment.

285 PARALYSIS CASES

IN NEW YORK CITY

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(AP)—A total of 225 cases of infantile paralysis, of which 285 were in New York city, was reported to the State Department of Health last week by George H. Ramsey, director of the division of communicable diseases, said today.

Most of the cases, 40 upstate, were in the three counties adjacent to New York city—Westchester, Nassau and Suffolk.

Five cases were reported from Johnston and two from its neighbor, Johnstown, and two from other upstate areas were scattered over a wide area.

TIRED and PEPPLESS

No wonder so many of us get up in the morning feeling as tired as when we went to bed—no wonder the world looks blue. If your stomach is full of a thing like bile, wind, gas, and acid, you'll feel as tired as if you had been up all night. You get tired because you get constipated. This toxin poisons the blood and starts a lot of things like headache, rheumatic pain, bladder irritation, etc.

Don't take salts or purgatives to clean out this sourness—try this vital body fluid and leave your system dry and inflamed without helping the cause. Try Placidan, the new medicine that cleanses the double action. Placidan WIPES OUT EXCESSIVE ACIDITY without disturbing the stomach juices. It forms a protective coating over irritated membranes and helps stop the making of more burning acid. You get RELIEF at once from gas and acid indigestion. Take Placidan regularly for a short time and you'll soon rejoice at the astonishing return of vigor.

NOTE: Say NO! if anything else is offered to you as being "just as good." You have taken these substitutes before and they did you no good. Insist on Placidan.

Fiery, Smarting
CHAFED SKIN

It is easy to relieve this torment and restore comfort to the irritated skin with soothing Resinol. Its action is quick, and it is safe for tenderest skins.

Resinol

Positive Relief for MALARIA!

Sure End to Chills and Fever!

Here's real relief for Malaria—Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic!

Quickly it stops the chills and fever and restores your body to comfort. Many remedies will merely alleviate the symptoms of Malaria temporarily, but Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic goes to the way and completely rids your system of the infection.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is a real corrective of Malaria because it contains two things. First, tasteless quinine which kills the Malarial infection in the blood. Second, tonic iron which helps overcome the ravages of the chills and fever and fortifies against further attack. Play safe! Take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It now comes in two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any drug store.

Prompt Help For Itching Eczema

It's wonderful the way soothing, cooling Zemo brings prompt relief to itching, burning skin, even in severe cases. Itching soon stops when Zemo touches tender and irritated skin because of its rare ingredients. To relieve Itches, Ringworms, and comfort the Irritation of Eczema and Pimples, always use clean, soothing Zemo. Insist on genuine Zemo. Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. No. 4874, 35c, 60c, $1. All druggists.—(adv.)

ENDS DANDRUFF instantly

Dandruff must be dissolved and then washed away. Ordinary soap shampoos cannot do this. Fitch's Dandruff Remover Shampoo dissolves dandruff and then washes it away, instantly! Sold under a money-back guarantee. On sale at all druggists, barbers and toilet goods counters.

Fitch's

After and before shampoo, Fitch's Dandruff Remover is the ideal preparation to stimulate the hair roots and give new life, luster and beauty to your hair.

Atlanta Greets Fastest New York Train

Atlanta Greets Fastest New York Train

Frank L. Jenkins, passenger traffic manager of the Southern railway, is shown being greeted as he arrived here yesterday on No. 37, the Southern's New York-Atlanta train which makes the trip in record time. Mr. Jenkins is in the center in the photograph. On his left is Wiley Moore, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and on his right is Mayor Pro Tem. Ed A. Gilliam. Staff photo by George Cornett.

HOWARD APPROVES COTTON LOAN PLAN

Expert Declares All Interests Will Benefit by New Statute.

C. B. Howard, prominent cotton expert long identified with the cotton commission business in this section, yesterday gave his approval to the new cotton loan plan of the government.

Mr. Howard said: "To my mind the recently announced cotton loan plan of the government will prove most beneficial to the government, cotton farmer, cotton spinner and cotton merchant."

First, the government, the government already stands obligated for over 6,000,000 bales now costing 13 cents and with charges accruing monthly. The present method may slightly more, possibly slightly less, say fifty to one hundred millions of dollars, but with a 9-cent loan the government is practically sure to accumulate no more cotton, while it might become obligated for more millions with a 12-cent loan.

Second, the cotton farmers. They are assured practically 12c, possibly slightly more, possibly slightly less, dependent upon whether the price at which they sell is above or below the average price from September 1 to January 1. The market would be open, not pegged, and cotton would go freely into world consumption at the world price, reducing the carry-over and placing the farmer in position to secure good prices for succeeding crops.

With a 12-cent loan 12 cents would probably be all he would get anyway, and it would lessen world consumption of American cotton. In either the 12-cent loan or the present 12-cent guarantee the farmer would have to sign an acreage curtailment agreement for next season.

Third, cotton mills. They would be able to buy cotton at a supply and demand price and could manufacture and sell in a normal way.

Fourth, cotton merchants. With no price peg to tie up the movement of cotton it would sell as the farmers wished to sell and the mills to buy and merchants to handle. The past season, with a crop of 9,500,000 bales there were 4,500,000 bales tied up in the 12-cent loan, and still tied up, leaving only 5,000,000 bales for mills and merchants to handle.

"Personally, I believe the originator of this plan deserves great credit. The government has been helped by the rail and under its present policies can't turn loose. The present plan enables it to swing on with least hurt to itself and with much benefit to all private interests involved."

CLAUGHTON CHARGES
QUASHED BY JUDGE

Paving the way for an appeal for executive clemency, 12 indictments against E. N. Claughton, former president of the Bankers' Savings & Loan Company, were dismissed yesterday after a hearing by Judge E. D. Thomas in Fulton superior court.

The indictments charged violations of the securities act and larceny after trust.

Claughton is now serving sentences amounting to 10 to 15 years for conviction on five indictments. He is at the Milledgeville state prison.

Lawyer for Banker Claughton filed trial demands on the 12 indictments in 1934, and though several terms of court elapsed, the cases were not tried nor scheduled for hearing. In this regard Judge Thomas ordered that the charges be dismissed and Claughton be acquitted of them.

The ex-bank president has an appeal for clemency pending at present. Frank Bowers is his attorney.

WEATHER TO CONTINUE
COOL AND FAIR TODAY

Atlanta's weather will continue cool and fair today, with temperatures no higher than 86 degrees expected, according to the weather bureau announcement.

Atlanta can thank North Carolina for its pleasant weather the last few days. A high pressure area centering over North Carolina is battling a low pressure area from the Gulf of Mexico. The cool weather has won, thus far, and yesterday's highest reading at Atlanta airport was 85 degrees.

Weather prophets, however, expect the low pressure from the gulf to win in a day or two and bring rain to Atlanta.

$414,840 IS ALLOTTED FOR STATE PWA WORK

Georgia Communities Will Add $125,160 to Federal Fund for Projects.

Works projects in Georgia costing $414,840 are to be launched immediately with the approval by President Roosevelt yesterday of an allotment of federal funds totaling $414,840 to be used by the Works Progress Administration in carrying out its program in this state.

To the $414,840 set aside by President Roosevelt will be added $125,160 pledged by the various communities in Georgia which are sponsoring the projects submitted to the President in the program filed by Miss Gay B. Shepherson, state PWA administrator.

Word of the presidential approval was received in Atlanta yesterday by Eric Cocks, state director for the National Emergency Council.

Projects approved are:

Bacon County—Alma: Malaria control drainage. Federal funds $1,900. Bibb County—Macon: Build 14 culverts. Federal funds $13,000; sponsor's contribution $8,200.

Brock County—Countywide: Malaria control. Federal funds $5,976; sponsor's contribution $300. Calhoun County—Edison: Repair high school building. Federal funds $1,088; sponsor's contribution $222.

Chatham County—Savannah: Renovate house into chemical laboratory and lecture room. Federal funds $1,632; sponsor's contribution $913. Cobb County—Marietta: Operate rock quarry crusher; pave lay roads, gutters and sidewalks; lower sewer and water lines. Federal funds $11,028; sponsor's contribution $13,700.

Cook County—Adel: Malaria control drainage, clearing and grubbing. Federal funds $8,060. DeKalb County—Ridge: Level and surface roads. Federal funds $5,424; sponsor's contribution $2,571. Clear, grade and construct rock road. Federal funds $8,830; sponsor's contribution $2,852.

Franklin County—Lawrence: Grade, shape and surface road. Federal funds $1,326; sponsor's contribution $450. Fulton County—Atlanta: Grade, grub and landscape building drives gold course and electric field. Federal funds $172,248; sponsor's contribution $8,438. Roswell: Street grading and sidewalk construction. Federal funds $1,273; sponsor's contribution $1,209.

Ga. State College—Cordele: Replace water supply. Federal funds $2,190; sponsor's contribution $2,688. Hall County—Clemson: Wreck buildings of school building and auditorium. Federal funds $11,000; sponsor's contribution $5,260.

Haralson County—Lawrence: Grade and surface road. Federal funds $2,276; sponsor's contribution $1,000. Jackson County—Conover: Wreck and replace school building. Federal funds $1,000; sponsor's contribution $1,000.

Madison County—Countywide: Drain and surface roads. Federal funds $2,100; sponsor's contribution $6,900. Putnam County—Hawkinsville: Construct five-room house for school. Federal funds $1,000; sponsor's contribution $1,000.

Richmond County—Augusta: Construct street and sanitary sewers and sidewalks. Federal funds $20,881; sponsor's contribution $28,939. Spalding County—Milledgeville: Replace water supply. Federal funds $2,100; sponsor's contribution $6,900.

Thomas County—Countywide: Malaria control drainage. Federal funds $1,900. Turner County—Spartanburg: Grade and improve roads. Federal funds $3,224; sponsor's contribution $1,100.

Washington County—Savannah: Reshape outside woodwork and trim school building. Federal funds $143; sponsor's contribution $78.

WOMAN SUCCUMBS
TO MYSTERY SHOT

Della Smith, Found Wounded Near East Lake, Died at Hospital.

Death yesterday sealed the lips of Miss Della Smith, who was found on August 12 lying in the street near East Lake, seriously wounded. The young woman died yesterday morning at St. Joseph infirmary without revealing whether she had inflicted the wound on herself or had been the victim of a mysterious shooting. Police, however, listed the death as a suicide.

The young woman was found on Alston drive, near the East Lake Country Club. She was taken to Grady hospital where she gave a fictitious name and then later admitted her real identity. Police learned she had arrived in town only a short time before the shooting and had gone to Alston drive on a street car. A pistol with one discharged cartridge was found lying near her.

An examination revealed the bullet had ranged downward through the young woman's body and had lodged at the spine. Surgeons declared an operation might prove fatal and that if she recovered she would never be able to walk.

Relative came to Atlanta and had Miss Smith transferred to St. Joseph infirmary.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith, of Laurel, Ind., and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Banoff, of Detroit. The body was taken yesterday by Avery & Lowman to Brookside, Ind., for services and interment.

NEWFOUNDLAND IS HIT
BY HEAVY WINDSTORM

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Newfoundland's fishing industry counted heavy damage today from the 32-mile-an-hour gale that whistled over the island yesterday.

Many small fishing vessels were ashore or sunk at their moorings. Eight had been driven aground at Re-

VOTERS IN MISSISSIPPI NAME OFFICIALS TODAY

Governor, Lieutenant and Other Officials Figure in Run-Off Vote.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 26.—(AP)—With feelings bristling and anger in their eyes, Mississippi voters will go to the polls tomorrow to choose a governor, lieutenant governor and other local officials in the democratic run-off primary election after a red-hot campaign.

Hardly a voter will cast a passive vote as strong words have been used in the campaign, tone have been stepped on and pet peeves aroused to major issues. It has developed into a personal war between the gubernatorial candidates, Hugh White, Columbia lumberman, and Paul Johnson, Hattiesburg lawyer, that has enveloped the entire state. The other candidates have been forced to play second fiddle behind the blasts of the seekers after the governorship.

The run-off got up full steam after the more or less quiet first primary election in which Johnson led White by a bare 700 votes out of 354,000. Falling short of the necessary majority for election, Johnson was forced into a run-off.

Run-Off Necessary. The minute the returns showed a run-off necessary, managers of Hugh White issued a statement, dumping Louisiana's Huey Long around Paul Johnson's neck. White charged Long was supporting Johnson in an attempt to win the governorship.

Johnson quickly denied the charge, saying he had never even met Long and that Long was not an issue in the campaign. In Washington, Long issued a statement saying he was not participating in Mississippi's run-off primary as neither candidate supported his "share-the-wealth" plan.

"Heat" Turned On. But the heat really was not put into the campaign until Senator Theodore Bilbo, Mississippi's spectacular one, came back from Washington and took the stump for White. He launched a vicious attack on Huey Long and charged he was secretly supporting Johnson.

About every day Johnson would deny these allegations, but both White and Bilbo held to their charges to the end. Johnson opened counter attack on Bilbo and said between the two he would prefer Long but he did not want support from either. He advised Bilbo to go back to Washington and stay there with Long.

So the campaign became almost as much an issue between Long and Bilbo as it was between Johnson and White. In the steam and backwash of the stump the voters became aroused as they lined up for the run-off, and many a fist landed on jaw in the crowds that came out to hear the campaigners give their opinions of the other fellow.

The nerves of Mississippi are on edge tonight. They expect some trouble at the polls and everybody will be glad when it is over.

news, alone. Motorboats and dories had been broken up and carried out to sea.

The wind carried two Imperial Airways planes from their anchorages in Norris Arm, damaging one of them seriously.

Read what this Lovely Bride thinks of Camay...

"I admit it—I am extravagant in my praise of Camay—and please put in all my superlatives. Nothing is too good to say about your Beauty Soap, and to all girls who want to make the most of their beauty, I am happy to commend it. Sincerely, Doreen Cassidy (Miss Cassidy)"

New York, N. Y., August 5, 1935

SOME DAY you may meet this charming woman—the new Mrs. Thomas Cassidy, one of Camay's best friends... And if you ever do, you won't be able to resist saying... "I'll try anything that will help me to have a skin as beautiful as that!"

THEN TRY CAMAY!... Put your faith in Camay... Trust Camay to help you. Just as it is helping millions of other women to new skin beauty this very minute.

Camay is a practical beauty soap—a soap that brings you closer and closer to real skin loveliness. Camay releases the beauty of your natural skin from the cloud of dust-dreps and air-dreps that mar it. And Camay brings new smoothness and softness in the wake of its rich lather.

There's new loveliness for you in Camay's beauty bubbles. So let Camay begin today to show you an improvement in your skin... new smoothness you can see... new softness you can feel.

(And every man you know—or want to know—will see it as quickly as you do!)

Camay, the Soap of Beautiful Women, is at your dealer's. And its price is extremely low.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

Free! $1.00 Every Year for Life $100 EVERY YEAR FOR LIFE $1210 ADDITIONAL CASH PRIZES

Write a Camay slogan—10 words or less. Attach three green-and-yellow Camay wrappers and mail to Box 668, Dept. C, Procter & Gamble, Cincinnati, O. Or see your dealer for details. LISTEN IN to Barry McKinley on the "Dreams Come True" program, WEA and N.B.C. coast-to-coast network Tues., Weds., and Thurs., 3:45 E.D.S.T.

'Bug' Man Goes to Gang

Reputed Lottery Operator
Surrenders to Authorities
at Fulton Tower.

WALTER CUTCLIFFE.

DAVISON'S SHOWS
COLLEGE DRESSES

Atlanta Belles Model Fashions for Various Eastern Schools.

An attractive group of Atlanta belles held the spotlight at Davison's Saturday when they acted as models in showing of fashions for eastern and Virginia colleges. Crowds thronged the sixth floor restaurant to watch these collegiennes show the proper wardrobes for their respective colleges.

Miss Dorothy Pickett from Wellesley; Misses Henrietta Collier, Amelia Hewlett from Sweet Briar; Misses Claire Bullock, Barbara Selman, Charlotte Granberry from Randolph-Macon; Miss Helen June Roberts from Stevens; Misses Joyce Smith, Katherine Calhoun, Helen Bell, Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Holcomb, Elsie Grace Brown from Hollins.

Davison's showed these dresses with authority, having consulted thoroughly with these experts on the various dresses needed at the different colleges. Particular attention was given to clothes needed by freshmen, realizing that their wardrobe is most important because future popularity depends in a large measure on first impressions—to which their clothes contribute greatly.

Knit suits, wear-me-two-way sweaters, suits, proper dress for sorority teas, dances, were shown. Deep Renaissance tones and lines were important.

Another group of popular Atlanta girls will model today when fashions for Brenau, Shorter, Wesleyan and Cox College will share the stage at Davison's. These collegiennes will model from 12 to 2 in the sixth floor restaurant, and later in the College Shop, third floor. Misses Caroline McCarty and Molly Ray Respass from Wesleyan; Misses Charity Simmons, Violet Simmons, Mabel Yoniss, Ninette Carter from Brenau; Misses Rose Quillian, Carol Quillian and Adell Hancock from Shorter; Miss Jeanne Flynn, Jane Crowell from Cox College.

At the Harbor Plywood Corporation, 645 Whitehall street, thieves took a strong box containing $40 in currency and a quantity of postage stamps.

The room of George A. Shipney, at the Cox Carlton hotel, was ransacked and $160 in currency taken, Shipney told police.

CUTCLIFFE BEGINS YEAR ON COUNTY CHAIN GANG

Reputed Lottery Operator
Surrenders to Authorities
at Fulton Tower.

Steel bars clanged shut behind Walter Cutcliffe, Atlanta lottery operator, yesterday and today he will be sent to Bellwood camp.

Cutcliffe, the best known of Atlanta's underworld characters, is under sentence of 12 months for lottery operations. He was fined $1,000 also but had not paid the fine last night.

He surrendered at Fulton tower yesterday morning, after having been granted time by Governor Talmadge and Judge Jesse M. Wood, of the criminal court, in which to settle up his business affairs.

The 38-year-old reputed lottery man's conviction came after he was caught with lottery tickets and paraphernalia in his possession. His capture followed a wild automobile chase by officers through busy sections of the city.

When the bars closed behind him yesterday, it was not the first time for Cutcliffe. He had been convicted on several previous occasions and had served "time" on the gang for other violations of the law.

Cutcliffe was one of the first to enter the lottery racket here and it has been reported from many sources that his yearly income from his illegal businesses amounted to more than $50,000.

Today, authorities at Bellwood will assign him to some smaller camp and he will be put to work for the county. He asked to be allowed to serve his time in the tower but this was refused, as was his request for clemency.

HOUSE RANSACKED,
FURNISHINGSTAKEN

Varied Assortment of Articles Missing When Owner Returns From Holiday.

A thief, or thieves, who apparently made numerous trips to the residence of Mrs. Annie McKinnery, 287 Josephine street, during her absence of three weeks from her home, obtained a good start on the lighter furnishings of the home, she reported yesterday to the police.

The intruder carried away blankets, clothing, cooking utensils and lighter household articles. The value of the stolen articles was placed in excess of $100.

J. C. Hill and John H. Patrick, of Candler field, reported yesterday to police that a thief who broke into their room at the field stole $10 and a suit from Patrick and a small amount of currency from Hill.

Burglars who gained entrance to the offices of Wilson & Company, packers, at 475 Whitehall street, while the establishment was closed over the week-end, stole $89 in currency from the shipping clerk's office, police were informed.

At the Harbor Plywood Corporation, 645 Whitehall street, thieves took a strong box containing $40 in currency and a quantity of postage stamps.

The room of George A. Shipney, at the Cox Carlton hotel, was ransacked and $160 in currency taken, Shipney told police.

CAROLINA SENATOR ON TRAILER TOUR

Reynolds To Visit Atlanta
While on Journey for U.S.
Flag Association

Atlanta will have a visit in the near future from United States Senator Robert R. Reynolds, of North Carolina, in the course of a 30-day automobile trailer tour of the United States, Mexico and Canada, covering 9,000 miles.

The North Carolina statesman is making the tour in the interests of the United States Flag Association and will deliver addresses in 850 cities and towns on "True Americanism and Peacetime Patriotism." His secondary purpose will be to gather material for another of his travel books, the tentative title of which is "See America in 30 Days on $100."

Senator Reynolds will leave Washington September 2 in his palatial "land yacht" trailer which is equipped with beds, kitchen, icebox, library, radio, electric lights and lounging quarters. He expects to complete his "Tri-Flag Tour," touching Mexico and Canada, by October 2. The exact date of his arrival here has not been announced.

FUNERAL RITES HELD
FOR HOWARD L. HOLDEN

Funeral services for Howard L. Holden, member of one of the most prominent families in Georgia, were held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the graveside in Crawfordville, with the Rev. Mr. McInnis officiating.

Mr. Holden had been a resident of Atlanta for a number of years and while here had been active in the business and social life of the city. He had been a member of the Capital City Club, the Piedmont Driving Club and the North Avenue Presbyterian church. He had been a resident of Crawfordville for several years.

Mr. Holden's father, Judge Horace M. Holden, was a former justice of the Georgia supreme court and had held many important political posts. Mr. Holden died Sunday in Crawfordville of a heart attack.

GEORGIA GROUP BACKS 12-CENT COTTON FIGHT

Delegation Votes Solidly Against Adjournment But Gets Little Help.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS, WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The Georgia house delegation today stood solidly behind Representative Carl Vinson, dean of the group, when he resorted to parliamentary means to prevent the lower chamber from passing a sine die adjournment resolution until the 12-cent cotton amendment to the third deficiency appropriation bill was assured of enactment.

Immediately after the house met at noon, administration leaders, including acting majority leader Taylor, of Colorado, moved adjournment sine die. Mr. Vinson was on his feet before the motion was made, and he counter motion to table the Taylor motion. The Vinson surprise move caused temporary confusion on the floor, which was crowded with members anxious to go home at the earliest possible moment. But the Georgian stuck to his motion, and even went so far as to demand a record vote on his proposal.

Support Inefficient. When Speaker Byrnes asked for a rising vote of those who demanded action on the Vinson motion, every member of the Georgia delegation arose, but they did not receive sufficient support from non-Georgians to demand a record vote on the tabling motion. Perhaps a dozen or more members from the midwestern wheat belt and a few from the Carolinas and other southern states supported the Georgian. The voice which the speaker called for, showed an overwhelming sentiment for immediate adjournment irrespective of the wishes of the cotton-growing states.

Commenting later Representative Vinson said: "All members of the Georgia delegation voted against the motion to adjourn today in an effort to pass the Byrnes measure for a mandatory loan of 12 cents on cotton. It was generally understood that the passage of the Bankhead extension act would be followed by a mandatory 12-cent cotton loan policy. It would be ruinous not to carry out this policy as the cotton crop of the south had already been made on the basis of the previous policy and no change should be ordered at a time when the crop is being marketed."

Representative Eugene Cox, of California, a ranking member of the house rules committee, and one of the other members of the state's congressional delegation, said he and other Georgian members were prepared to do everything within their power to insure the making of a 12-cent cotton loan by the government before final adjournment, he declared.

"Doing All They Can." "The entire Georgia delegation in congress is doing all that is humanly possible to commit the government to the making of a 12-cent loan on the present season crop of cotton. In the morning all Georgia members voted against adjournment prior to adjustment of differences between the house and the senate on the basis of the pending bill on cotton and wheat."

"The delegation takes the position that no great risk of loss to the government is involved in this lending policy; that without the committee the price of the commodities will fall with consequent loss to farmers and that it will be an outrage to take away from them the support of a government which has promised them a loan of 12 cents on cotton."

The delegation does not want to leave Washington until better treatment is assured their constituents than is promised in the plans of the secretary of agriculture recently announced.

U. S., JAPAN SEEKING COTTON TEXTILE PACT

Continued From First Page.

and demanded protective action by this government. The Philippine legislature, on recommendation of Governor Frank Murphy, also has considered raising a tariff barrier against Japanese textiles as a remedy.

Terms Not Disclosed. Officials declined to disclose what limitation or restriction suggestions and proposals have been made in the discussions. But they are admittedly attempting to reach an agreement by which the lion's share of the islands market in the last two years, will make a percentage reduction in their shipments.

Voluntary restrictions on exports of lead pencils and rag rugs to the United States were imposed by the Japanese as a result of previous conferences in which that country was employed to solve a question which might otherwise have developed into a trade war.

The cabinet committees composed of Secretaries Roper, Hull, Wallace and Perkins, in recommending steps to control the increasing volume of Japanese textile exports to this country, urged they be executed "preferably by means of a voluntary and friendly agreement with Japan limitations of shipments of cotton products to the American market."

Man Shot in Chest. Paul Bradford, 22, of Mabelton, Ga., was shot in the upper left chest yesterday in an apartment on McKenzie drive. Police said the wound was self-inflicted. Bradford was admitted to Grady hospital for treatment.

BILIOUSNESS

Stomach Ulcers

(caused by hyperacidity) are now being effectively and safely treated at home through the use of Von's Pink Tablets, together with proper food directions. No need to suffer from Ulcers caused by gastric hyperacidity or other conditions due to the same cause such as distress after eating, stomach pains, gas, sour stomach, indigestion, constipation, loss of sleep or time from work. Get quick relief without operation. Buy a bottle of Von's Pink Tablets at any Jacobs' drug store or write today for FREE booklet and full information to Atlanta Von Company, 730 Walnut Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

SIGHT "RESTORER" DRAWS MOTHERS

Hopeful Flock to N. Y. Clinic After Announcement of Lens Invention.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(P)—A group of mothers with bewildered children came hopefully today to a clinic staged at the 14th annual meeting of the American Academy of Ophthalmologists.

They were drawn there by Dr. William Feinbloom, research fellow in ophthalmology at Columbia University, whose newly perfected "micro-vision" lens has been held forth as a key to the world of vision for 10,000 near-blind persons in New York city institutions and more than 20,000 school children in blind institutions over the nation.

The new micro-vision glasses, according to Dr. Feinbloom, enable persons to read as little as 5 per cent vision to read again and distinguish the world of color and movement.

Dr. Robert N. Walker, of Winston-Salem, N. C., was re-elected chairman of the academy at a dinner meeting tonight which closed the session.

Higher Cotton Loans FORCED BY CONGRESS

Continued From First Page.

mit more increase in cotton exports, but said the opportunities were not as great as they had been.

The AAA press section officials handed to reporters a statement of the modified plan, and departed immediately, saying the "statement speaks for itself."

Will Increase Cost. The action of congress in forcing an increase from 9 to 10 cents in the loan was said to have made the cost to farmers approximately $50,000,000 more than had been provided. An increase in price of a cent a pound amounts to $5 a bale.

Representative Eugene Cox, of California, a ranking member of the house rules committee, and one of the other members of the state's congressional delegation, said he and other Georgian members were prepared to do everything within their power to insure the making of a 12-cent cotton loan by the government before final adjournment, he declared.

Doing All They Can. "The entire Georgia delegation in congress is doing all that is humanly possible to commit the government to the making of a 12-cent loan on the present season crop of cotton. In the morning all Georgia members voted against adjournment prior to adjustment of differences between the house and the senate on the basis of the pending bill on cotton and wheat."

The delegation takes the position that no great risk of loss to the government is involved in this lending policy; that without the committee the price of the commodities will fall with consequent loss to farmers and that it will be an outrage to take away from them the support of a government which has promised them a loan of 12 cents on cotton."

The delegation does not want to leave Washington until better treatment is assured their constituents than is promised in the plans of the secretary of agriculture recently announced.

U. S., JAPAN SEEKING COTTON TEXTILE PACT

Continued From First Page.

and demanded protective action by this government. The Philippine legislature, on recommendation of Governor Frank Murphy, also has considered raising a tariff barrier against Japanese textiles as a remedy.

Terms Not Disclosed. Officials declined to disclose what limitation or restriction suggestions and proposals have been made in the discussions. But they are admittedly attempting to reach an agreement by which the lion's share of the islands market in the last two years, will make a percentage reduction in their shipments.

Voluntary restrictions on exports of lead pencils and rag rugs to the United States were imposed by the Japanese as a result of previous conferences in which that country was employed to solve a question which might otherwise have developed into a trade war.

The cabinet committees composed of Secretaries Roper, Hull, Wallace and Perkins, in recommending steps to control the increasing volume of Japanese textile exports to this country, urged they be executed "preferably by means of a voluntary and friendly agreement with Japan limitations of shipments of cotton products to the American market."

Man Shot in Chest. Paul Bradford, 22, of Mabelton, Ga., was shot in the upper left chest yesterday in an apartment on McKenzie drive. Police said the wound was self-inflicted. Bradford was admitted to Grady hospital for treatment.

BILIOUSNESS

Stomach Ulcers

AAA Announcement On Lint Loan Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Here is the text of the AAA's announcement today on cotton loans:

The objective of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has been to get an average return of at least 12 cents for the producers of seven-eighths inch middling cotton.

The plan announced last week would have obtained this result, but further study shows that certain modifications of this plan will make it simpler to understand and more equitable to individual growers and will make clear to each producer when he markets his cotton the exact amount he will receive for it.

Under the previous plan it would have been possible for growers of seven-eighths inch low middling cotton to receive, because of government aid, more than 12 cents per pound for their crop, and also for some to receive less than 12 cents per pound.

Instead of making the adjustment payments on the basis of the 10-cent average of the ten-point spot markets, this adjustment agreement will now be based on the daily average of the ten-point spot markets. In effect, the adjustment payments will be made on the basis of the ten-point spot market average on the actual day the cotton is sold by the producer.

These adjustment payments will be made through the cotton year up to August 1, 1936. As before stated, they will be made to those producers who have cooperated in the adjustment program and who agreed to participate in the 1935 crop program.

This program of loans and adjustment on the 1935 crop will go into effect as soon as it is physically possible to set up the new machinery. The loan forms will be available for the 10-cent loan during the week of September 2, 1935.

While refusing to comment upon the revised plan, officials indicated the necessity for figuring daily average cotton market prices on the basis of daily sales will involve a vast complicated bookkeeping arrangement and might increase the cost of distribution of payments.

Congress Adjourns, REVENUE BILL KILLED

Continued From First Page.

sisting the house should vote on mandatory 12-cent cotton loans despite the house and senate's bitterly fought battle over the bill.

Just before 12 o'clock Senator Schwellenbach, democrat, Washington, interrupted Long with a "parliamentary inquiry" into the bill.

"It is now a minute before midnight," Schwellenbach said, "I ask whether or not because of his selfish interest in the revenue bill, the senator from Louisiana has defeated the hopes, the aspirations and the desires of millions of people."

Garner Drops Gavel. Schwellenbach was interrupted abruptly by Vice-President Garner, who rapped his gavel once and declared: "The senate is adjourned sine die."

Thereafter, the rest of the session from the overcrowded galleries, as Long walked out of the chamber alone. Other senators lingered for brief farewells.

Most congressional authorities held failure of the $100,000,000 third deficiency bill may delay operation until January of the bulk of New Deal legislation enacted during the last two months of congress.

Though Roosevelt was reported to believe he could allocate funds to these agencies from work-relief money, congressional authorities generally expressed a belief that Congress would not permit this step.

One high ranking senator said he had talked to Mr. Earl about it and the comptroller general had assured him work relief and public works funds could not be diverted for administrative purposes of the new agencies.

Nevertheless, it was contended many of the new agencies could begin work unofficially with a view to being reimbursed in January, when congress meets.

Bills Affected. Here are the major items lost when Long filibustered the appropriation bill to death:

Soil conservation, $70,000,000. AA potato control $5,000,000. Utility bill—$1,125,000 for the power bill—$705,000 for the securities commission.

Neutrality resolution, $25,000. Railroad retirement, $800,000. Civil service, for examination of new federal employees, 40 hour week law, $500,000. Alcohol control administration, $800,000.

Senate investigations, $100,000. Guilty coal bill $200,000. Bus and truck regulation, $1,250,000. Labor disputes board, $200,000.

District of Columbia security act, $125,000. Seafood inquiry, pure food administration, $800,000. Steamboat inspection service, $50,000.

Penal institutions, $1,000,000. World power conference, $75,000. Administration of the Bankhead Cotton Act, unlimited funds.

When the senate reconvened at 5 p. m., Long blocked a request for unanimous consent agreement to limit debate on a proposal to remove the cotton and wheat riders.

Warehouse Offers Object Lesson In International Trade for Pastor

Rev. H. E. Russell Also Is Attracted by Aspects of Life Shown in Study of Ship's Crew, Cargo and Passengers on South American Jaunt.

This is the second of a special series of articles prepared for The Constitution by the Rev. Henry Russell, pastor of the South American, as seen through the eyes of Mr. Russell, brother of United States Senator Richard B. Russell Jr. and son of the chief justice of the Georgia supreme court, will be presented daily in The Constitution.—Editor's Note.

S. S. CRISPIN, EN ROUTE TO PARA, Brazil, July 30.—After one is more or less satisfied with the seaworthiness of the ship there are several other things to attract special attention, the crew, the cargo and the passengers. This ship, the S. S. Crispin, is British in its nationality, with a crew of 112 men, is one of the 10 operated by the Booth Line, each bearing the name of a celebrated ecclesiastic, such as St. Hilary, Polycarp, etc. The first Crispin served as a successful target for a German U-boat off the coast of Ireland. It was replaced by this one, which slipped from the ways for its maiden voyage in March of this year.

Cargo Steamer. It is registered as a cargo steamer, but has cabin space for 12 who are willing to sign papers accepting responsibility for their own safety as they ride over thousands of tons filled with kerosene and gasoline, each stamped with the well-known trademark of an American oil company. Should fire break out, we have several hundred tons of resin, which was placed in the hold at Jacksonville to make the inferno complete. It was not a matter of choice that led to the selection of such a potential holocaust but this was the only ship going to Para for over a month, and there was no other type going at all. For more substantial fuel we have 1,600 tons of West Virginia coal that slid down the modern, electrically operated, railroad chutes at Newport News.

The chief engineer volunteered the information that this is the best coal he has used in 20 years. He is a nice fellow and it is best that the crew should know it.

Memories of those days of 40 years ago when the Cotton States and International Exposition focused the eyes of the entire civilized world upon Atlanta were revived here yesterday when Jack J. Spalding, who was attorney for the board of directors of that undertaking, spoke before the Rotary Club luncheon at the Capital City Club.

Introduced by Clark Howell, editor and president of The Constitution, who is one of seven surviving members of that directorate of 1895, Mr. Spalding held his audience entranced by his description of the great old exposition itself and by his anecdotes concerning the incidents and problems connected with its inception and successful conclusion.

Also speaking at yesterday's meeting was Mike Benton, president of the Southern fair, Mr. Benton outlined plans for the fair to be held in the city of Atlanta, October 6, 1936, in closing, telling how this year it is going to be featured with a fortieth anniversary celebration of the great fair of 1895.

He also said that the fair was being laid to widen the scope of appeal and interest, making it in fact as well as in name a "southeastern fair."

Seven States Honored. Including Georgia, there will be seven states honored by having a day designated for them during the fair. They will be Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and North and South Carolina. Governors and commissioners of agriculture from each of these states will be invited to the fair.

On the closing night of the fair, Mr. Spalding told how, one day, the 50 states and territories were to be represented by the colored race in the 30 years since the end of slavery.

Mr. Spalding told how, one day, the 50 states and territories were to be represented by the colored race in the 30 years since the end of slavery.

On one day, said Mr. Spalding, "we had the governors or governors-elect of 35 states on the exposition grounds to witness the coronation of the survivors present."

Martin Amorous, another survivor of the board of 50 for the old fair, was also present at yesterday's meeting, and he was well known to the group.

Mr. Cooper, in a brief statement, drew attention to some salient facts about, and some records set by, the 1895 event.

It was, he stated, the greatest of the world's fairs, and it was carried out when the city had only one-fourth its present population, one-eighth its present taxable wealth and one-fourth its present business.

The exposition preparations began in December, 1893, following a panic that had put three-fourths of the railroads in the hands of receivers, and when bankruptcy was widespread. Cotton was selling at from 5 to 7 cents and property as a whole was hard to sell.

It was under these conditions that the 50 prominent Atlantans organized and built a $2,000,000 fair, with 6,000 exhibits, a great federal government exhibit, state buildings from Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, California, Alabama and Georgia.

Foreign Nations Represented. Among the foreign nations represented, Mr. Cooper said, were Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Venezuela, Mexico and various Central American and European countries.

Mr. Cooper's statement further reads: "President Cleveland, Governor McKinley, the president of the United States, other governors and scores of mayors attended with large bodies of their people. The Philadelphia mayor and council brought the Liberty Bell."

"Publicity was world-wide. Twenty-six state press associations with 3,500 editors and writers attended the fair. Through United States consular exposition literature was sent to papers all over the world, and extensively published articles printed in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Arabic, Chinese and Japanese."

There were 800,000 paid admissions, and the fair association spent $1,500,000. With the fair money all debts were paid and the fair ended its hundred days on December 31, 1895, with every debt paid.

This fair lifted Atlanta from the position of a provincial city as a metropolis.

GOVERNOR PLANS SUIT AGAINST COTTON TAX

State May Seek Injunction Against 6-Cent Gin Levy of AAA.

Governor Talmadge yesterday announced he had instructed Attorney General Yeomans to look into the advisability of the state's seeking an injunction against the federal government six cents per pound tax on the ginning of cotton grown in excess of the AAA curtailment program.

The announcement of the move, the governor said he "hoped" the governors of all cotton growing states would take similar action.

Advices Holding Cotton. The state's chief executive advised farmers to pick their cotton and hold it, asserting the state would decide definitely on its program of action within two weeks. He declared the tax is unconstitutional and the program affects the entire cotton growing area.

Attorney General Yeomans indicated the injunction petition would be filed shortly but did not say so definitely. "We will approach the matter with caution but with precision," the attorney general said after receiving the governor's instructions. "And we will act without loss of motion."

Governor's Statement. The governor's statement, revealing his plans, follows: "The announcement of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace that there would be an extra tax of six cents per pound on cotton where it exceeds the individual allotment of the farmers means the farmers will be called upon to pay $30 per bale to have their cotton ginned."

"Of course, this tax is unreasonable and practically means confiscation of the property."

"With cotton bringing 9 cents per pound, there would be only 31 cents per bale left after the six cents tax is paid."

"This action of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace affects the welfare of the state of Georgia. It not only affects the welfare of the state of Georgia, but the whole cotton-growing section of the United States."

"I am of the opinion the arbitrary action of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace is unconstitutional."

"I am requesting the attorney general, Mr. J. Yeomans, to immediately look into the matter of filing an injunction against the enforcement of the federal law which imposes the six cents tax where the crop exceeds the allotment."

"This injunction can be determined within the next 10 days or two weeks. If the measure is not adopted, the farmers of Georgia not to pay the six cents tax where their crop exceeds the allotment."

"Pick your cotton out and hold it until this matter is determined before the proper tribunal."

"In order for this statement to receive immediate circulation among the farmers of the state, I am requesting Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Linder, to publish this in the Market Bulletin."

"I hope the governors of all cotton-growing states will take similar action today."

SPECTACULAR BLAZE HITS BELWOOD CAMP

Continued From First Page.

trucks had considerable difficulty in getting through to the blaze.

The flames were discovered by Rudolph Hill, a negro convict in the hospital ward, who was awakened by the smell of smoke. Discovering the fire leaping from the roof of the shops, he turned in an emergency alarm and awakened the camp.

The negroes in the left wing swung from the roof and kicked the planks from the roof, opening up a hole approximately 15 by four feet. Several of them had climbed onto the roof and were looking down to see if they were discovered by Lloyd Reeves, a guard. Reeves held a shotgun on the escaping prisoners and forced them to climb back through the hole and then summoned aid.

Light on Opening. A powerful electric searchlight was later trained on the opening and guards stationed to prevent any further attempts to escape.

Help was asked of the county and city police and 10 county and two city cars responded and a cordon of police officers was thrown around the entire camp.

Fire Chief O. J. Parker expressed the opinion that the spread of the flames were prevented by two factors. The first was the quick response of the department and the other was that the barracks and other prison camp units are separated from the main building and blacksmith shops by a narrow alleyway.

The present blaze was the "second at the camp within six weeks. The earlier blaze destroyed the laundry. Fire inspectors could not determine immediately where the blaze was of incendiary origin, but will conduct an investigation today.

A. A. Clarke Jr., superintendent of Fulton county public works, said that it would be difficult to place an exact estimate on the damage due to the fact that the building was old. However, it housed considerable costly machinery and a county car also was in the building at the time.

4 MEN ARRESTED IN 2 ROBBERIES

Solved. The robbery of the Wilson Packing Company plant at 475 Whitehall street on Saturday and the holding up at Boulevard and Forrest avenue on the same day were believed cleared up last night by police following the arrest of four men by Detective J. E. Davis, G. E. Battle and P. E. Jones and Lieutenant C. E. Cray.

T. Y. Jester, 27, of 767 West End avenue, and John W. Webb, 22, of 435 Whitehall terrace, confessed, according to police, that they had robbed the packing company plant. Officers said Jester had acted as the lookout and Webb had entered the establishment.

ITALIAN KING'S CAR IN NEAR COLLISION

Adroit Driving of Both Chauffeurs Prevents Injuries to His Majesty.

BOLZANO, Italy, Aug. 28.—(P)—King Victor Emmanuel escaped injury today on a precipitous mountain road in the war museum area.

The automobile in which he was riding with three army officers narrowly missed a head-on collision with another coming down the steep slope.

His automobile averted while it was climbing a steep curve. At the same time another car containing several newspapermen sped down close to it.

Only adroit steering on the part of both chauffeurs prevented an accident. The correspondents' car averted sharply and almost shot over the cliff.

The king's car halted and his majesty protested like any other motorist, admonishing the chauffeur of the newspapermen's car for reckless driving.

'Laugh That Off' Proves Best Perch Offering

Whenever a crowd leaves a theater chuckling and applauding, like the audience left the Erlanger last night the show has been good, regardless of any other consideration. It is safe to say that the fault-finders are few and far between after the production of "Laugh That Off," given by the Peruchis Players.

This play, probably unknown to a vast majority of the audience, was last night, undoubtedly "clicked" better than anything the Peruchians have done for us yet. The first act brought broad grins of delight and it grew better until that smashing finish in the few last lines before the final curtain.

It wouldn't be fair to all you folks who are going to see it during the remainder of the week to reveal the plot here, but suffice it to say that each of the three bachelors of the comic opera apartment "got their woman" before the end. Even Morse, played by Gordon Peters with delightful verve, has a couple of evidences to the effect that he is a "real" man.

The Players themselves seemed to enjoy the play just about as well as the audience. All of them revealed in their roles and displayed an enthusiasm that communicated itself over the footlights and promised from the start the really enjoyable evening it turned out to be. Let's see, just to mention the cast, there was Adrienne Earle, Bob Perry, Bob Stewart, Mrs. Peruchi, Betty Peruchi, Bonnie Mallock, David Dunn, Edwin Spillars, Paul Carpenter Jr. and the aforementioned Gordon Peters, who is also responsible for the staging and direction.

You'll enjoy "Laugh That Off" a lot. There are seven more performances, one every evening at 8:30 and matinees at 2:30 on Wednesday and Saturday.

BOY REFORMER HELD AS DENVER'S FIREBUG

DENVER, Aug. 28.—(P)—A romance with a rooming house girl, police said tonight, led to the arrest of a youth suspected of attempting to burn the city's $6,000,000 city hall.

Detective Captain James E. Childers said the youth booked was Warren R. Cramer, 17, found the girl was "leading a life of shame," and threatened to burn the rooming house unless she married him.

The officer quoted the youth as admitting readily he had set 24 fires in the city, but that "nothing in me just made me do it."

Theater Programs. Legitimate

ERLANGER—"Laugh That Off," by Peruchi Players, with Adrienne Earle, Bob Perry, etc., at 8:30 o'clock.

Picture and Stage Shows

CAPITOL—"A Dog of Flanders," with Frankie Thomas, Helen Parrish, etc., at 11:45, 2:45, 5:45, 8:45.

First-run Pictures

GEORGIA—"Going Highbrow," with Edward Everett Horton, Guy Kibbee, etc., Newmarket and short subjects.

LOEW'S—"China Seas," with Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Wallace Beery, etc., at 11:00, 2:00, 5:00, 8:00.

FAIRMOUNT—"Dante's Inferno," with Spencer Tracy, Claire Trevor, etc., at 11:45, 2:45, 5:45, 8:45.

RIALTO—"Atlantic Adventure," with Nancy Carroll, Lloyd Nolan, etc., at 11:45, 2:45, 5:45, 8:45.

Second-run Pictures

ALAMO—"Death Files East," with Conrad Nagel.

ALHAMBRA—"A Dog of Flanders," with Frankie Thomas, Helen Parrish, etc., at 11:45, 2:45, 5:45, 8:45.

NAVAL TREATY HOPES ELIMINATED FOR 1935

Delegates of Five Nations Will Meet and Agree Upon Disagreement.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(P)—Japan's reiterated of its demands for equality, combined with the east African crisis, eliminates all possibility for a new naval limitation agreement in 1935, diplomatic sources close to the situation said today.

A Japanese note, delivered to the foreign office, emphasized advance recognition of naval equality for Japan with Great Britain and the United States, as a condition to the holding of a naval conference here in October.

Diplomats expressed a belief that the representatives of the five major naval powers—the United States, England, Japan, France and Italy—would meet here before the year end for a brief formal session, fulfilling the provisions of the expiring Washington treaty, and then adjourn indefinitely.

Official comment was not available, but private opinions supported strongly the belief that the only way to develop this year would be as a five-power session—at which the delegates would agree to disagree.

Informal sources said the London representatives of the powers concerned could do the job in 10 minutes. The Japanese note said Japan's proposals for a tonnage and fleet limitations—on a basis of equality—would have to be accepted by the other powers before Japan would enter any discussion of a possible naval limitation treaty.

Naval experts considered that this requirement summarily dashed British hopes for a preliminary naval conference in October.

Diplomats evidently were not surprised by the note, for they have long been pessimistic over the outlook for a new treaty.

They also have considered that the British position, with its overhangs, all else that the other powers have difficulty, at any rate, in discussing naval limitations when all were worried over the possibility of war.

There has been a general belief in foreign circles that Italy would not attend any conference if it was held in France.

France has assured the British government that it will send a delegation of technical experts to London in September for bi-lateral conversations and the Italians are scheduled to follow, but the British government has been without positive information that the Italians ever will appear.

LOEW'S GRAND 25th Anniversary

WANTED

THE STARTING FRIDAY 50,000 GARBO Fans TO CELEBRATE GARBO'S 10TH SCREEN ANNIVERSARY

F.D.R. SETS DEADLINES
ON WORK RELIEF PLANS

Continued From First Page.

or to have asked for bids on those to be built under contract.

December 15. All contracts to be awarded.

Although President Roosevelt had insisted that "speed is of the essence," only 200,000 work relief jobs have been provided to date, with the exception of Civilian Conservation Corps enlistments, August had been named by Hopkins as the month which would show "a substantial" amount of employment and November 1 as the date for liquidating the relief administration.

Ikies Loss Power.

At the same time, the President stripped Secretary Ikies of his former absolute power over remaining portions of the $3,700,000,000 Public Works appropriation.

Relief was expressed in some quarters the Works Progress Administration—already slated to cost between $2,000,000,000 and $2,500,000,000—was the only agency capable of cutting on the demanded burst of speed. WPA has received more than $350,000,000 to date and PWA about $130,000,000.

Rains Damage Crops.

AMERICA, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Sumter county farmers estimate recent rains have damaged crops 35 per cent.

Many parents take it for granted that the eyes of their boys and girls are all right because the children apparently see perfectly.

Any eyes, however, subject to a tracing, months of straining work, studying and reading, may develop defects.

These defects, unless revealed by an examination and corrected, invariably cause trouble later on in life.

For your boy's or girl's sake, insist on a pre-school eye examination. Know that his or her eyes are perfect for the tasks ahead—that your youngster won't be under a handicap.

Let it now, before school begins.

A. K. HAWKES CO.
67 Whitehall St.
Optometrists
Opticians

$10 Set of Teeth
This Week Only
Day and Night $3.50
DENTISTS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (Near Rich's Dept. Store)

It's a crime to be SKINNY

When Special Quick Way Puts on 10 to 15 lbs. Fast

EVEN if you never could gain before, I remember thousands have gained solid, naturally attractive flesh this new, easy way—in just a few weeks!

Doctors now say the real reason why great numbers of people can't seem to gain an ounce is they fail to get enough health-building Vitamin B and iron in their daily food. But now with this new discovery which combines these two vital elements in little concentrated tablets, hosts of men and women have put on pounds of firm flesh—in a very short time.

Not only that, but thousands have also gained a naturally clear complexion, freedom from indigestion and constipation, glorious new pep.

7 times more powerful

This amazing new product, Iroized Yeast, is made from special cultured yeast imported from Europe, the richest known source of Vitamin B. By a new process this yeast is

Soap Sales Manager Is Welcomed Here

C. P. Duncan (left), divisional sales manager of the soap department of Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company, welcomes R. B. Weldinger, newly appointed district sales manager of the Atlanta district. The district is composed of the states of Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee and is the largest office in the United States. Mr. Weldinger, who has been associated with the company for the last 11 years, comes to Atlanta from Jacksonville, where he was district manager. The Atlanta division is leading the United States in sales for 1935 as compared with 1934. B. M. Dunn, divisional sales manager of the toilet articles department, announces that his territory is likewise leading in sales.

WOMEN LEADERS PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR BONDS

Continued From First Page.

and interested women within the next week.

Meet Again Tuesday.

The next meeting of the general committee will be held at 32 Broad street next Tuesday, the time to be announced later. Mrs. Ripley and her lieutenants decided.

Senator G. Everett Millican, designated as chairman of the public committee by Jones H. Ewing, who is co-chairman of the citizens' committee in the ratification campaign, attended the women's meeting yesterday and was promised every support possible.

He and Ewing will confer today as to future policies of the campaign and it is expected the actual move to "carry the bond issue into every Atlanta home" will be under way aggressively before the middle of the week.

Radio Talks Planned.

Millican already is planning several radio talks on the matter. He said organization of the speakers' dining squadron announced last week will be completed within the next few days and ward and precinct meetings will follow.

The radio addresses will be short—from one to three minutes each—at first, the campaign chairman asserted. "We do not want to tire the public three weeks before the election, but we do want it to be thinking about the importance to Atlanta of the success of this bond issue," he said. "Later we propose to lengthen the addresses and to cover every phase of this school and sewer problem."

Mrs. Ripley was enthusiastic about the success of the meeting yesterday

"We had a fine meeting and are sure to get the full and unstinted cooperation of the women of Atlanta in this important undertaking," Mrs. Ripley said. "Women are interested intensely in schools for the education of their children. They, too, are deeply concerned in the common health of themselves and their families. Sickening touches the mother more than any other member of the family. We, therefore, are supporting this bond issue to prevent any epidemics."

RED AMBASSADOR HITS PROTEST OF AMERICA

Continued From First Page.

is very insignificant compared to continuous propaganda in the United States against the soviet union.

The ambassador's remarks were interpreted to hint at the tone of the expected soviet reply, particularly in regard to utterances in Moscow by American citizens. Observers pointed out Earl Browder, head of the American communists at the communist gathering was an American citizen and the soviet government could plead with logic it could not be expected to control the opinions of American citizens.

SOVIET UNION SILENT ON U. S. PROTEST

MOSCOW, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A United States protest against the interference by foreign countries in their internal affairs was received in Moscow today by soviet officials and the soviet press.

Official quarters had nothing to say in answer to questions regarding the note delivered yesterday by Ambassador William C. Bullitt, of the United States. These questions included whether any other countries had taken action similar to that of the United States.

Rumors the American protest would be followed by some step on the part of the soviet government had not been confirmed today.

It was stated at the foreign office Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff was on vacation and not in Geneva, as previously had been reported. It was understood that he was in Czechoslovakia.

PROTESTS REPORTED BY 3 OTHER NATIONS

LONDON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Reports were received here today that England, Italy and Latvia had protested informally to Russia over the activities of the third international before the United States protest was made in Moscow yesterday.

It was stated in England made a verbal protest to the soviet just before the close of the seventh congress August 20 and that was not the first British protest.

It was understood that the protest was informal and that no publicity was given to it.

PEANUT PRICE PLAN RECOMMENDED TO AAA

ALBANY, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—A plan to stabilize prices of 1935 peanut crop has been recommended to the AAA by an advisory committee of growers. A. E. Gibson, Dougherty county farm agent, said he had been informed.

The plan calls for diverting to oil use peanuts not absorbed in regular trade channels at prices representing a reasonable return to growers, Gibson said.

Under the plan, millers would enter agreements with the AAA to receive payments on peanuts used for oil production at rates that would tend to make up the difference between the value of peanuts for oil and the price for peanuts for food, which it is desired to establish and maintain.

PEANUT FESTIVAL PLANNED AT DAWSON

DAWSON, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—A "peanut festival" for this city in the autumn season has been voted by citizens in a mass meeting.

The festival will be held to celebrate the distinction gained by Dawson as the world's largest peanut market.

ARMY WORMS ATTACK CENTRAL COTTON BELT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The Agriculture Department had a report today from one of a group of inspectors that there was a heavy infestation of army worms in the central portion of the cotton belt, and that much damage had been done in the last three weeks.

The planter said in central Arkansas, the supply of poison for the worms was running short. It was indicated the worm might be reduced considerably from the August 1 crop estimate.

Flyer Hurt in Crash.

TYLER, Texas, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Bill O'Connell, La., flying a Wedell-Williams plane, overshot the field in attempting to land here today and badly wrecked the ship. Except for a bruised right arm O'Connell was not injured. The plane was wrecked so badly, however, that the pilot said he would have to be withdrawn from the Los Angeles-Cleveland race scheduled to start Thursday night.

RELEASE OF ROAD FUND EXPECTED AT ONCE

Continued From First Page.

ident was understood to have accepted for settlement of the controversy—a proposal based on release of all of the state funds except enough to provide for the disputed Ball's Ferry bridge project, which was to be left to subsequent negotiations between the state board and the Federal Roads Bureau. While this phase of the conflict has apparently been eliminated, the Wallace letter produced other complications by its complexity.

"I am satisfied," said Mr. Vinson, "that the reply of Mr. MacDonald to the objection raised by the state board will be acceptable to all concerned and that the Georgia funds will be forthwith released."

There is no disposition on the part of the Federal Roads Bureau to be arbitrary in negotiations over release of the funds and the objections made by the state board to some of the conditions suggested seem to carry more weight than they should. Mr. MacDonald is preparing a letter which should meet these objections and I now have every confidence that the dispute will be ended.

MacDonald Silent.

Mr. MacDonald had no comment to make on the Vinson announcement except to confirm the statement that a reply to the state board's letter would go forward this week. Secretary Wallace being away from his office, the letter will probably go out under the signature of the secretary of Agriculture, R. G. Wiggall.

Whether the Roads Bureau chief will eliminate the two points objected to in the Wallace letter is not known, but it is said if he does not go this far he will modify them and tone down in such form that they will be acceptable to state authorities.

At the points involved increase of salaries for the bureau's engineering staff and the creation of two additional engineering divisions. As represented by Mr. Vinson, the bureau here is not so much concerned with the physical structure of the bureau's state organization as it is in the addition of engineering personnel to take care of the increased program resulting from the increase highway expenditures. Governor Talmadge already has given assurance of his purpose to increase the bureau's engineering personnel, and on the score of increasing salaries, while feeling this is a subject in which federal authorities have no right to interfere, it is known that he had taken steps to the same end.

Although written last week Senator George's protest to Secretary Wallace against the insistence on points of the proposal objected to by the state board were not made public until today.

Working Quietly.

Along with Representative Vinson, Representative Eugene Cox, of California; Representative Malcolm C. Tarver, of Dalton, and other members of the congressional group, he has been working quietly to end the road for several days. Copies of his letter to Mr. Wallace, which follows in full, were sent to the president and to Mr. MacDonald at the same time.

"Honorable Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of the Agriculture, Washington, District of Columbia.

"Dear Mr. Secretary:

"I am advised that the Georgia Highway Board has indicated its willingness to meet three of the five conditions set forth in your recent letter to the board.

"If my information is correct, the board has declined to divide the state into five highway districts and to bring the salaries of engineers and inspectors up to the level indicated in your letter.

"With respect to the division of the state into highway districts, permit me to say that the majority of the state, as reflected through its Department of Public Roads, has been to recognize north, middle and south Georgia as three distinct regions. There are substantial reasons back of this arrangement, reasons that are fully appreciated by the state.

"I am sure that in my judgment the salaries paid by the highway department to its own employees is a matter for the highway board. There is no basis for the belief that the board has failed to secure the services of competent men. I am reasonably familiar with the grounds of objection urged by the federal bureau of public roads, and am confident that capable engineers and inspectors are being employed on the basis of the present salary schedule.

"Your authority to approve the highway commission is not questioned. However, the division of the state into highway districts is peculiarly a matter within the discretion of the commission. With equal sincerity I believe that you must agree that the federal bureau should not undertake to prescribe the salaries paid by the highway board to its employees unless the board is being served by incompetent and inefficient men.

"I invite your earnest consideration to the suggestions made in this letter. I am anxious to end the controversy between the federal bureau and the State Highway Board. I fully appreciate the unfortunate consequences likely to result from a failure to end the controversy upon a basis of mutual understanding.

The recent statement of the President seemed to me to offer the way out of this difficulty. Let me earnestly insist that the power vested in the federal bureau under laws heretofore and now exercised by it to approve each contract and each payment made, with the conceded right to the federal bureau to supervise construction at rates in the retail, federal safeguards for the protection of funds. In addition, the federal bureau is invited to act as many federal engineers as may be proper at expense of the fund allotted to the state.

With your permission I am transmitting a copy of this letter to President and to Mr. MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads."

Chairman W. E. Wilborn, of the State Highway Board, said yesterday that he is "quite anxious" to receive the latest letter in the highway controversy but until it arrives he said he would have no comment to make on the situation.

"I hope for the best," the chairman declared. "I wonder if a misunderstanding has arisen between the cousins who, in the midst of their quarrel, are ordered into a raid on an enemy sector. Both are wounded: Alan apparently mortally. On recovering, Gerald returns to claim Kitty who, thinking her true love lost, decides to marry him. The discovery that Alan is living, although blind, creates the climax."

FRED WARING—Through the medium of rhythm-and-song, and the untrammeled aid of Colonel Stooge and Budd, Fred Waring and His Pennsylvanians will salute the sovereign state of California during their broadcast on WGST from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock tonight.

The Waring band and troupe of toponath singing stars will present various dance rhythms and songs no doubt would find their way to the state of California did not exist. These will include, for example, favorites

ON THE AIR TODAY

JEANETTE NOLAN—Jeanette Nolan, youthful CBS dramatic star, has selected "The Dark Angel," a forthcoming Samuel Goldwyn picture production, as the source of material for her "Dramatic Interlude" to be broadcast over WGST from 7:30 to 8 o'clock tonight. The motion picture version of "The Dark Angel," adapted from a play by R. B. Trevelyan, features Frederic March, Merle Oberon and Herbert Marshall.

In her broadcast based upon the picture, Miss Nolan will take the role of Kitty, a rural English girl. Kitty is loved by two cousins, Gerald and Alan, but it is the latter who wins her heart before leaving for the world war. A misunderstanding regarding Kitty's treatment by Alan arises between the cousins who, in the midst of their quarrel, are ordered into a raid on an enemy sector. Both are wounded: Alan apparently mortally. On recovering, Gerald returns to claim Kitty who, thinking her true love lost, decides to marry him. The discovery that Alan is living, although blind, creates the climax.

BULLOCK OFFICERS HEAR FUND HAS BEEN ALLOTTED

STATESBORO, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Information was received here this afternoon through the county commissioners' office that there had been allotted to Bulloch county $130,000 out of the $19,000,000 federal road fund for Georgia to be handled through the FERA and county commissioners for the purpose of building secondary roads, bridges and culverts.

FARMER, 22, IS KILLED WHEN TIRE BLOWS OUT

GREENVILLE, Miss., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Riley Potter, 22-year-old farmer, was killed today when a tire blew out, causing his automobile to plunge into a ravine on the highway between south of Greenville. The side of his head was crushed.

"Milk-Bottle Cap" Money Held in Beer Mug Fight

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Missourians, their pockets crisscrossed with "milk-bottle cap" money, embarked tomorrow upon a relief and pension program unprecedented in the "Show Me" state.

More important and far-reaching of more than 50 new laws effective tonight at midnight were measures providing old age pensions for needy persons over 70 and a 1 per cent sales tax.

The tax is to be paid by consumers through use of cardboard disc receipts, similar to milk-bottle caps, on fraction-of-a-dollar purchases. Stamped with the said seal, they are in two denominations—blue 1 mill and brown 5 mill discs.

Each of the $12,000,000 annually expected from the tax will go for pensions. Another large part is for emergency unemployment relief.

Under the pension plan, the state may offer and up to $30 monthly for single persons and $45 for married couples past 70 and unable to support themselves. The federal government pays half the cost under the social security bill.

"Milk-Bottle Cap" Money
Now Official in Missouri

Continued From First Page.

More important and far-reaching of more than 50 new laws effective tonight at midnight were measures providing old age pensions for needy persons over 70 and a 1 per cent sales tax.

The tax is to be paid by consumers through use of cardboard disc receipts, similar to milk-bottle caps, on fraction-of-a-dollar purchases. Stamped with the said seal, they are in two denominations—blue 1 mill and brown 5 mill discs.

Each of the $12,000,000 annually expected from the tax will go for pensions. Another large part is for emergency unemployment relief.

Under the pension plan, the state may offer and up to $30 monthly for single persons and $45 for married couples past 70 and unable to support themselves. The federal government pays half the cost under the social security bill.

GEORGIAN GOES EAST TO GET STOLEN CAR

FORT GAINES, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Wrested from him in a holdup by two convicts believed to have been Austin Westberry and Ben Bistrizsky, fugitives from the Calhoun county chain gang, the automobile of D. C. Brumlow, of Calhoun County, Ga., has been located in Baltimore, Md.

Brumlow received word the car was found on a vacant lot and his wife was riding with him when his convicts staged the holdup near Bluffton and commandeered the car. Calhoun county adjoints Clay.

Mail Route Changed.

MILLERSVILLE, Ga., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Coopersville residents who have been receiving their mail on a rural route from Gordon will be served on the new No. 10 route, effective September 1. The change has been announced by the postoffice department.

ON THE RADIO WAVES TODAY

WGST 690 Kilocycles

6:00 A. M.—Bible Hymns.
6:30—Morning News.
6:45—Morning News.
7:00—Morning News.
7:15—Palm, children's sketch, NBC.
7:30—Cherry, NBC.
7:45—Breakfast Club, orchestra, NBC.
8:00—Radio News, NBC.
8:15—Frank Luther, NBC.
8:30—Willie Kalam's Royal Hawaiian.
8:45—News.
9:00—The Honeybees, NBC.
9:15—Bruce Wagner.
9:30—George Shearing's orchestra, NBC.
9:45—Philosophy.
10:00—The Merry Maids, NBC.
10:15—Billie Holiday's jug band.
10:30—Sammy Kaye's orchestra, NBC.
10:45—Words and Music, NBC.
11:00—Palm and Home, NBC.
11:15—Silver Jubilee, NBC.
11:30—Robertson, Harrison, NBC.
11:45—Dramas Come True, NBC.
12:00—Cotton and stock quotations.
12:15—Radio News, NBC.
12:30—Palm, NBC.
12:45—Charles Starr, NBC.
1:00—Palm, NBC.
1:15—Pan-American program, NBC.
1:30—Sammy Kaye's orchestra, NBC.
1:45—Otto Thurm's orchestra, NBC.
2:00—Radio News, NBC.
2:15—Palm, NBC.
2:30—Palm, NBC.
2:45—Palm, NBC.
3:00—Palm, NBC.
3:15—Palm, NBC.
3:30—Palm, NBC.
3:45—Palm, NBC.
4:00—Palm, NBC.
4:15—Palm, NBC.
4:30—Palm, NBC.
4:45—Palm, NBC.
5:00—Palm, NBC.
5:15—Palm, NBC.
5:30—Palm, NBC.
5:45—Palm, NBC.
6:00—Palm, NBC.

WSB 760 Kilocycles

6:25 A. M.—Another day.
6:30—Morning News, NBC.
6:45—Morning News, NBC.
7:00—Morning News, NBC.
7:15—Palm, children's sketch, NBC.
7:30—Cherry, NBC.
7:45—Breakfast Club, orchestra, NBC.
8:00—Radio News, NBC.
8:15—Frank Luther, NBC.
8:30—Willie Kalam's Royal Hawaiian.
8:45—News.
9:00—The Honeybees, NBC.
9:15—Bruce Wagner.
9:30—George Shearing's orchestra, NBC.
9:45—Philosophy.
10:00—The Merry Maids, NBC.
10:15—Billie Holiday's jug band.
10:30—Sammy Kaye's orchestra, NBC.
10:45—Words and Music, NBC.
11:00—Palm and Home, NBC.
11:15—Silver Jubilee, NBC.
11:30—Robertson, Harrison, NBC.
11:45—Dramas Come True, NBC.
12:00—Cotton and stock quotations.
12:15—Radio News, NBC.
12:30—Palm, NBC.
12:45—Charles Starr, NBC.
1:00—Palm, NBC.
1:15—Pan-American program, NBC.
1:30—Sammy Kaye's orchestra, NBC.
1:45—Otto Thurm's orchestra, NBC.
2:00—Radio News, NBC.
2:15—Palm, NBC.
2:30—Palm, NBC.
2:45—Palm, NBC.
3:00—Palm, NBC.
3:15—Palm, NBC.
3:30—Palm, NBC.
3:45—Palm, NBC.
4:00—Palm, NBC.
4:15—Palm, NBC.
4:30—Palm, NBC.
4:45—Palm, NBC.
5:00—Palm, NBC.
5:15—Palm, NBC.
5:30—Palm, NBC.
5:45—Palm, NBC.
6:00—Palm, NBC.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

6:30 A. M.—Early Birds.
6:45—Early Birds.
7:00—Early Birds.
7:15—Early Birds.
7:30—Early Birds.
7:45—Early Birds.
8:00—Early Birds.
8:15—Early Birds.
8:30—Early Birds.
8:45—Early Birds.
9:00—Early Birds.
9:15—Early Birds.
9:30—Early Birds.
9:45—Early Birds.
10:00—Early Birds.
10:15—Early Birds.
10:30—Early Birds.
10:45—Early Birds.
11:00—Early Birds.
11:15—Early Birds.
11:30—Early Birds.
11:45—Early Birds.
12:00—Early Birds.
12:15—Early Birds.
12:30—Early Birds.
12:45—Early Birds.
1:00—Early Birds.
1:15—Early Birds.
1:30—Early Birds.
1:45—Early Birds.
2:00—Early Birds.
2:15—Early Birds.
2:30—Early Birds.
2:45—Early Birds.
3:00—Early Birds.
3:15—Early Birds.
3:30—Early Birds.
3:45—Early Birds.
4:00—Early Birds.
4:15—Early Birds.
4:30—Early Birds.
4:45—Early Birds.
5:00—Early Birds.
5:15—Early Birds.
5:30—Early Birds.
5:45—Early Birds.
6:00—Early Birds.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

6:30 A. M.—Early Birds.
6:45—Early Birds.
7:00—Early Birds.
7:15—Early Birds.
7:30—Early Birds.
7:45—Early Birds.
8:00—Early Birds.
8:15—Early Birds.
8:30—Early Birds.
8:45—Early Birds.
9:00—Early Birds.
9:15—Early Birds.
9:30—Early Birds.
9:45—Early Birds.
10:00—Early Birds.
10:15—Early Birds.
10:30—Early Birds.
10:45—Early Birds.
11:00—Early Birds.
11:15—Early Birds.
11:30—Early Birds.
11:45—Early Birds.
12:00—Early Birds.
12:15—Early Birds.
12:30—Early Birds.
12:45—Early Birds.
1:00—Early Birds.
1:15—Early Birds.
1:30—Early Birds.
1:45—Early Birds.
2:00—Early Birds.
2:15—Early Birds.
2:30—Early Birds.
2:45—Early Birds.
3:00—Early Birds.
3:15—Early Birds.
3:30—Early Birds.
3:45—Early Birds.
4:00—Early Birds.
4:15—Early Birds.
4:30—Early Birds.
4:45—Early Birds.
5:00—Early Birds.
5:15—Early Birds.
5:30—Early Birds.
5:45—Early Birds.
6:00—Early Birds.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

6:30 A. M.—Early Birds.
6:45—Early Birds.
7:00—Early Birds.
7:15—Early Birds.
7:30—Early Birds.
7:45—Early Birds.
8:00—Early Birds.
8:15—Early Birds.
8:30—Early Birds.
8:45—Early Birds.
9:00—Early Birds.
9:15—Early Birds.
9:30—Early Birds.
9:45—Early Birds.
10:00—Early Birds.
10:15—Early Birds.
10:30—Early Birds.
10:45—Early Birds.
11:00—Early Birds.
11:15—Early Birds.
11:30—Early Birds.
11:45—Early Birds.
12:00—Early Birds.
12:15—Early Birds.
12:30—Early Birds.
12:45—Early Birds.
1:00—Early Birds.
1:15—Early Birds.
1:30—Early Birds.
1:45—Early Birds.
2:00—Early Birds.
2:15—Early Birds.
2:30—Early Birds.
2:45—Early Birds.
3:00—Early Birds.
3:15—Early Birds.
3:30—Early Birds.
3:45—Early Birds.
4:00—Early Birds.
4:15—Early Birds.
4:30—Early Birds.
4:45—Early Birds.
5:00—Early Birds.
5:15—Early Birds.
5:30—Early Birds.
5:45—Early Birds.
6:00—Early Birds.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

6:30 A. M.—Early Birds.
6:45—Early Birds.
7:00—Early Birds.
7:15—Early Birds.
7:30—Early Birds.
7:45—Early Birds.
8:00—Early Birds.
8:15—Early Birds.
8:30—Early Birds.
8:45—Early Birds.
9:00—Early Birds.
9:15—Early Birds.
9:30—Early Birds.
9:45—Early Birds.
10:00—Early Birds.
10:15—Early Birds.
10:30—Early Birds.
10:45—Early Birds.
11:00—Early Birds.
11:15—Early Birds.
11:30—Early Birds.
11:45—Early Birds.
12:00—Early Birds.
12:15—Early Birds.
12:30—Early Birds.
12:45—Early Birds.
1:00—Early Birds.
1:15—Early Birds.
1:30—Early Birds.
1:45—Early Birds.
2:00—Early Birds.
2:15—Early Birds.
2:30—Early Birds.
2:45—Early Birds.
3:00—Early Birds.
3:15—Early Birds.
3:30—Early Birds.
3:45—Early Birds.
4:00—Early Birds.
4:15—Early Birds.
4:30—Early Birds.
4:45—Early Birds.
5:00—Early Birds.
5:15—Early Birds.
5:30—Early Birds.
5:45—Early Birds.
6:00—Early Birds.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

6:30 A. M.—Early Birds.
6:45—Early Birds.
7:00—Early Birds.
7:15—Early Birds.
7:30—Early Birds.
7:45—Early Birds.
8:00—Early Birds.
8:15—Early Birds.
8:30—Early Birds.
8:45—Early Birds.
9:00—Early Birds.
9:15—Early Birds.
9:30—Early Birds.
9:45—Early Birds.
10:00—Early Birds.
10:15—Early Birds.
10:30—Early Birds.
10:45—Early Birds.
11:00—Early Birds.
11:15—Early Birds.
11:30—Early Birds.
11:45—Early Birds.
12:00—Early Birds.
12:15—Early Birds.
12:30—Early Birds.
12:45—Early Birds.
1:00—Early Birds.
1:15—Early Birds.
1:30—Early Birds.
1:45—Early Birds.
2:00—Early Birds.
2:15—Early Birds.
2:30—Early Birds.
2:45—Early Birds.
3:00—Early Birds.
3:15—Early Birds.
3:30—Early Birds.
3:45—Early Birds.
4:00—Early Birds.
4:15—Early Birds.
4:30—Early Birds.
4:45—Early Birds.
5:00—Early Birds.
5:15—Early Birds.
5:30—Early Birds.
5:45—Early Birds.
6:00—Early Birds.

WJTL 1370 Kilocycles

Harry Kelley Seeks His Second Victory Over Barons Tonight

BREAK O'DAY!
By Joseph McKee

The Little Sardine is in circulation again. I am referring to Gene Sarazen, one of the greatest competitors sport has ever known and a very successful gadfly, too. He's at his best in an article in the Satepost of today. He will please few with it, but he will interest everyone. And he will cause much comment. Lots of it. A great guy, the Little Sardine. And when he's in a tournament a fellow to follow around. Because he's news. He has the gift of saying something.

He had the field white-lipped with anger last spring at Augusta. He had some of them so white-lipped with anger they were speaking out loud and saying, "He can't do it, I tell you. He can't." And right into the midst of that the fellow exploded that double eagle—a deuce on a par five hole.

I'll never forget that little scene that day with Craig Wood, who was the leader, waiting on the veranda, and his wife of one year standing there by the A. P. radio microphone, wringing her hands and saying, "Please, please, why don't they say something?"

The Little Sardine was marching in with a chance to win. He tied. And the next day shot Craig Wood off the course, winning by a wide margin.

The Little Sardine will have a lot of the boys a bit upset with this article. He selects Walter Hagen, Bobby Jones, Harry Vardon and Joyce Wethered.

And he says that of the three men, only Hagen is playing golf which is as good as it ever was. And he gives a brand-new reason—"club-member greens." He writes:

"Hagen is still around, and it is my opinion that he is a better golfer today than he was when he was winning his two championships here and his four in England. Yet he can no longer win.

"Why? Because modern golf, with its sets of matched irons and its watered courses and 'club-member' greens, has become too standardized. It has reached a point where the championship figures to go to the man holding the longest putt, and, by the law of averages, a different man should do this practically every year.

"I call them 'club-member' greens because anybody can hold them, so heavily are they watered. In fact, a first-rate golfer no longer uses backspin on approach shots, but plays them for the green and lets them run to the pin. There are some few American courses that hold to the old tradition, notably Oakmont, Merion, Brae Burn and Brookline, but they are so vastly in the minority that you practically have to go to England for the nuances of iron play—the pitch to the pin, the pitch and run, the pitch with the drift to the right or the break to the left—seldom the same shot twice."

You may not agree with Sarazen—in fact, you are most likely to disagree violently—but the fellow is a genius at chasing people to one side of the fence or other. They never straddle his comments. Which is, of course, what he wants.

THE JONES COMPLEX

He pays quite a tribute to Bobby Jones—though he doesn't think Jones can come back. He thinks Jones has found other things to amuse him. And that is true. And as it should be. There is no reason why Jones should try to come back.

Come back to what? He left the greatest record golf could have. There is nothing for him to come back to in golf. There has been no one come close to his record. And Jones would be foolish to go to work and spend all his time at golf again. He left them something at which to shoot. And the greens, when he played, were tougher than now. And his record is one I doubt will ever be equaled. But Sarazen's comment is interesting. He pays a fine tribute to Jones:

"At that, Jones undoubtedly had all of the pros buffaloed and might do it again. We were once so demoralized that I recall Hagen trying to be funny in the locker room between rounds of the 1930 open at Interlachen while Bobby was on his way to his famous grand slam.

"Somebody asked me how I went," said Walter, "and I just caught myself in time. I was going to tell him I played like an amateur. But I saw it wouldn't do. He'd never believe me."

"So what did you do?" asked a voice somewhere behind the cracked ice.

"I told him the truth," Hagen was making his exit. "I told him I played like a professional."

"All of us had what I called the 'Jones Complex.' We were forever stopping friends to ask, anxiously, 'What's Jones doing?' and always our idea was to make the perfect shot, thinking for some reason that his were incapable of human error.

"In other words, we helped to beat ourselves, although I'll have to admit that he was as close to perfection as anything we've ever had on a golf course, and if he had been born ten years later and was starting on his career tomorrow, he would always be the man to beat."

He follows this by saying that Jones can never come back. And the answer is the same—come back to what?

GENE MACSARAZEN

He started as Gene MacSarazen—the Scotch wop. And he has been all his life a player of hunches. And he has been all his life a popper-off. At Augusta he had the younger players wild by calling them "sissy golfers."

He mentioned the fact that when he was playing in a game for money he didn't want his opponent to make a good shot. He wanted him to make a terrible shot. In fact, Gene Sarazen didn't care if the opponent broke his, opponent's, leg.

I rarely agree with him. But I like to follow him around or walk with him down the course between holes and listen to what he says.

He has a genius for saying things which are news. Often, I think, he has his tongue in his cheek as when he suggested eight-inch cups. But he makes the news.

He plays golf, too—golf which keeps his opponents

TIGERS SPLIT WITH ATHLETICS; YAKS BEATEN

Chisox Win Over New York; Indians Beat Red Sox; Nats Idle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Detroit divided a double-header with Philadelphia, the Tigers winning the opener, 13-7, and the Athletics taking the second game, 5-2. The Tigers battered Bill Dietrich for 17 hits in the opener. Marvin Owen batted in four Detroit runs and Hank Greenberg drove in three.

George Blaeholder bested Tommy Bridges in a pitcher's battle in the nightcap, blanking the Tigers until the ninth. Bridges allowed four hits and Blaeholder six.

Jimmy Fox hit two homers, one in each game, to bring his total to 28. Hal Trosky's twenty-second homer in the eighth gave Cleveland a 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox. The defeat dropped the Red Sox from third to fifth place. Monte Pearson yielded nine hits, one more than Rube Werg, the losing pitcher.

BONURA STEALS HOME. The Chicago White Sox won the first game of a double-header from the New York Yankees, 9-8, in 15 innings.

Zeke Bonura, who didn't steal a base all last season and who has pilfered only three previous to today, stole home in the fifteenth with the winning run.

Lou Gehrig hit his twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth homers, the latter coming in the fifteenth.

Trailing by one run in the fifteenth the White Sox started their winning rally when Appaling walked, Bonura singled, and a sacrifice advanced both runners. Conland walked, filling the bases. Appaling scored on a force-out. As Wyatt walked, Bonura stole home with the winning run.

The Yanks made 19 hits off Phelps. Fischer and Wyatt and the White Sox collected 17 off Gomez, Brown and Deshong. Wyatt was the winning pitcher and Deshong the loser.

The White Sox lost an opportunity to regain third place by dropping the nightcap to the Yankees, 7-5. The game went only seven innings because of darkness.

Johnny Murphy held the Sox to six hits and the Yanks won the game in the seventh with two runs.

TIGERS 13-7, ATHLETICS 5-2.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Detroit's 13-7 victory over Philadelphia in the first game of a double-header was a record for the Tigers. The Athletics' 5-2 win in the nightcap was a record for the Athletics. The Tigers' 13-7 win was a record for the Tigers. The Athletics' 5-2 win was a record for the Athletics.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Detroit's 13-7 victory over Philadelphia in the first game of a double-header was a record for the Tigers. The Athletics' 5-2 win in the nightcap was a record for the Athletics. The Tigers' 13-7 win was a record for the Tigers. The Athletics' 5-2 win was a record for the Athletics.

YANKS 9-8, CHISOX 4-3.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Chicago's 9-8 victory over the New York Yankees in the first game of a double-header was a record for the White Sox. The Yankees' 8-5 win in the nightcap was a record for the Yankees.

INDIANS 4-3, RED SOX 2-1.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Cleveland's 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the first game of a double-header was a record for the Indians. The Sox's 2-1 win in the nightcap was a record for the Sox.

NATS 0-0, PIRATES 0-0.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The National League teams played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

Steals Home

Slow-footed Zeke Bonura, with only two stolen bases to his credit, stole home yesterday to give the White Sox a victory over the Yankees in the first game of a double-header.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Chicago's 9-8 victory over the New York Yankees in the first game of a double-header was a record for the White Sox. The Yankees' 8-5 win in the nightcap was a record for the Yankees.

INDIANS 4-3, RED SOX 2-1.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—(UP)—Cleveland's 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the first game of a double-header was a record for the Indians. The Sox's 2-1 win in the nightcap was a record for the Sox.

NATS 0-0, PIRATES 0-0.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The National League teams played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals played no games today because of darkness.

ST. LOUIS 0-0, CUBS 0-0.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs played no games today because of darkness.

BRONX 0-0, ASTORS 0-0.

ALLISON LEADS SEEDED STARS; GRAY IS FIFTH

Helen Jacobs Tops Women's List for National at Forest Hills.

By Bob Cavanaugh.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(UP)—One hundred and sixty-two players—98 men and women—were drawn today for the combined national singles tennis championships starting Thursday at Forest Hills, L. I., with the top-ranking Wilmer Allison, of Austin, Texas, and Helen Hull Jacobs, of Berkeley, Cal., topping the American seeded players in their respective divisions.

Similar spots among the foreign players were allotted to the defending champion, K. Fred Perry, of England, and his attractive compatriot, Kay Stammers, who has conquered both Miss Jacobs and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody this year. The names of all contestants, including the 29 seeded performers, were pulled from a hat.

In recognition of his showing in the Wimbledon and Davis cup events, red-headed Donald Budge, of Oakland, Cal., was seeded a notch below Allison, followed in order by Frank N. Shields and Sidney S. Wood, of New York; Bryan M. Grant Jr., of Atlanta; Frank Parker, of Lawrenceville, N. J.; Benj. Hall, of New York; Gregory S. Mangin, of Newark, N. J.; John Van Ryn, of Philadelphia, and Clifford Sutter, of Detroit.

MAKO IS OUT.

Thus 11 members of the white-washed Davis cup squad, with the exception of Gene Mako, of Los Angeles, were placed in the preferred list. "Rokich Mangel, of Czechoslovakia, the biggest threat in the tournament from the standpoint of stature, was seeded No. 2 in the overseas group. The six-foot-four European who bowled to young Parker a year ago, is followed by France's top-ranking Christian Bousset; Enrique Maier, of Spain; a Martin-leagey, of France; Jacques Brugnon, of France; and Esckel D. Andrews, of New Zealand.

Due to the large field, 30 players received first-round byes. These included Budge, Grant, Van Ryn, Parker and Perry, leaving the opening round's fireworks to Mako, who tackles Brugnon and Bell, who encounters the former Spanish Davis cup player, Manuel Alonso.

Allison, Van Ryn Win Doubles.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 26.—(UP)—The thousands of unofficial United States Davis cup selections committee members, who had decided that Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn were a bit too old for international play, were pulled up short today when these veterans gained their second national doubles championship by defeating the youngsters generally favored as their successors. For the second time since the Davis cup disaster, Allison and Van Ryn engaged their young team-mates from California, red-headed Don Budge and Gene Mako, and for the second time the oldsters gained a five-set victory, by scores of 6-4, 6-2, 3-6, 2-6, 6-1.

Camp Tate Closes Successful Season

Saturday and Sunday saw the close of a successful season at Camp Tate, Mountain Estates, Jasper, Ga. The outstanding closing event was the banquet at which the various achievements of the season were revealed. The honors, prizes and champions in various sports were announced.

Special guests included Dr. Grady C. Cantor, camp physician, and father of two boys in camp, and also Bob Martin, general manager of the Tate Mountain Estates. Both men are officers of the Georgia Athletic Union, which introduced the speakers.

T. K. Cureton, program director, spoke of the outstanding features of the season and announced the results of the various competitions.

The highest honor of the camp, that of election of best camper, went to the following boys: (boys under 11 years), Theo. Bean, Atlanta, Ga.; (intermediate division (11-13 years)), Hugh Caldwell, Atlanta, Ga.; (senior division (14 and up)), Dan Paradis, Atlanta, Ga.

The contest between the Green and White sides was won by the Greens by a close margin.

Individual honors in rifle shooting were won by Tommy Allen, Dan Paradis, Allen Burdett, Lucien Burdett with all qualifying for medals with the National Rifle Association.

Six boys were specially distinguished by qualifying as junior life savers and as certified canoeists involving a 70-mile canoe race on the Chattahoochee River by way of the Chestnut and Chattahoochee rivers. These boys were James Cheves, Allen Burdett, Dan Paradis, Hugh Caldwell and Tommy Allen. They are all from Atlanta.

Individual champions were selected in all of the major camp activities. The following list gives these:

JUNIOR CLASS. Baseball, Mark Pope, Atlanta, Ga.; Rifle, Mark Pope, Atlanta, Ga.; Track and field, Mark Pope, Atlanta, Ga.; Golf, Mark Pope, Atlanta, Ga.; Tennis, Mark Pope, Atlanta, Ga.; Gymnasium activities, Stanley Simpson, Savannah, Ga.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS. Baseball, Lucien Burdett, Atlanta, Ga.; Rifle, Lucien Burdett, Atlanta, Ga.; Track and field, Lucien Burdett, Atlanta, Ga.; Golf, Lucien Burdett, Atlanta, Ga.; Tennis, Lucien Burdett, Atlanta, Ga.; Gymnasium activities, Dan Paradis, Atlanta, Ga.

SENIOR CLASS. Baseball, Dan Tate, Atlanta, Ga.; Rifle, Dan Tate, Atlanta, Ga.; Track and field, Dan Tate, Atlanta, Ga.; Golf, Dan Tate, Atlanta, Ga.; Tennis, Dan Tate, Atlanta, Ga.; Gymnasium activities, Dan Paradis, Atlanta, Ga.

Special distinction was given Frank Allison, Atlanta, for being promoted to the rank of counselor during the season. Otherwise, he would have been eligible for best camper honor in the senior division.

EARLY OPENER.

A green team, hurriedly whipped into shape by Coach Wallace Wade will open Duke University's 1935 football season with Wake Forest as the opposition, September 21. The opener is a night game to be played in Greensboro, N. C.

Hooks to the Rescue

After being out for some time with an injured knee, Alex Hooks, Cracker first baseman, is coming back with his old punch. He is fielding brilliantly and is one big reason why the Crackers are up there in front. He will play tonight against the Barons.

ATLANTA, Aug. 26.—(UP)—The Atlanta Crackers, who were out of the lead for some time, are back in front tonight, thanks to the return of Alex Hooks, first baseman, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee.

Hooks, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee, is back in front tonight, thanks to the return of Alex Hooks, first baseman, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee.

Hooks, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee, is back in front tonight, thanks to the return of Alex Hooks, first baseman, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee.

Hooks, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee, is back in front tonight, thanks to the return of Alex Hooks, first baseman, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee.

Hooks, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee, is back in front tonight, thanks to the return of Alex Hooks, first baseman, who has been out of the lineup for some time with an injured knee.

STERCHI'S REMAINS OPEN UNTIL 10 P. M.

Sale of Suites

2 Luxurious Pieces
by KROEHLER
88.85

A typical example of the unusual Kroehler values to be found in Sterchi's August Sale. The suite shown is one of the second carload to be received this month. The luxuriously proportioned sofa and large Lounge Chair can be had in a wide variety of fashionable coverings.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

Tonight
YOU ARE INVITED to the South's Most BRILLIANT FURNITURE
Style Show

A showing of the country's most interesting furniture styles, featuring the model room displays on Sterchi's Fourth and Fifth Floors. Tuesday night has been dedicated "Employees' Night"—If you have a friend among the store personnel call him, or her, and make an appointment for the evening. Every employee will be here to serve you.

Impressive 18th Century Suite
98.50

Nine pieces in the Duncan Phyfe manner. Beautifully veneered in Mahogany. Regularly—and after the sale—$129.50.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

20th Century Kroehler Suite
98.50

Two luxurious pieces in the modern manner. A new creation by Kroehler in striking fabric patterns. Regularly $129.50.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

14-Pc. Breton Frieze Ensemble
68.85

Sofa, Lounge Chair, Occasional Chair, 2 End Tables, 2 Table Lamps and Shades, Coffee Table, Smoker, Magazine Rack, Console Mirror and Picture—All for only $68.85.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

9-Pcs. Mattress, Spring Included
68.85

3-pc. Colonial Maple Suite. Mattress, Coil Spring, 2 Feather Pillows and 2 Pictures. An $84.50 value... only $68.85 today!

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

Solid Mahogany or Solid Maple Colonial
88.85

An open stock group from which you can make your own selections. The Bed shown with Chest and Vanity in upper panel at $88.85—other pieces at proportionate sale prices.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

SALE OF RUGS!

A Beautiful Collection of Regular $60.00
American Orientals

48.85

Heavy, luxurious pile depth with thickly fringed ends; patterns through to the back. Chinese, Persian and other prized designs of the Far East. 9x12 sizes... After the sale, back to $60.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

LIMITED GROUP OF FINE
9x12 RUGS REDUCED

25% to 50%

Chenilles, Axminsters, American Orientals and fine Wiltons. All patterns good and guaranteed perfect. Early selection imperative.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

STERCHI'S

KROEHLER'S
NEW STUDIO DIVAN

A comfortable sofa that opens into a full size bed for night use. Choice of smart tapestry covers. Regularly $49.50.

39.50

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

SMART ENSEMBLE OF 36 PIECES

Studio Couch as shown with three pillows, Occasional Chair, End Table, Table Lamp and Shade, Coffee Table, Smoker, Magazine Rack, Picture and 24-Pc. Beverage Set.

29.95

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

10-PIECE STUDIO GROUP

Studio Couch with 3 pillows, End Table, Table Lamp and Shade, Occasional Chair.

19.95

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

★ ★ ★ ★
Sale Special!

American and Foreign

RCA-VICTOR

49.95

There's a big money's worth of foreign programs in this RCA-Victor Model 214! Domestic programs too... and police, aviation and amateur calls. It's got the Airplane Dial... Automatic Volume Control... a full Electro-Dynamic Speaker. AND... It's got the benefit of the world's most skillful engineering. Model 214 is designed by the creators of the MAGIC BEAT.

Store Open Till Ten Tonight

Interesting Story Lurks Behind Bestowal of Many Nicknames

By Sally Forth.

THERE is always an interesting story lurking behind the bestowal of nicknames, as is evidenced in the case of blond and winsome "Lady" Fleming, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Fleming. In her baby language she tried to repeat "Adelaide," and all she could get was "Lady," the name that has clung to her all of her life. "Sally" Smith named herself when she was a baby. She, too, tried to say Sarah, and "Sally" was the answer.

Washington Seminary's beautiful Mary Queen, Margaret Preacher, is known as "Tish." In pre-kindergarten days some neighborhood youngsters attempted to call her "Sis," and finding trouble with this and "Sally" was the answer.

"Debbie" is the affectionate name by which Mrs. Frank Hawkins is known to her family and intimate friends, and the appellation fits her like a glove. Cadets at the Georgia Military Academy were responsible for the endearing name of "Sweetheart" to which Mrs. Alonzo Richardson answers. When her boys were youngsters, Mrs. Richardson resided in College Park; her home stood within the shadow of the G. M. A. and was the hospitable rendezvous for the students.

Because she is always calm and gentle, Mrs. Gus T. Dodd was nicknamed "Dove" in her childhood by members of her family. As a mark of greater affection, members of her immediate family have begun to call her "Dove."

Mrs. W. C. Jarnagan answers to the amusing name of "Pie." It was given her by her daughter, Erskine Jarnagan Forgy, who called her mother "Sugar Pie." In her babyhood days, and shortened it to "Pie" when she was older.

Since his freshman days at the University of Georgia, Ernest E. Dallas has been known to his countless friends as "Dinkie." And all because he appeared on the first day in a dinkie little bottled coat.

Katherine Flagler McClain answers to the name of "Dix," the nickname given her during her school days because of her blondness. She cannot remember who gave her the name.

Mr. Merriwell Hill is called "Minnie," and Sally hears that students at Georgia Tech are responsible for the cognomen.

Ernest P. Rogers has for a nickname the amusing term of "Jelly," and Sally has been unable to find the reason for the nickname.

YOU have probably heard about the unromantic young man from a Georgia city who tossed six ring boxes into the lap of his unsuspecting date and nonchalantly ordered, "Take the one you want!" So Sally will take it upon herself to relate a much more romantic story of the bestowal of the well-known wedding ring.

The young man drove all the way to Kentucky without stopping. No doubt he was filled with pleasant, yet worried, thoughts of when and where to break the news. Upon reaching the home of his future bride, he suddenly had an inspiration. "Let's go to our favorite place," he said.

Comfortably ensconced upon the bench that Stephen Foster wrote his memorable song, "My Old Kentucky Home," the attractive young Atlanta bestowal upon the lady of his choice a beautiful diamond ring, in the famous gardens of that historical place.

A CONVERSATION was overheard the other day when the younger contingent were discussing an amusing incident in connection with a recent hospital visit of 14-year-old Coribel Matson. Coribel was rushed to Wesley Memorial hospital for an emergency appendicitis operation. She was attended in her rather abbreviated nightgown, and was patiently or impatiently awaiting

SALE OF ORIENTAL RUGS

9x12 SAROUK...$199
10x15 SAROUK...$349

Now is the time to have your rugs cleaned and repaired.

DEARBORN 5190

SHARIAN
RUG CLEANERS
320 Drexel Avenue
Decatur, Ga.

MAGIC SKIN
Beautiful
FAMOUS CREAM ENDS FRECKLES, BLACK-HEADS—RESTORES CLEAR, LOVELY SKIN
All you do is this: (1) At bedtime spread a thin film of NADINOLA—tested and guaranteed with NADINOLA—tested and trusted for nearly two generations. All retail counters, only 50c. Or write NADINOLA, Box 43, Paris, Tenn.

Women Voters Meet At Mrs. Sanders'

The program for the semi-annual meeting of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, which will be held today at the home of Mrs. J. O. Sanders, 517 Manor Ridge drive, from 10:30 to 3 o'clock is as follows: Mrs. J. O. Sanders, the president, will preside. She will give the midyear check-up of the work accomplished by the league and will speak of the anniversary of 15 years of equal suffrage. Mrs. R. L. Turman will review the grand jury investigation of Fulton county affairs. At 11:15 Mrs. Frank Watkins will speak on "The Proposed City-Manager Plan." Mrs. George M. Murray will make a report on permanent registration. Luncheon from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock will be served by Mrs. Robert Perkins and her group. At 1:30 o'clock Tarleton Collier will give both sides of the bond issue. Mrs. Frank A. Dennis will give a parliamentary drill. Those going by street car will be met by automobiles at the E. Rivers school if they will phone the league office, Walnut 6111, or Mrs. Sanders.

There will be a display of publicity books of the Atlanta League from 1921 to today. Much interest has centered around this and anyone having old clippings is urged to carry them to the meeting.

Luncheon To Honor State U. D. C. Head

Mrs. Warren D. White will entertain at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Piedmont avenue, honoring Mrs. W. Reed of Athens, president of Georgia Division, U. D. C., who is among the distinguished women in Georgia. Invited to meet the honor guest are the members of the committee on revision of constitution and by-laws, of which Mrs. White is chairman, including Mrs. Frank Edgus, of Americus; Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, of Montezuma; Mrs. Trox Bankston and Mrs. Bun Wyllie. Mrs. A. Dennis, third vice president general, U. D. C., and Mrs. W. S. Coleman will attend. The presidents of the local chapters, state officers and their husbands are invited to a conference with Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Dennis at 2:30 o'clock to discuss matters of state and national interest.

SOCIETY EVENTS

TUESDAY, AUGUST 27.

Miss Dorothy Hinman will entertain at a buffet supper following the wedding rehearsal, honoring Miss Sarah Branch and her fiancé, Willis Adams, and the members of the bridal party.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Orme Flinn will entertain at an open house honoring their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Flinn Eckert, and her fiancé, Ralph Glenn Eckert, of San Jose, Cal., from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Martha Burnett gives a luncheon at the Piedmont Driving Club complementing Miss Dorothy Jane Orr, of Chicago, the guest of Miss Clara Haverty.

Mrs. E. B. Proctor will be hostess at a buffet supper at her home on The Prado complementing Miss Ella B. Huffman and her fiancé, Charles Methvin, following the wedding rehearsal.

Miss Su Burnett will be hostess at a theater party honoring Miss Padgett, of New York, the guest of Miss Gertrude Losier.

Mrs. W. M. Graham will be hostess at a party this afternoon at her home in Decatur in honor of her daughter, Margaret, who will celebrate her eighth birthday.

Mrs. Ford Stoner will be hostess today at a luncheon at Davison's tea room in honor of Mrs. Sanford Bell, bride-elect.

Mrs. L. M. Clough and Mrs. M. E. Acuff will entertain at a party at the home of Mrs. Clough on Peachtree road this evening, honoring Mrs. Sanford Bell, bride-elect.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

TUESDAY, AUGUST 27.

The semi-annual meeting of the Atlanta League of Women Voters will be held at Mrs. J. O. Sanders, at 517 Manor Ridge drive, from 10:30 to 3 o'clock.

Grady Hospital Auxiliary meets at the Nurses' Home at 11 o'clock.

Atlanta Alumnae chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi meets with Mrs. Robert Taylor, 1236 Piedmont avenue, at 3 o'clock.

Atlanta Psychoanalytical Society meets at 8 o'clock at 929 Highland avenue, N. E.

Ladies' Auxiliary to Greater Atlanta Post No. 390 meets at 3 o'clock in Rich's tea room.

The executive board of the Central Congregational church meets at 12:30 o'clock at Davison-Paxon's tea room.

Martha Chapter No. 128, O. E. S., will meet for a picnic at 6 o'clock at Mosley park.

The Homemakers' Club meets at 3 o'clock at the clubhouse.

Narcissus Garden Club of the Women's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail Association, met recently with Mrs. E. D. Adams, 773 Ponce de Leon place, with Mrs. P. Roberts as co-hostess. Mrs. C. E. Key gave an interesting talk on "The Culture of Peonies." Plans were made for the fall flower show to be held at Mrs. E. D. Adams' in October, the exact date to be announced later.

Stauffer-Steel. Mr. and Mrs. George Albert Stauffer Sr., of College Park, Ga., announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence Kathleen, to Charles F. Steele, also of College Park. The marriage was solemnized Saturday, August 25, in Lanett, Ala.

Grant Park Class. T. E. L. class, Grant Park Baptist Sunday school, meets Thursday evening, August 29, at 7:30 at the church. In addition to the regular business, there will be the election of officers for the coming year. All members are urged to be present and visitors are welcome.

Atlantans Enjoy Sea Island Beach Delta Sigma Pi Plans House Party

Mrs. Paul H. Herndon Jr. and Mrs. Warren Worcester, of this city, are pictured on the sands of Sea Island Beach, where they enjoyed a vacation during this month.

Woodward-Harris Wedding Solemnized in North Carolina

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Aug. 26.—The marriage of Miss Marjorie Lucile Woodward to Clifton Bud Harris, both of College Park, was solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening in the ballroom of the Highland Lakes at Camp Highland Lake. Baskets of white hydrangeas, garlands of English ivy and white pines were used in the decorations. Placed at intervals were white stands topped with baskets of white gladioli, which formed an aisle through which the bride party passed between ribbons borne by Master Bobby McQuarrie, son of Captain and Mrs. C. M. McQuarrie, of Fort Clayton, Panama, and a nephew of the bride, and Master James Brown, son of Captain and Mrs. H. J. Brown, of the United States army, now with G. M. A. at College Park. They were smartly tailored white linen suits.

The vows were spoken before Dr. R. C. Gresham, of Moutrie, Ga. Prior to this a program of wedding music was heard. Mrs. Maurice Quilling, of Dallas, Texas, presided at the piano. Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" was a violin solo was played by Carl Poindecker, and was followed by a vocal solo, "Bridal Dawn," by Martin, rendered by Major W. R. Brewster. Quilling played "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin."

Mary Anne Manassa, daughter of Captain and Mrs. C. D. Woodward, served as flower girl. Her frock of blue and white tulle had the bertha and hem lines accented with narrow tulle ruffles. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of garden flowers.

Mrs. W. C. Palmour, of College Park, her sister's matron of honor, was gowned in pink silk lace. Her bouquet was fashioned of orchid dahlias. Jack Trop, of Atlanta, attended the bridegroom as best man.

The bride, who was married with her father, Colonel John Charles Woodward, who gave her in marriage, was regal in her exquisite robe of hand-made Battenberg lace in train made along close-fitting lines. The high neck in front and decolletage back were becoming to her blond beauty and the sleeves were finished with tight cuffs. This lovely gown was worn by the bride's mother, the late Mrs. Woodward, on her fifteenth wedding anniversary. The bride carried a white prayer book showered with valley lilies.

The bride is the third daughter of Colonel Woodward. After being graduated from Girls' High school in Atlanta, she attended Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Lynchburg, Va., later receiving her degree from Agnes Scott College at Decatur.

Colonel Woodward, one of the south's foremost educators and citizens, is the founder and president of the Georgia Military Academy at College Park, and the founder of Camp Highland Lake. Other sons and daughters include Mrs. W. R. Brewster, Mrs. C. M. McQuarrie, Mrs. W. C. Palmour, Major D. C. Woodward, of G. M. A., and Captain C. D. Woodward, of Camp Highland Lake.

Captain Harris, of G. M. A., is the son of Mrs. J. S. Harris and the late Mr. Harris, of Cedarburg, Ga. Mrs. David Sheldon, of Atlanta, is his sister. He is a brother of J. H. Harris, of Chattanooga, Tenn. He finished at the Chatham High school and later received his degree from Howard College in Birmingham, Ala., where he was captain of both football and basketball teams in his senior year. He was president of the Phi Kappa Alpha chapter there and a member of the Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternity. He is also a member of the Shrine and of the Civilian Club. Captain Harris who is widely popular, was coach at Bowdon State College, at Bowdon, Ga., before going to G. M. A., where he is head football coach.

Supper Follows. Following the ceremony supper was served to members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will motor through western North Carolina on their honeymoon. After September 9 they will be at home at G. M. A. For traveling the bride donned a tailored suit of sheer wool in a light ginger shade. Her blouse of crepe, a becoming and modish hat, hair effect, and other matching accessories were of chili brown.

Among out-of-town guests here for the wedding were:

Miss Orr Is Feted At Series of Parties. Prominent members of the younger set will assemble today at the Piedmont Driving Club for the luncheon to be given by Miss Martha Burnett complementing Miss Dorothy Jane Orr, of Chicago, Ill.; the feted guest of Miss Clara Haverty at her home on Cherokee road. Tomorrow Miss Orr will be honored at the luncheon to be given by Miss Sarah Smith at her home on Eleventh street.

Miss Judy Beers entertains on Thursday evening at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue for Miss Haverty and her guest after which the entire party will attend the dinner-dance at the Capital City Club.

Miss Orr was honored Monday at the luncheon given by Miss Ellen Fleming at the Druid Hills Golf Club and at which time Miss Meredith Turner, of LaGrange, the guest of Miss Mary Malone, shared honors.

Sisterhood To Meet. The executive board of the Aharath Achim Sisterhood will be held Wednesday in Rich's conference room, at 10:30 o'clock.

Visitors Are Honored at Series Of Social Affairs in Decatur

Members of Kappa chapter, Delta Sigma Pi, plan a house party over the Labor Day weekend, at Laprade's fishing camp, at Lake Burton. The members and their dates will motor up Saturday afternoon, August 31, and return Monday afternoon, September 2. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Smith and other married alumni and their wives will be chaperones.

Members of Kappa chapter which is located at the University of Georgia evening school are Elwood Amos, Scott Blackstock, James Brown, Jack Chapman, Albert Clark, Don Clegg, O. B. Cornelius, Charlie Elrod, Luke Gravit, A. D. Gregory, James Griffith, Jimmy Henderson, Bill Jackson, Bob Kinney, Emory Kinard, Leonard Kuyper, Jimmy Lacher, Ed Martin, J. W. Martin, Leon Moyer, Tom North, Francis Oster, Leland Phillips, Carl Pruett, Ike Shelton, Tom Seaford, Charlie Seinfeld, Elmer Trulove, Harry Wells, Lowell White, George Wing, Garnett Wood.

Barbara Guillebeau Is Honor Guest.

Barbara Guillebeau was guest of honor at a party given by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Guillebeau, on August 22, celebrating her eighth birthday. Games and contests were played; prizes won by Hansen Franklin, Margaret Yarbrough, Jane Hendon, Kathryn Peck, Kate Harrington. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out by the decorations. Assisted Mrs. Guillebeau in entertaining. Present were Jo-Nell Albert, Anne Daniel, Bobbie Thompson, Gloria Trice, Hansen Franklin, Kathryn Peck, Margaret Yarbrough, Jane Hendon, Nina Sue Richmond, Kate Harrington, Anne Guillebeau, Barbara Guillebeau, Sue Stry, Williamson, Joe Gary, Herman Hancock, Billy Wright, John Boyd McLaughlin, Allen Bane.

Rainbow Club.

Rainbow Sewing Club meets at the home of Miss Willie Kitchens on Thursday, August 29, at 84 Hoyt street, S. W. Members are requested to be present as prizes will be given to those missing a meeting for the past three months. New officers will be elected. The club met last Thursday with Mrs. B. G. Ward. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. P. D. Dixon. The club will give a picnic Tuesday, August 27, at Mosley park.

Miss Lillian Simpson Weds Mr. Little.

Of interest to a large number of friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lillian Vera Simpson to William Douglas Little, of Atlanta, which took place on Friday afternoon. The marriage was quietly solemnized in the parlors of the North Avenue Presbyterian church in the presence of a few close friends, with Dr. Sam Cartledge officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Richardson Simpson, of Worcester, Ohio, and Mr. Little is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hudson Little, of Sparta, Ga. The bride, an attractive brunette, wore a smart model of Normandy blue crepe, with hat and accessories to match. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of gardenias, roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Jennierae Redding Is Honor Guest.

Miss Jennierae Redding, a bride-elect of September 8, continues to be feted. Mrs. Murray Fritzel and Miss Thelma Cowart entertained on Friday evening at their home on Seminary drive in Decatur. Guests included Misses Stella Bell, Frances Keener, Mary Keener, Mesdames Willard Randolph Christian and Edward Grant.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wingo honored Miss Redding and William Wingo McKinney at dinner at their home on Peachtree way. On Monday evening Miss Redding will be honor guest of the Faithful Workers Sunday school class at the home of Miss June Morgan on Oakview road.

On Saturday Misses Carrie Bennett and Mary Keener will be hostesses at a luncheon at the Tavern tea room honoring Miss Redding. Guests will include Misses Dorothy Couch, Frances Keener, Stella Bell, Ouida Townley, Thelma Cowart, Martha Lee Redding, of LaGrange, and Mesdames Edling, Thelma Cowart, Willard R. Christian and James F. Redding, mother of the honoree.

COACH

A DARING PURSE OF A SUPPLE MELLOW-TONED NATURAL SADDLE LEATHER WITH COACH WHIP HANDLE... FROM LEWIS.

Exclusive at Rich's

With every element of originality and elegance which sophisticated women invariably associate with the accessories they desire to possess, Lewis bags are one of the many exclusive fashions always at Rich's—$15.00.

NAT LEWIS BAGS STREET FLOOR

Models in Tea Room, 12 to 2

TUESDAY IS FASHION DAY AT RICH'S

THE GUMPS—A THOUSAND TIMES NO

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—GOING ON A LONG JOURNEY

MOON MULLINS—MAMIE'S NO SCATTERBRAIN

DICK TRACY—Sympathizer

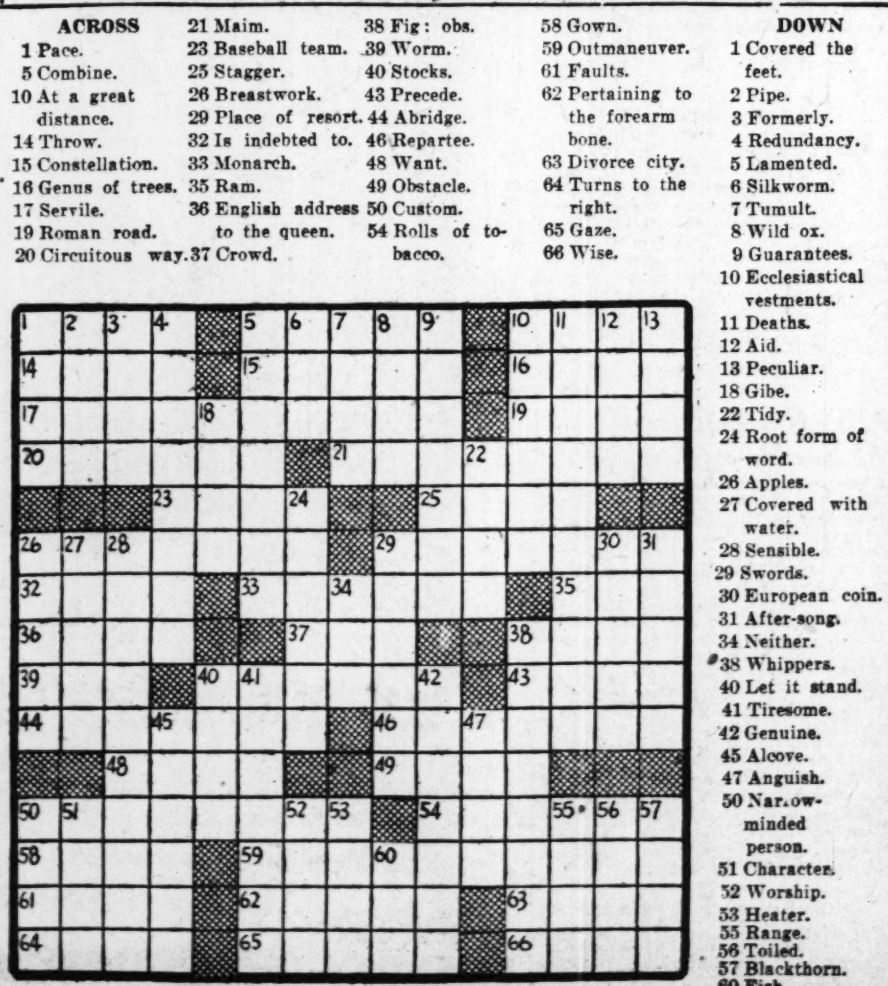

SMITTY—A TOUCHING SCENE

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—

Constitution's Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

FEATHER IN HER HAT

By Julie Anne Moore

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Ann Rogers and Rita Manley, back in Annville from college, get civil service jobs in Washington. Rita knows Bill Hudson, correspondent there for a New York paper. He is friend of Mollie Winslow, special writer on the Globe, with whom the girls are to stay temporarily. Mollie gets a mysterious phone message that Fuhrman Wells, Senator Runnaker's secretary, is being murdered in the Lincoln Memorial's reflecting pool, but he is at her office door when she hangs up. The same voice phones that Runnaker's son, Deane, is a murder victim in the house of representatives, and later that the senator has jumped from the Washington monument. The night she arrives Ann meets Lee Monday, Bill's friend, a wealthy young aristocrat, who sends a blind flight from Los Angeles. No one is in Mollie's apartment when she returns from the airport and Bill seems about to kiss her, then abruptly says good night. Lee comes, expecting to see Bill. Both are so tired they fall asleep sitting on a couch. When Lee wakes he does not rouse Ann. He sends ecchids. Carl Belmer, Department of Justice agent, is attracted by Rita and Runnaker's daughter, Selma, is jealous. At Selma's request the senator discharges Wells. At a dinner given by Selma a phone call states that Wells is dead in the reflecting pool. The guests and Wells himself there but follow an explosion of a bomb he is dead in the pool, with wire twisted about his neck. Police detect Wells committed suicide. Lee takes Ann up in a plane and surprises her by flying to Elmhurst.

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT XVIII.

For half an hour they sat in the poorly lighted room, staring at unseen objects, thinking thoughts which, unknown to them both, centered on the same young man. . . . Entering the lobby downstairs, Ann had encountered Lee's day nurse just going off duty and the nurse had told her, "There's a consultation on in Mr. Monday's room. Two specialists from John Hopkins. They haven't been able to get complete articulation and they're beginning to worry about a permanent limp. But—" with a wink. "So you don't know anything about it." . . . It was that while Lee's mother, tapped her chin and considered how she might definitely blast her son's infatuation for a gold-digger, government clerk, the little government clerk sat some 10 feet away deeply troubled by the thought that Lee might carry a reminder of their mountain crash to the end of his life. Mrs. Monday cleared her throat again. The silence and the girl's sorrowful expression were beginning to wear on her nerves. . . . Now Ann looked up and met the older woman's gaze, and smiled. Mrs. Monday smiled back at her, and said quietly, "Nothing, my dear, is ever quite so tragic as it may seem. You are much too young and lovely to worry over something you can't do anything about." Ann colored a little. Had her face reflected her thoughts so plainly? "You are very kind," she said. Then, "This isn't a very cheerful room to wait in, is it?" "A morgue!" Mrs. Monday said shortly. "They might at least light the place up and provide some decent reading matter." She gestured to the door.

AUNT HET

Mrs. Monday rose. Ann rose. "I hope," said the older woman, "haven't bored you with my troubles." She came across the room and held out her hand. "You're a very sensible girl and I only wish—my dear—you're ill." She said, insisted she was Ann's arms. "Why didn't you tell me?" Ann's face was crimson and her throat and parted lips were dry and burning. She shook her head, firmly. "No, no." She said at last. "The room's too close, I think." She moved toward the door, Mrs. Monday walking at her side, watching her, anxiously. In the corridor they halted. Lee's room was to the right, the stairs and elevator to the left. Ann's face was a study of indecision as she stood there. When she spoke, her voice was low and husky. "Are you Lee's mother?" The older woman's eyes widened, but after a moment, she said, "Yes, I am Lee's mother. You are a friend of his?" Ann did not answer the question. "Will you give him this, please?" Staring, Mrs. Monday held up an open palm. "And tell him I'm sorry." She was racing down the stairs before Lee Monday's mother realized that the tiny object in her hand was a rather lovely engagement ring. That night Ann told Rita she thought they had imposed upon Mollie much too long. Rita balked. Mollie, she said, insisted she wanted them there, why move? . . . It was the next morning that Rita discovered Ann had not slept in her bed. There was a note propped up against the telephone. Mollie found it there and read it aloud: "Please tell anyone who asks for me I have gone away for an indefinite stay. And don't be too hard on me for running off. Perhaps I'll be able to explain some day. Ann."

SALLY'S SALLIES

WE LEGISLATORS HAVE TO KEEP MAKING LAWS, MY DEAR.

Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today—there may be a law against it by then.

JUST NUTS

I'M TERRIBLY WORRIED—I TOLD BILL IN MY LAST LETTER TO FORGET THAT I HAD TOLD HIM I DIDN'T MEAN TO RECONSIDER NOT TO CHANGE MY MIND AND HE SEEMS TO HAVE MISUNDERSTOOD ME!

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle.

PERIMETER RACER
EXCITABLE AGAPE
RETRICULES METIC
ERI NIPS ECU
LASSO WIDE AGUR
ABET GENERATOR
URN HANG IBERIS
DASTARD EDENIZE
SCARED ROOD CID
TATIONMENT DANG
ADIT NUTS REB
DACTASTI REB
AONER AREOLATED
PRYNA TEMPERATE
TALES ESSENTIAL

ward some old magazines on the table.

"Do you read?"

Did she read? What an odd question.

"Why, yes," she said. "As much as the average. I suppose."

"The average girl doesn't read."

Mrs. Monday almost snarled. "You haven't."

"I suppose, come across the book, 'Girls in Mink'?"

The book had been a best-seller for all of two months, and Ann had read it after her return to Washington.

"Yes," she said. "I thought it very good, but a good deal over-rated. The author apparently wanted to convey the idea that Miriam was typical of her generation."

"You think she was not?"

Ann smiled. "Miriam was about my age. I think of all the girls I know. I can think of but one who would put material considerations before love. Miriam was what they are now calling a gold-digger. She had no regard for convention, or even simple decency. To her marriage was merely a means to an end. And when she was finally married the man who knew nothing of her past, it was his money and his social prestige that she wanted. . . . My generation isn't like that. No more than yours is."

"I'm afraid," said Mrs. Monday, "you do not know your generation. You do ever lived in New York?"

"No. I grew up in a small town. I've never lived in any city but Washington—and only a short time here."

"I guessed as much. Anyone can look at you and see that you haven't been contaminated by contact with unwholesome influences. But when you speak for your generation, my child, you unintentionally pretend a knowledge you could not possibly possess. 'Girls in Mink' was admirably true to life and your Miriam was, I regret to say, the counterpart of an alarming number of girls your age. . . . You think perhaps I am too far removed from your age to know, but I have just come from California to deal with a girl of Miriam's type—a gold-digger, as you say—a shrewd, scheming little animal who has set her head on marrying my son and has succeeded in persuading him that he is in love with her."

Ann's voice was earnestly sympathetic, yet dubious. "But mightn't you be wrong—about this girl?"

She doesn't admit that she is trying to work your son for his money, of course?"

Mrs. Monday shrugged, impatiently. "Naturally not—though I haven't talked with her. I hope to see her within the next 24 hours and make her a very generous offer."

"An offer?" Ann said, puzzled.

"That's what she wants, isn't it?"

Ann gripped the sides of the chair and gazed down at her extended toes. "I don't think you're being quite fair," she said.

A hospital orderly looked in the door.

Mrs. Monday rose. Ann rose. "I hope," said the older woman, "haven't bored you with my troubles."

She came across the room and held out her hand. "You're a very sensible girl and I only wish—my dear—you're ill."

She said, insisted she was Ann's arms. "Why didn't you tell me?"

Ann's face was crimson and her throat and parted lips were dry and burning. She shook her head, firmly. "No, no."

She said at last. "The room's too close, I think."

She moved toward the door, Mrs. Monday walking at her side, watching her, anxiously.

In the corridor they halted. Lee's room was to the right, the stairs and elevator to the left. Ann's face was a study of indecision as she stood there. When she spoke, her voice was low and husky.

"Are you Lee's mother?"

The older woman's eyes widened, but after a moment, she said, "Yes, I am Lee's mother. You are a friend of his?"

Ann did not answer the question.

"Will you give him this, please?"

Staring, Mrs. Monday held up an open palm.

"And tell him I'm sorry."

She was racing down the stairs before Lee Monday's mother realized that the tiny object in her hand was a rather lovely engagement ring.

That night Ann told Rita she thought they had imposed upon Mollie much too long. Rita balked. Mollie, she said, insisted she wanted them there, why move?

. . . It was the next morning that Rita discovered Ann had not slept in her bed. There was a note propped up against the telephone. Mollie found it there and read it aloud:

"Please tell anyone who asks for me I have gone away for an indefinite stay. And don't be too hard on me for running off. Perhaps I'll be able to explain some day. Ann."

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Ann.

Two hours later Rita found Ann in her usual place at the census office, but she would not discuss what she had done. "If our friendship means anything," she said, "let me work this thing out alone, and don't please, bring me messages from anyone."

Though completely baffled, Rita agreed to respect her wishes. "But —if you're running away from Lee, you're a little fool, Ann."

Lee left with his mother for California on Thanksgiving day. A week later Ann reappeared at the apartment in the early evening to ask if the prodigal daughter might rejoin the family.

She had chosen an unfortunate moment to return, for she found not only Rita and Mollie there, but also

Selma and Earl and Bill Hudson.

They all gave her a noisy welcome and teased her unmercifully for her

"attack of temperment," as Bill called it. But through all the banter there was an undertone of something unpleasant, some uneasiness. It was Mollie who finally told her.

"The police have reopened their investigation into Fuhrman Wells' death. Ann. It looks as if one of our little family must have gone in for murder."

It developed that Mollie herself was responsible for the reopening of the police in Fuhrman Wells' death.

She had been in New York when she read the suicide stories and had promptly decided that somewhere, somehow, the processes of justice had gone askew.

On the face of the evidence reported in the newspapers, the police were justified in reopening the case. But nothing of the telephone call she had received, either they would have called her back to Washington immediately.

Not having heard about that call, they had missed the most important piece of testimony in the whole case. When she had received the call falsely reporting Fuhrman had been murdered,

Fuhrman was standing directly behind her and could not, therefore, have been killed.

Mollie had almost decided to go back to Washington at once, but while she debated the wisdom of this, Lee and Ann had disappeared on their flight from Elmhurst and it was not until two weeks after her return to the capital that she finally walked into police headquarters, asked for a high police officer she had known for several years, and told him her story. When she had finished, the officer said:

"We'll have to look around for an accomplice."

Mollie was amused. "You still think

Fuhrman killed himself?"

"If I'd seen it, I couldn't be any surer, Miss Winslow. . . . There's one thing you don't know. We discovered a diary. . . . But an accomplice is the originally to wipe out the entire Runnaker family. Apparently he changed his mind and decided to kill himself to throw suspicion on the senator.

If you know Wells didn't make that first phone call, then somebody else is involved and we'd like to know who it is. But an accomplice is the most you can hope for. Beyond the shadow of a doubt, Wells ended his own life.

I'll appreciate it if you will get in touch with me."

Continued Tomorrow.

(Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

The DEBUNKER

By John Harvey Farley, Ph.D.

YEAST

IS NOT MANUFACTURED

IT IS GROWN

YEAST IS NOT THE PRODUCT OF A MANUFACTURING PROCESS. IT IS A PLANT.

Thousands of tiny yeast plants are required to make a small piece of yeast. An ordinary yeast cake, as sold at stores, is made of at least 100,000,000,000 yeast plants.

(Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

THE OARFISH.

In writing to David Star Jordan, famous scientist, California man set down these words about the finding of a "sea serpent":

Study of the creature showed that it was an oarfish, a rare "citizen of the ocean." From time to time, members of the tribe have been washed to the shores of lands bordering both the Pacific and Atlantic, but few per-

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Dean, Miss Marion Dean and Mary Spalding Dean return today from New York city where they spent several days at the Waldorf-Astoria. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Dean, Miss Dorothy Dean and Ewing Dean Jr.

Mrs. Arthur S. Wheeler, who has spent the summer at her North Carolina home, will return to Atlanta on Sunday. Dr. Wheeler, who has been ill for several weeks, is convalescing and will return to Atlanta on October 1.

Mrs. John M. Sloan is at Green Briar White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Miss Betty Roberts spent the weekend in Macon, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Randolph McCarty.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Douglas Mayson, of Buford, announce the birth of a son, Joseph Douglas Jr., on August 23 at Emory University hospital. Mrs. Mayson is the former Miss Lucille Jordan, of Atlanta and Birmingham.

Mrs. William H. Mills has returned from Clayton, Ga., where she was the weekend guest of Mrs. Verdery R. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Riley, with their daughter, Miss Helen Burnett Riley, and their son, Beverly Riley, of Sumter, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gaffney at their home on Elmwood drive.

Misses Wilma and Ruth Martin, Mrs. J. Kennedy Martin have returned from Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Jack Carlton, of Athens; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Pate, of Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Nachman, of Montgomery, Ala.; Miss Mildred Bimler, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. A. R. Cowser, of Dallas, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lutz, of Washington, D. C.; Rev. M. J. Sweet, of Elton, college, N. C.; and W. G. Givard, of Mitchell, Ga., are at the Georgian Terrace.

H. Fletcher Jones is vacationing at the Cavalier hotel and Beach Club at Virginia Beach, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Finley are at the Haddon Hall hotel at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner E. Smith are spending several days at Signal Mountain Inn, at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. George K. Selden is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter F. Roberts, in Utica, N. Y., and they will journey to New York city today to meet Miss Caroline Selden and Kearsley Selden Jr., who will return from a North Cape cruise on the steamer Majestic, which docks in the metropolis today.

Mrs. Charlotte Brown, of Nashville and Columbia, Tenn., has returned to Columbia after visiting Miss Arline Harris at her home on Stillwood drive.

Mrs. George McCarty Jr., Mrs. Brooks Morgan and Mrs. Harry Toulmin, of Dayton, Ohio, motored to Hendersonville and Asheville for the weekend. Returning home Monday they were accompanied by Mrs. Toulmin's daughter, Miss Aubrey Toulmin, who has been in camp near Hendersonville, and by Mrs. Bessie Blythe, of Miami. Mrs. Blythe will visit friends in Atlanta for a few days, and afterward will join her mother, Mrs. O. H. Jones, and Mrs. Thomas Lumpkin, at Rosseragon, near Asheville, for the first part of September.

Mrs. R. B. Godley is at the Vanderbilt hotel in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Sheridan and Miss Sue Martin left Sunday to motor to Chattanooga and Asheville, N. C., and will later join a house party at Linville Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Pettys have returned from Sea Island Beach and St. Simon's Island.

Ward Simms and George McKee are spending two weeks at the Breakers hotel at Daytona Beach, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winslow have returned from Asheville after a visit with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth T. Winslow, who is spending the summer at Grove Park Inn. They leave today for Richmond to attend the national convention of the Chi Phi fraternity.

Misses Betty and Kathryn Benefield have returned from Norfolk, Va., and Winston-Salem, N. C., where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hiatt and children, of Vicksburg, Miss., are visiting William Hiatt on Marietta road.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boles Johnston, of Columbia, S. C., formerly of Atlanta, announce the birth of a son on Friday, August 23, at Wesley Memorial hospital, who has been named Richard Boles Jr. Mrs. Johnston is the former Miss Jane Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Dillon, of this city. The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Johnston, also of Atlanta.

Miss Elizabeth Carson has returned from Savannah, where she visited her grandmother, Mrs. Florence Gordon Cassels, and her aunt, Mrs. T. B. Kreeger. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Thomas Gordon Cassels, of New York, who was also visiting in Savannah, and who was the guest of Miss Carson for several days at her home on The Prado in Ansley Park. Miss Carson is spending this week in Chattanooga with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Carson, and in Bristol, Tenn., with friends.

Yash R. Wilder and daughters, Ruth and Dorothy Wilder, of Norman Park, Ga., spent the week-end with Mrs. D. R. Wilder at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Mrs. D. R. Wilder has returned from a trip to Preston Springs in Ontario, Canada, and to Battle Creek, Mich., where she spent the past five weeks.

Mrs. L. C. Clay is recovering at St. Joseph hospital following an operation on Monday.

Miss Wilhelmina Trautwein has returned from a visit to her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harbe Gampher and Mr. and Mrs. Jeb Springer, in Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougald spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McConigal at their summer home at Highlands, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Payne have returned to their home in Birmingham, Ala., after a short visit to Mrs. R. G. Payne at 968 Allene avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Payne were among the platoon guests attending the wedding of the former Miss Kathryn Reed and Harold Lloyd.

Miss Louise Trotti and her father, Hugh H. Trotti, have returned from a two-week trip to Washington, D. C., and New York city.

Miss Rosalind Lunceford is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Ogburn at their home in Westchester county, New York.

Miss Catherine McCauley is visiting Misses Harriett and Mary Jean Ivey at their cottage at Sea Island.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Post are vacationing at the Breakers hotel at Virginia Beach, Va.

Mrs. W. R. Fuller, of Washington, D. C., and her daughter, Morgan Fuller, are visiting Mrs. Fuller's mother, Mrs. A. P. Morgan, 1143 Lee street. The visitors plan to spend two or three weeks in the city.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Mobley Sheppard, Mrs. Martha Boucher and Mrs. Myrtle Carroll. Present were a few friends of the hostess and honoree.

East Lake Dance Is Well Attended

The weekly dinner-dance at East Lake Country Club was enjoyed by several hundred members and their visiting friends last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Floyd entertained Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Henderson, of Tallahassee, Fla., dined with Evans Suff.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Paige, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Shepard, of Griffin, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Scharff, of Macon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Enos Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. John Thigpen formed a party.

Dining together were Miss Mary Garland, Lieutenant J. C. Selser and Lieutenant G. C. Nye.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Fox, Mrs. Downing Brown and C. S. Mastin formed a party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taze were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McKinney.

Others dining together were Mrs. Eva Hoffman, S. V. Landers, Miss Ed Brown, Grant, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shearin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hugh Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Spangles.

Others dining together were Mrs. Frank Drake entertained at a party Saturday evening at the dinner-dance at the Deird Hills Golf Club honoring Miss Hoffman and Mr. Methvin, and assembling a limited group of friends of the honor guests.

McKellar-Strickland. Miss Theodosia Hamilton McKellar, of Atlanta, was married to Clarence Strickland, formerly of Savannah, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Daniels McKellar, Saturday, August 24.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Charles W. Daniels, former pastor of First Baptist church of Atlanta, in the presence of the families and a few close friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Clifford Ansell Strickland was best man.

The couple left for a wedding trip in North Carolina, after which they will reside in Savannah.

Miss Penn Honored. Miss Velma Penn, whose marriage to J. Fox Rivers will take place Saturday, August 31, was honored recently at a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. J. H. Rivers and Mrs. Joe Hill Smith, at the home of Mrs. Rivers in Almond Park.

The guests were Mesdames Raymond Patten, F. R. Mackey, J. P. Stephens, R. S. Penn, Fred Herren, E. T. Wright, T. A. Herren, Harold Holder, C. M. Dempsey, U. L. Carmichael, Z. E. McMichen, Marvin Eidsen, R. E. Embrey, J. A. Hendrix, Misses Katherine Rowe, Roscoe Michen, Katherine Bartow and Sarah Herren.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Mobley Sheppard, Mrs. Martha Boucher and Mrs. Myrtle Carroll. Present were a few friends of the hostess and honoree.

Buffet Supper Given For Paul De Give. Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. De Give entertained Saturday at a buffet supper at the home on Peachtree Circle in honor of the son, Paul De Give, of New York, who is visiting his parents. Supper was served in the garden, and afterward the guests attended the dinner-dance on the terrace of the Piedmont Driving Club.

A trio of attractive visiting belles numbered among special guests were Misses Mildred Kimball, of Chattanooga; Alice Berry, of Nashville, and Barbara Ransom, who is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ransom, at their home in Highlands, N. C., assisting in entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wellborn, of Chattanooga, guests of Mrs. De Give and Larry De Give.

Before the new order went into effect, Johnson had tried vainly to get enough workers to take the 45,000 jobs available.

ITALIAN WATERSPOUT KILLS 6 AND INJURES 50 GENOA, Italy, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Rescue squadrons searched the harbor today for victims of last night's waterspout which killed six persons and injured at least 50 others.

A survey indicated damage to smaller shipping vessels, and the havoc caused by the huge inrush of water to the docks probably would run into the millions. The larger vessels anchored in the harbor suffered relatively slight damage.

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

Portrait of Lovely Atlanta Belle

The above likeness of Miss Marjorie Armstrong is a copy of the oil portrait by Felix Pfeiffer, of Springfield, Mass., a well-known Polish artist. Miss Armstrong, a popular member of the junior class at the North Avenue Presbyterian school, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Armstrong, and returns today from Camp Tate, where she spent the summer. Miss Armstrong posed for Mr. Pfeiffer on the beach of Lake Sequoyah at the Tate Mountain Estates as the sun cast shadows through the trees, as shown in the picture. The latter also spent the summer at the camp, where he completed a series of illustrations for the book, "Teaching and Practice of Intermediate Aquatics," by Professor Tom Curreton, of Springfield College, who acted as swimming instructor at the camp.

How Many Things Do You Know That Are Not So? Are bats blind? Can cats see in the dark? What are cork legs made of? Do drowning persons rise to the surface three times? Is there a glass snake? Are tin cups made of tin? Is the kilt the national dress of Scotland? These and many other popular fallacies accepted as fact are discussed in "The Constitution's Washington Bureau's leaflet, FACTS AND FANCY, which you can get by sending a nickel with the coupon below:

CLIP COUPON HERE

Dept. 250, Washington Bureau, The Atlanta Constitution, 1013 Thirteenth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Here is my nickel (carefully wrapped). Send me the leaflet, FACTS AND FANCY.

Name
Street and No.
City State

I am a reader of The Atlanta Constitution.

NEW YORK JOBLESS SEEK WPA WORK

"Work or Go to Jail" Policy Brings Amazing Results, Officials Claim.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—New York's "work or go to jail" policy for relief recipients produced what officials called "amazing" results in its first test today.

Applicants were reported by observers to be taking WPA jobs at the rate of one a minute in some offices and General Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, had little doubt but that the week's quota of 20,000 jobs would be filled.

No disturbances were reported despite threats voiced by unemployed leaders last week that their men would go to jail in conscientious protest against "forced labor."

Before the new order went into effect, Johnson had tried vainly to get enough workers to take the 45,000 jobs available.

ITALIAN WATERSPOUT KILLS 6 AND INJURES 50 GENOA, Italy, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Rescue squadrons searched the harbor today for victims of last night's waterspout which killed six persons and injured at least 50 others.

A survey indicated damage to smaller shipping vessels, and the havoc caused by the huge inrush of water to the docks probably would run into the millions. The larger vessels anchored in the harbor suffered relatively slight damage.

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can she hide her jealousy?

Friendly Counsel

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD
Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Four names held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: I have only been married six months but already trouble is hatching. The first two months we lived at my mother's home. Then we moved to my husband's home. I became ill soon after and came back to my family to recuperate. Our parents do not need our financial support and so it is not necessary for us to live with either family. It is all important for us to get out to ourselves but my husband prefers to stay with his family. I can't get along with his sister and nobody else can so it is foolish for me to go back there. My husband is terribly jealous. If I speak to an old friend he flies into a rage and I believe that is the main reason he wants to park me with his folks. Now Miss Chatfield, before we get into a real quarrel I want to adjust this matter and I am convinced that the only way to do it is to get off by ourselves. Am I right? What is the best way to convince my husband?

Answer: Stand your ground, hold out for a separate establishment, and don't permit yourself to be hustled into a living arrangement that you have already found distasteful. Not a ghost of a chance that you will be able to live peacefully with your husband in a home where there is a sister to whom you are antagonistic. She got there first and she will be constantly reminding you of this in one way or another.

Try to make him understand that he cannot be happy if you are not and, having sampled life with his family, you are convinced that you cannot live with them amicably. Try to reason with him about the foolishness of his being jealous, show him that it only makes you both miserable. Explain to him that no man can police his wife nor depute his family to police her, that the essential element in affection is faith and he must have faith in you. Jealousy is an incurable disease but a man can learn to exercise some control over it. His wife can help him and when she realizes that he is suffering mental anguish every time he experiences a pang of jealousy, she will do all in her power to allay it. Sometimes a laugh is good, sometimes a kiss, sometimes a scolding.

You have a hard job ahead of you, for there are few subjects about which young husbands are so stubborn as this one of dumping their wives in the midst of the den in which they were reared. The average young husband argues this way: I know my family. They are the best folks in the world. They love me and are prepared to love my wife. She will have some body with her when I am away from home and I will never have to worry about her being lonely. It is much cheaper to run one establishment than two. The money we save by living with my family is velvet. Why shouldn't she be willing to co-operate with me, do without a home of her own until we get on our feet? All of which sounds reasonable enough, yet it is fallacious argument all the way through. It doesn't take into account the cross currents of human nature.

His family may be all he thinks them. They may be ready to take his wife into their arms, to treat her like a daughter. His wife may be all he thinks and go into that home resolved to be a model in-law. He can certainly save money by contributing to one household rather than maintaining one outright but, (and here's the rub), suppose the daughter-in-law is jealous of her husband's mother or sister, suppose she has been reared in a home where everything was done differently from the way it is done in the new home, can

FEDERAL RESERVE LEAD
DROP IN BOND MARKETMain Body of Corporate Offerings Move Listlessly Downward.

Daily Bond Averages.

	1935	1934	1933	1932	1931	1930	1929	1928	1927	1926	1925	1924	1923	1922	1921	1920	1919	1918	1917	1916	1915	1914	1913	1912	1911	1910	1909	1908	1907	1906	1905	1904	1903	1902	1901	1900	1899	1898	1897	1896	1895	1894	1893	1892	1891	1890	1889	1888	1887	1886	1885	1884	1883	1882	1881	1880	1879	1878	1877	1876	1875	1874	1873	1872	1871	1870	1869	1868	1867	1866	1865	1864	1863	1862	1861	1860	1859	1858	1857	1856	1855	1854	1853	1852	1851	1850	1849	1848	1847	1846	1845	1844	1843	1842	1841	1840	1839	1838	1837	1836	1835	1834	1833	1832	1831	1830	1829	1828	1827	1826	1825	1824	1823	1822	1821	1820	1819	1818	1817	1816	1815	1814	1813	1812	1811	1810	1809	1808	1807	1806	1805	1804	1803	1802	1801	1800	1799	1798	1797	1796	1795	1794	1793	1792	1791	1790	1789	1788	1787	1786	1785	1784	1783	1782	1781	1780	1779	1778	1777	1776	1775	1774	1773	1772	1771	1770	1769	1768	1767	1766	1765	1764	1763	1762	1761	1760	1759	1758	1757	1756	1755	1754	1753	1752	1751	1750	1749	1748	1747	1746	1745	1744	1743	1742	1741	1740	1739	1738	1737	1736	1735	1734	1733	1732	1731	1730	1729	1728	1727	1726	1725	1724	1723	1722	1721	1720	1719	1718	1717	1716	1715	1714	1713	1712	1711	1710	1709	1708	1707	1706	1705	1704	1703	1702	1701	1700	1699	1698	1697	1696	1695	1694	1693	1692	1691	1690	1689	1688	1687	1686	1685	1684	1683	1682	1681	1680	1679	1678	1677	1676	1675	1674	1673	1672	1671	1670	1669	1668	1667	1666	1665	1664	1663	1662	1661	1660	1659	1658	1657	1656	1655	1654	1653	1652	1651	1650	1649	1648	1647	1646	1645	1644	1643	1642	1641	1640	1639	1638	1637	1636	1635	1634	1633	1632	1631	1630	1629	1628	1627	1626	1625	1624	1623	1622	1621	1620	1619	1618	1617	1616	1615	1614	1613	1612	1611	1610	1609	1608	1607	1606	1605	1604	1603	1602	1601	1600	1599	1598	1597	1596	1595	1594	1593	1592	1591	1590	1589	1588	1587	1586	1585	1584	1583	1582	1581	1580	1579	1578	1577	1576	1575	1574	1573	1572	1571	1570	1569	1568	1567	1566	1565	1564	1563	1562	1561	1560	1559	1558	1557	1556	1555	1554	1553	1552	1551	1550	1549	1548	1547	1546	1545	1544	1543	1542	1541	1540	1539	1538	1537	1536	1535	1534	1533	1532	1531	1530	1529	1528	1527	1526	1525	1524	1523	1522	1521	1520	1519	1518	1517	1516	1515	1514	1513	1512	1511	1510	1509	1508	1507	1506	1505	1504	1503	1502	1501	1500	1499	1498	1497	1496	1495	1494	1493	1492	1491	1490	1489	1488	1487	1486	1485	1484	1483	1482	1481	1480	1479	1478	1477	1476	1475	1474	1473	1472	1471	1470	1469	1468	1467	1466	1465	1464	1463	1462	1461	1460	1459	1458	1457	1456	1455	1454	1453	1452	1451	1450	1449	1448	1447	1446	1445	1444	1443	1442	1441	1440	1439	1438	1437	1436	1435	1434	1433	1432	1431	1430	1429	1428	1427	1426	1425	1424	1423	1422	1421	1420	1419	1418	1417	1416	1415	1414	1413	1412	1411	1410	1409	1408	1407	1406	1405	1404	1403	1402	1401	1400	1399	1398	1397	1396	1395	1394	1393	1392	1391	1390	1389	1388	1387	1386	1385	1384	1383	1382	1381	1380	1379	1378	1377	1376	1375	1374	1373	1372	1371	1370	1369	1368	1367	1366	1365	1364	1363	1362	1361	1360	1359	1358	1357	1356	1355	1354	1353	1352	1351	1350	1349	1348	1347	1346	1345	1344	1343	1342	1341	1340	1339	1338	1337	1336	1335	1334	1333	1332	1331	1330	1329	1328	1327	1326	1325	1324	1323	1322	1321	1320	1319	1318	1317	1316	1315	1314	1313	1312	1311	1310	1309	1308	1307	1306	1305	1304	1303	1302	1301	1300	1299	1298	1297	1296	1295	1294	1293	1292	1291	1290	1289	1288	1287	1286	1285	1284	1283	1282	1281	1280	1279	1278	1277	1276	1275	1274	1273	1272	1271	1270	1269	1268	1267	1266	1265	1264	1263	1262	1261	1260	1259	1258	1257	1256	1255	1254	1253	1252	1251	1250	1249	1248	1247	1246	1245	1244	1243	1242	1241	1240	1239	1238	1237	1236	1235	1234	1233	1232	1231	1230	1229	1228	1227	1226	1225	1224	1223	1222	1221	1220	1219	1218	1217	1216	1215	1214	1213	1212	1211	1210	1209	1208	1207	1206	1205	1204	1203	1202	1201	1200	1199	1198	1197	1196	1195	1194	1193	1192	1191	1190	1189	1188	1187	1186	1185	1184	1183	1182	1181	1180	1179	1178	1177	1176	1175	1174	1173	1172	1171	1170	1169	1168	1167	1166	1165	1164	1163	1162	1161	1160	1159	1158	1157	1156	1155	1154	1153	1152	1151	1150	1149	1148	1147	1146	1145	1144	1143	1142	1141	1140	1139	1138	1137	1136	1135	1134	1133	1132	1131	1130	1129	1128	1127	1126	1125	1124	1123	1122	1121	1120	1119	1118	1117	1116	1115	1114	1113	1112	1111	1110	1109	1108	1107	1106	1105	1104	1103	1102	1101	1100	1099	1098	1097	1096	1095	1094	1093	1092	1091	1090	1089	1088	1087	1086	1085	1084	1083	1082	1081	1080	1079	1078	1077	1076	1075	1074	1073	1072	1071	1070	1069	1068	1067	1066	1065	1064	1063	1062	1061	1060	1059	1058	1057	1056	1055	1054	1053	1052	1051	1050	1049	1048	1047	1046	1045	1044	1043	1042	1041	1040	1039	1038	1037	1036	1035	1034	1033	1032	1031	1030	1029	1028	1027	1026	1025	1024	1023	1022	1021	1020	1019	1018	1017	1016	1015	1014	1013	1012	1011	1010	1009	1008	1007	1006	1005	1004	1003	1002	1001	1000	999	998	997	996	995	994	993	992	991	990	989	988	987	986	985	984	983	982	981	980	979	978	977	976	975	974	973	972	971	970	969	968	967	966	965	964	963	962	961	960	959	958	957	956	955	954	953	952	951	950	949	948	947	946	945	944	943	942	941	940	939	938	937	936	935	934	933	932	931	930	929	928	927	926	925	924	923	922	921	920	919	918	917	916	915	914	913	912	911	910	909	908	907	906	905	904	903	902	901	900	899	898	897	896	895	894	893	892	891	890	889	888	887	886	885	884	883	882	881	880	879	878	877	876	875	874	873	872	871	870	869	868	867	866	865	864	863	862	861	860	859	858	857	856	855	854	853	852	851	850	849	848	847	846	845	844	843	842	841	840	839	838	837	836	835	834	833	832	831	830	829	828	827	826	825	824	823	822	821	820	819	818	817	816	815	814	813	812	811	810	809	808	807	806	805	804	803	802	801	800	799	798	797	796	795	794	793	792	791	790	789	788	787	786	785	784	783	782	781	780	779	778	777	776	775	774	773	772	771	770	769	768	767	766	765	764	763	762	761	760	759	758	757	756	755	754	753	752	751	750	749	748	747	746	745	744	743	742	741	740	739	738	737	736	735	734	733	732	731	730	729	728	727	726	725	724	723	722	721	720	719	718	717	716	715	714	713	712	711	710	709	708	707	706	705	704	703	702	701	700	699	698	697	696	695	694	693	692	691	690	689	688	687	686	685	684	683	682	681	680	679	678	677	676	675	674	673	672	671	670	669	668	667	666	665	664	663	662	661	660	659	658	657	656	655	654	653	652	651	650	649	648	647	646	645	644	643	642	641	640	639	638	637	636	635	634	633	632	631	630	629	628	627	626	625	624	623	622	621	620	619	618	617	616	615	614	613	612	611	610	609	608	607	606	605	604	603	602	601	600	599	598	597	596	595	594	593	592	591	590	589	588	587	586	585	584	583	582	581	580	579	578	577	576	575	574	573	572	571	570	569	568	567	566	565	564	563	562	561	560	559	558	557	556	555	554	553	552	551	550	549	548	547	546	545	544	543	542	541	540	539	538	537	536
--	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----

YEAR'S AAA CARRYOVER SET AT $152,466,086

Steps Taken To Seek Dismissal of 1,332 Processing Tax Suits.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(P)—Settling up operations for the last financial year, the AAA today reported it has carried over a $152,466,086 balance into the new fiscal period which began July 1, 1935.

Despite difficulties arising on Capitol Hill over cotton and wheat loans, the farm administration moved along steadily toward putting into effect changes provided in the recently enacted AAA amendment.

Steps were being taken today to seek dismissal of 1,332 processing tax suits which had tied up in the courts many millions of dollars.

Michell Igoe, district attorney at Chicago who conferred with Attorney General Cummings today, said he expected to ask dismissal of the 18 packing house suits in Chicago "within a week." The Chicago packers shipped millions of monthly treasury income when they obtained a temporary restraining order against processing taxes.

500 Injunctions Granted.

More than 500 injunctions have been granted to stop the AAA collection of processing taxes. United States attorneys throughout the country were preparing to seek their dismissal.

Total expenditures for the Farm Administration in the year ended June 30, 1935, were $807,686,134 and funds available during the period were $990,334,220.

The AAA rental and benefit payments to farmers totaled $563,428,812, divided as follows: Cotton, $116,195,930; wheat, $98,225,175; tobacco, $28,767,914; corn-hog, $302,407,647; and sugar, $17,884,145.

Last year's drought cost the AAA $148,520,810. This sum included $111,540,027 for purchase of cattle; $11,486,937 for disease eradication; $7,109,879 for sheep and goats; $17,740,661 for conservation of seeds and $3,314 for the feed and forage conservation program.

$1,426,470 for Hogs.

In removal of surplus, the AAA spent $1,426,470 for hogs; $1,087,744 for wheat; $9,037,240 for dairy products; $365,536 for sugar and $655,008 for peanuts; a total of $12,501,001.

Expenditures for trust fund operations—the cotton tax exemption certificates and a rice trust fund under a marketing agreement—were $13,704,070.

Administrative expenses were $38,583,142; tax refunds totaled $30,292,782; and disbursement expenses, $737,005.

ATTORNEY WILL SEEK DISMISSAL OF SUITS

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 26.—(P)—Claude N. Sapp, United States district attorney, said today he would move to dismiss more than 70 cases by South Carolina cotton mills and factories asking injunctions against the collection of AAA processing taxes.

The motion will be made before Federal Judge J. Lyles Glenn, of Chester, and Frank Myers, of Charleston, Sapp added, upon the grounds that the mills have "an adequate remedy at law" under a recent amendment to the AAA act allowing individual suits to recover processing taxes after payment.

Judge Glenn said here that the cases would be heard at 10 a. m. Thursday in the federal district court.

CASON IS RE-ELECTED MAYOR AT BARNESVILLE

BARNESVILLE, Ga., Aug. 26.—In the city election here today J. A. Cason was re-elected mayor for the third consecutive time. B. M. Turner and B. T. Woodall were re-elected aldermen and Z. T. Maxwell was elected alderman to succeed C. E. Lee, who did not offer for re-election.

W. B. Smith and E. Wiesebaum were elected to the city board of education without opposition.

NATIONAL AIR DERBY LED BY CHATTERTON

ABILENE, TEXAS, Aug. 26.—(P)—Ruth Chatterton, movie actress turned pilot, led the six contestants in the Los Angeles to Cleveland air derby she is sponsoring into the Abilene airport early tonight for an overnight stop.

Leslie Hayward retained his point lead in the contest, conducted on a handicap basis.

CROSS SECTIONS

Descendants of Robert and Sarah Roberts Jones will hold their 30th annual reunion next Friday at Grant park. The Rev. W. J. DeBardeleben, pastor of the Capitol View Methodist church, will speak on the life of the late W. P. Jones. Miss Annie Humphries, daughter of Judge and Mrs. John D. Humphries, will give an outline of the history of the family. Pupils of Cecil White will furnish music.

Miss Larne Wilson, recently named "Miss Atlanta" in a beauty contest at Lakewood park, will be honored by the Oriental Club at a dance next Saturday night in the Shrine Mosque. She will leave Sunday morning for Atlantic City, where she will compete for the title "Miss America." The dance will be open to the public, it was announced.

Mitcham family will hold its 20th annual reunion next Sunday at the home of J. M. Mitcham in Rockdale county. Dinner will be served in a grove and all relatives and friends of the family are invited.

Atlanta Wesley Federation will hold its monthly business meeting in St. Paul's Methodist church at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow night. Ruth Blackwood, publicity chairman, announced yesterday.

Dr. Gordon G. Singleton, of Macon, Georgia district governor of the Kiwanis Club, will pay an official visit to Atlanta Kiwanians at their luncheon in the Ansley hotel today, it was announced yesterday. Pairings for the Kiwanis golf tournament will be posted at today's luncheon. Cedarwood club will be host to Atlanta Kiwanians and other clubs in the first division of the Georgia district at an interclub meeting Wednesday night, it was announced.

"My Profession" will be discussed by Hamilton Douglas, Will Griffith and Walton Reeves at the luncheon of the Citizens Club in the Atlanta Athletic Club at 12:30 o'clock today, it was announced yesterday.

Grady Hospital Alumnae Association will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Grady hospital nurses' home, it was announced yesterday. Dr. George Sparks, director of the Evening School of the University System of Georgia, will speak on education for nurses.

Senator Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, may be heard over WGST at 10 o'clock tonight as he speaks over a CBS network in commemoration of the Kellogg-Briand peace pact. The senator will speak under the auspices of the National Council of Jewish Women, Atlantans on the council announced yesterday.

Senator Allen Chappell, of Americus, visiting at the capitol yesterday, said he had received assurance that a new bridge will be constructed soon over the Flint river on the Americus-Corlele highway. During his stay here the senator conferred with the Governor and members of the State Highway Board.

Dr. W. E. Dove, federal director of screw worm control, said yesterday that agents of his office will conduct a series of educational meetings among north Georgia farmers and stockmen this week. The meetings will be held at Celatown, Calhoun, Jasper, Lawrenceville, Winder, Jefferson, Lincoln, Hartwell, Clarksville, Clayton, Blairsville, Dahlonega and Chatsworth.

A. L. Henson, state veterans' service officer, said yesterday that he would ask the national convention of the American Legion at St. Louis to adopt a resolution calling for immediate payment of the soldier bonus out of the $4,800,000,000 federal relief fund. A similar proposal was defeated by the state convention of the Legion last week at Macon.

Plans considered of "vital importance" to cities along the Coastal highway were discussed at a conference held here yesterday with J. Houston Johnston, acting state PWA director; Harvey Granger, chairman of the Coastal Highway District Commissioners, said. Granger also conferred with Governor Talmadge on highway matters.

Hapeville Chapter of the Woodmen of the World, will sponsor a fiddlers' convention in the Hapeville city auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights. All fiddlers, banjoists, guitarists and players of other string instruments are invited to attend, it was announced yesterday.

Heavy Showers Drench Arizona In Answer to Hopi Indians' Prayer

Legend Has It That Not Once Since Rites First Performed More Than 1,000 Years Ago Have Rain Gods Failed.

WALPI, Ariz., Aug. 26.—(P)—Hopi Indians calmly professed to see nothing unusual today in the fact that heavy showers drenched Walpi a few minutes after the strange snake dance—climax of the ancient Hopi ceremonial prayer for rain—was concluded.

"After all," the reminded curious whites, "legend has it that not once since the rites were first performed, more than a thousand years ago, have the gods failed to answer our prayer for rain."

The snake dance, performed yesterday by the snake and antelope clans in the plaza here before hundreds of Indian and white spectators, was the final event of the annual nine-day ceremony.

Snakes, gathered from the desert, were carried between the teeth of the snake priests during the dance.

And hardly had the sound of the weird snake chant died away, before the first showers arrived. Soon a driving rain set in.

While the white visitors, who had come from all parts of the world to witness the strange spectacle, turned homeward with thoughtful faces, the Indians welcomed the rain with joy, convinced the snake messengers so recently set free to write their way out into the desert had carried their prayers to the gods swiftly.

43 Airplanes Owned in Georgia Are Unlicensed Under U. S. Laws

Forty-three monoplanes and biplanes privately owned in Georgia, with a passenger and crew capacity of 117 persons, are unlicensed and, if operated, would be done so in violation of the state law requiring Department of Commerce approval of all craft flown in this state.

These figures were revealed yesterday in a survey as of June 1 made by the Bureau of Air Commerce of the United States Department of Commerce.

The total unlicensed civilian planes in the state is nearly half the entire number known to be owned by Georgians. There are 96 in all, with a passenger and crew capacity of 291 persons.

The report is the second phase of the government survey of civilian aviation in the United States. The first phase determined that the useful life of an airplane frequently exceeds five years and that there were at least 169 planes now in service in the United States which were built in 1926 or before.

In this classification the department found four in Georgia for which they could not determine the date of construction and 2 built in 1926 or before. All are single-engine biplanes.

Three biplanes built in 1927 are unlicensed; two are. Eight monoplanes of 1928 construction were found; three were unlicensed. Twelve biplanes of that date revealed but three with licenses. One 1929 monoplane carried a license; three did not. Twelve 1929 biplanes were operated legally; eight were not.

Two of the seven Georgia monoplanes built in 1930 are official; five of 12 biplanes are without credentials. Two of six 1931 monoplanes are considered unsafe to fly, according to the survey; two biplanes are licensed.

Only three planes in Georgia were constructed in 1932 and all are licensed. All 1933 models carry the stamp of approval and one monoplane of 1934 and one of 1935 complete the list of those not approved for safe flying.

The nation-wide totals showed 8,733 civilian planes, 6,764 of which were licensed and 1,969 of which were not.

ARCHBISHOP OKEHS IRISH SWEEPSTAKE

They Won't Work in U. S., He Says, 'Because of Too Much Politics.'

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(P)—Tanned and rested, Archbishop Michael J. Curley, of Baltimore, returned from a vacation at his home in sunny Erin today with a declaration that he sees no objection to sweepstake lotteries and that Ireland and the rest of the world are "all right."

"I see no harm whatever," said the prelate, "in the Irish people putting down a few bob with the idea of getting a fortune out of the sweepstakes. I always wanted such luck myself but I never seemed to play in luck in things like that."

"It is a clean, well-conducted sweepstake in Ireland. I don't think it possible in America because you could not keep the politicians out of it."

Streets Named.

CAIRO, Ga., Aug. 26.—(P)—A modernizing influence is noted in redesignating of east-west thoroughfares as avenues by number and north-south thoroughfares as streets by number.

ating legally; eight were not.

Two of the seven Georgia monoplanes built in 1930 are official; five of 12 biplanes are without credentials. Two of six 1931 monoplanes are considered unsafe to fly, according to the survey; two biplanes are licensed.

Only three planes in Georgia were constructed in 1932 and all are licensed. All 1933 models carry the stamp of approval and one monoplane of 1934 and one of 1935 complete the list of those not approved for safe flying.

The nation-wide totals showed 8,733 civilian planes, 6,764 of which were licensed and 1,969 of which were not.

PRESIDENT SIGNS BILL GIVING SCHOOLS LOANS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(P)—The President late today signed the Robinson-Terry school finance law which authorizes the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to lend amounts up to $10,000,000, for the benefit of tax-supported public school districts. The act imposes a 33-year limit on the loan period and lays down security stipulations and definitions.

ALABAMAN SUCCEEDS P. T. FARRELL ON I. C. C.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(P)—Marion M. Caskey, of Alabama, today was sworn in as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He succeeds Patrick J. Farrell, of Washington, D. C., whose term expired on December 31, last.

ALABAMAN SUCCEEDS P. T. FARRELL ON I. C. C.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(P)—Marion M. Caskey, of Alabama, today was sworn in as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He succeeds Patrick J. Farrell, of Washington, D. C., whose term expired on December 31, last.

Featured in Haverty's August Sale

NEW LOW PRICE ON STEWART-WARNER

Safety Zone

Electric Refrigerator

99.50 and up

- DELIVERED
- INSTALLED
- SERVICED
- FULLY GUARANTEED

See this sensational value in Electric Refrigeration now—only a few at this new low price.

This Offer Is for EVERYBODY Whether You Own Your Home—Or Pay Rent

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY

Corner Edgewood and Pryor St.—Just a Few Steps From 5 Points

Haverty's RADIO OFFER!

Free Home Trial ON THE NEWLY RELEASED 1936 PHILCO

AMERICAN and FOREIGN RADIO RECEIVER

No Interest or Carrying Charges

THIS amazing Haverty offer is for a short time only, so act quickly! 5 days' free trial in your own home on this powerful new 1936 Philco Radio which has just been released. Its many new features include 3-band American and foreign reception and police, amateur, ship and aircraft signals. It must be seen and heard to be appreciated!

$66 Complete with scientifically designed Philco All-Wave Aerial.

1936 PHILCO MODEL 610B

$53 Complete with scientifically designed Philco All-Wave Aerial.

A small down payment and $1.00 WK. AND UP

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY

Corner Edgewood and Pryor St.—Just a Few Steps From 5 Points

At Haverty's! Today!

25¢ A WEEK

Will Pay For a Genuine

Simmons Beautyrest

This remarkable offer now makes it possible for everyone to enjoy "Millionaire Sleep." For 26 nights you may try a Beautyrest, and pay only 25 cents a week. At the end of the trial, pay only $1.00 a week—if you are not entirely satisfied, we will cheerfully refund your money and take back the mattress. This new Beautyrest is the only mattress with a triple guarantee—Haverty's, Simmons and Good Housekeeping's. It comes to you in a factory-sealed carton, choice of 3 beautiful colors in lovely Tapestry Damask covers. This double offer is for only a limited time.

7 Hours on a Beautyrest—You Look Better—Feel Better.

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY

Corner Edgewood Avenue and Pryor Street

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY

Corner Edgewood and Pryor St.—Just a Few Steps From 5 Points